The Rules

[The Rules | How to Enter | Standings | Links | For the Record | Scott's Latest Update]

Who's eligible to join the pool?

Anyone and everyone (members of participating NCAA programs might want to consider carefully, though ;-)).

What are the requirements?

The only requirements are that the $10 entry fee is paid before the round of 16 games have begun, and that the pertinent entry information is received before the start of the tournament. The pertinent entry information would include:

- Real name
- Preferred nickname (I am the Mighty Mobelfakta, so that name's taken already).
- Prediction for the total combined score of the championship game (for tie-breaking purposes).
- Predicted winners of all 63 tournament games.

See the section How to Enter.

How are the points scored?

2 points for each 1st round win
3 points for each 2nd round win
4 points for each 3rd round win
6 points for each 4th round win
8 points for each 5th round win
12 points for correctly picking the NCAA Champion

There is no weighting for "upsets".

How is the prize money distributed?

Last year with 59 entries, there was a first, second, third, and fourth place prize. The $590.00 pot was split as follows: 1st-$275.00, 2nd-$150.00, 3rd-$100.00, and 4th-$65.00. This year the money will be split with roughly the same proportions going to the winners.

What if there's a tie?

The participant whose prediction comes closest (higher or lower) for the final combined score of the championship game will win the tie-breaker. If there is STILL a tie, the money will be split. For instance, if there is a tie for first place, the winners will split the combined prize money for first and second place. FYI, in seven years of running this pool, there has only been one tie for prize money.

Can I enter more than once?

You certainly can. Statistically, your chances of winning would double. However, so far of the eight people (17 entries) who have tried their luck with multiple entries, only two have taken home any prize money. Go figure.

[The Rules | How to Enter | Standings | Links | For the Record | Scott's Latest Update]

1. The most convenient method of entry for those with internet access would be the web entry form which can be accessed here. Otherwise, get thee a copy of the NCAA Men's Tournament Bracket. The most convenient place to get one would be the sports section of your local newspaper. You can also get the brackets at various sports related web sites (ESPN, FinalFour.net, CBS Sportsline, etc.). If you are planning to enter online via this web site, skip to step 6 below.

2. Fill out the brackets completely using all the college basketball wisdom you can conjure up.

3. Make a prediction for the total combined score for the championship game. For instance, if you think the final score will be 82-76, your prediction would be 158.

4. Create a nickname for yourself. This is important, because if you don't give us one, we'll make one up for you. Historically, these assigned nicknames have not been flattering.

5. Send all that precious information this-away before the first game on Thursday, March 20. Obviously, the fastest way to get the info here is via the web entry form or by e-mail (ncaa@hwci.com). If sending your picks by e-mail, the most efficient way of completing this tedious task is to format your picks as follows:

Nickname:
Final game total score:
NCAA Champion:
Runner-up:
Final Four losers (round 5):
Round 4 losers (4 teams):
Round 3 losers (8 teams):
Round 2 losers (16 teams):

6. And finally, you must arrange to have your entry fee of $10 sent to us. The preferred method of payment is PayPal. This is the most popular and established method of making payments between independent parties on the internet, and amounts to using your credit card when making payments. The link below will forward you to a form where you can easily log in and make a $10 payment to "hwci@hotmail.com" (Scott's PayPal account) if you already have a PayPal account or where you can create an account if you don't have one yet.

If you prefer to send a check, please e-mail us to make arrangements. All entry fees must be paid by Saturday, March 22. Remember, if you have any questions, address them to ncaa@hwci.com.

2002 HWCI NCAA Pool Update

Friday, March 8, 2002

Issue # 0.0.0 "Incoming!..."

<http://www.HWCI.com/ncaa>

Fans, Gamblers, Soldiers, Citizens Alike,

Here is the official shot across the bow to serve as the official warning that the Official 2002 NCAA Tournament is coming next week. Officially. Of course, this means it's time to dust off our little HWCI NCAA Pool and prepare for action. The tournament seedings and pairings will be announced Sunday evening, March 10, with the games starting Thursday morning, March 14. If you're ready to brave the hellfire and join the cause, report to our website at www.hwci.com/ncaa. If you've entered our pool before, then you don't need to read the rest of this message, all the info is at the site. Here are the particulars:

Website: <http://www.hwci.com/ncaa>

Entry Fee: $10

Deadline: 9 am, Thursday, March 14, 2001

Recruiting Incentive: One free entry for every 5 referrals

Note: For the second year, there will be a "play-in" game held on Tuesday to determine the 64th team. We will be ignoring this game since 2 days is just too short a time to get everyone's entries in.

We'll send out one more message as a reminder next week. Any questions can be directed to either me (dfeng@hwci.com) or Scott (scott@hwci.com).

that is all,
dfeng

All:

You are getting this e-mail because you fall into one or more of the following categories:

- 1) I know you're a big sports fan who can't wait for the tournament.
- 2) I suspect you of having pocket change you want to donate to a worthy cause.
- 3) You're just a cool person who might be interested in a fun contest even though you're not really into sports.
- 4) You have a pulse. (Just kidding about the last one.)

As you know, it's time for the NCAA basketball tournament -- aka "March Madness" for you casual fans. You know the drill -- 64 teams, three weeks, single-elimination tournament, one winner. My friend Scott (a Raytheon guy) runs a contest every year to see who can pick the best tournament bracket, and it's time to submit your entries for this year's version!

Some questions and answers which aren't addressed below:

1) "I've never picked a bracket before. How does this work?" E-mail me and I'll explain the whole thing in more detail. However, first you have to explain to me where you've been all your life where you HAVEN'T been exposed to at least one stressed-out person in March who was muttering over a highlighted piece of paper about how he was SO close to winning this time.

2) "Why join this pool when there are pools going on at my job, my school, my prison block, etc.?" This pool is a lot of fun because a) there is a big turnout, b) the whole thing is web-based so you can check your progress from anywhere, c) Scott mails out timely updates so you always know where you stand, d) there is a message board where you can either post encouragement or talk smack (smack is more fun), and (last but not least) e) I'M in this tournament, and I'm an easy target. (In case you haven't noticed, my Bruins look a little lost these days.)

3) "What if I can't get the money to you by the deadline?" Since some of you are a good distance away, you might not see me for a while to hand in the entry fee. E-mail me if this will be a problem -- I can float the entry fee until you get a chance to pay up. WARNING: If you NEVER pay, your entry will become another one of mine. BIGGER WARNING: If you NEVER pay up AND you picked a crappy bracket which doesn't win, I will personally hunt you down.

4) "Can I forward this invite to other people?" Yes -- the more the merrier! Please do not forward to the FBI, ATF, IRS, or any other agency with an acronym for a title which would bring a quick end to the fun. Or people that think Illinois will win the whole thing. (Just kidding, Ho.)

5) "I don't follow basketball -- how do I know which teams to pick?" Past experience has shown that knowing stuff about college basketball is largely irrelevant to picking a good bracket. (If you would like more specific examples, please note the losing entries from me the last two years.) People have used a variety of strategies to pick teams, including the following:

- > Always picking the team with the lowest seed (1 beats 2, 2 beats 3, etc.) and then flipping a coin twice for the Final Four.
- > Picking teams with cool-sounding mascots.
- > Picking teams from schools that people you know attended.
- > Picking teams in alphabetical order (A beats B, B beats C, etc.)
- > Picking teams from favorite states.
- > Picking teams at random.
- > Asking John what he thinks about a particular matchup, then picking exactly the opposite of what he thinks.
- > Calling Madame Cleo.

All kidding aside -- there will be a lot of information printed in the next day or two about the various teams and matchups, so you can probably get up to speed in a hurry if you haven't watched a lot of basketball this year. And the #1 rule to remember about the tournament: NOTHING happens exactly as expected.

6) "I don't even like sports -- would I enjoy this?" SURE! (Well, I'm not THAT good of a salesman.) It's basically the same as joining a Super Bowl pool when you don't follow football -- it's a chance for some camaraderie and competition, and an EXCELLENT opportunity to learn a little bit about basketball during one of its most exciting moments. If you're not interested, I won't be offended. However, you can still send me $10 if you want.

7) "Are you just trying to get a million free entries for referring people?" Not really -- it would be nice, but mostly I'm passing this along because it's a lot of fun, and it's a well-run pool. I certainly don't want anyone to think that I'm trying to profit from my friends. Since I've included all of you on a bcc: list, Scott doesn't know who I referred -- if you want to list me as a reference, great...I appreciate it. If not, just say you found the page on Google and enjoy the pool anyway.

8) "What does HWCI stand for?" I could tell you, but then I'd have to kill you. (No, just kidding. Ask Scott, since I don't get it either.)

9) "Any other tips?" Sure, I have a few to pass on -- take 'em with a grain of salt:

-> There has NEVER been a tournament where all four #1 seeds made the Final Four, although three have made it that far before. If you do pick "with the seeding," keep this in mind -- you might want to add an upset along the way if you believe in history.

-> The lowest seed ever to win the tournament (someone correct me if I'm wrong) was a #4 (#8 Villanova in 1985-Editor). So, go ahead and pick your favorite school to go all the way...but check that seeding first.

-> No #1 seed has ever lost in the first round.

-> Two of the #1 seeds this year (Maryland and Kansas) lost in their conference tournaments.

-> That little school from the Pacific Northwest who got totally screwed with a #6 seed is pronounced "gon-ZAG-uh," not "GONE-zuh-guh" as I heard (much to my amusement) last year from someone who will remain nameless. Practice how to say it -- they will be around for a while this year...

Hope to see you all in the bracket this year -- I'm under "Jinx," by the way. Some of you know the story already...some of you will see why in action VERY soon.

Issue # 1.0.1 "The Amazing Race..."

<http://www.HWCI.com/ncaa>

LOSE YOUR CONFERENCE TOURNEY, GET A #1 SEED In weird twist, 1st/2nd round sites assigned after pairings

CERRITOS/EL SEGUNDO, CA (smt)- Like last year when two Big 10 teams (Michigan St. and Illinois) lost in their tourney and got # 1 seeds, Maryland and Kansas were rewarded for losing their last game by getting the #1 seed in the East and Midwest, respectively. Duke (South) and Cincinnati (West) got the other two #1 seeds. Winthrop improves from the 1st-ever 65th team last year to 63rd and will play Duke (poor guys).

Again, a 65th team was awarded and again, we won't care. A new quirk in the selection process was that regional 1st/2nd round sites were matched with local high-ranked teams. So instead of the city of Sacramento hosting eight teams in the West Regional, they'll host four teams in the Midwest Regional (with #2 Oregon) and four teams in the South Regional (with #4 USC, as in Southern Cal, not South Carolina). This'll give several teams home-court advantages of sorts, and could affect predicting which teams will win... which brings us to...

Drum roll, please, as we are proud to present the 8th Annual HWCI NCAA Tournament Pool. Fifteen people correctly picked Duke to win it all last year but only four came away with any money with Robinson C. taking home the $280 first-place prize, our largest ever. A record 54 people (59 entries) tried their prediction skills with most getting burned by an upset-minded first round and Stanford's Elite 8 loss to Maryland.

So now it's time to use your jedi mind tricks on this year's tournament, with no clear-cut #1 team. How does Gonzaga, the No. 6 team in the nation in the latest poll, get just a #6W seed (the same seed as Bobby Knight's Texas Tech team in the East)? At least Pepperdine (#10MW) got in. Who would've thought at the beginning of the season UCLA and Stanford would both be #8 seeds? Will #2W-Oklahoma show #1W-Cincinnati it deserved the #1 seed after knocking off Kansas? Well, you have until 9 am Thursday to make up your minds. Because this is no ordinary pool... this is the Amazing Pool.

SUB-.500 SIENNA TAKES "OPENING ROUND" GAME Entries a-rollin' in.. deadline is 9 am tomorrow

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- #65-Sienna, with a 16-18 record, took the first step in trying to become the first team to ever win seven games in a tournament. Unfortunately, beating #64-Alcorn St. means they'll face #1E-Maryland. Oh, well. Considering the finalfour.net site didn't even have this game webcast (at least for the first hour) shows how unimportant this game was.

This year's pool is proceeding steadily. We'll come close to our high of 59 entries last year with a good mix of newbies and veterans. If you have any suggestions (not that we'll listen :-), please post them to our discussion board. Also, if you have a PDA and use Avantgo, you can download the latest pool updates. Go to Scott's Pool Updates at <http://www.hwci.com/ncaa/scott.html>.

An fyi... I'll be in Vegas next week (Sat 3/23-Mon 3/25) and in Miami for the first part of the Final Four (Thu 3/28-Sun morn 3/31) so updates could be slim during these periods. I'm working to borrow someone's laptop or find an internet cafe nearby. But Dave will keep the web page updated every night with the latest standings and possibilities. In the meantime, let's hope CBS's coverage is better than NBC's coverage of the Olympics.

Issue # 3.1.1 "Upset Central..."

<http://www.HWCI.com/ncaa>

FIVE DOUBLE-DIGIT SEEDS ADVANCE LED BY UNC-WILMINGTON CMT One wins first 8 games, Stummer loses first five games

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- While #1S-Duke, #4E-Kentucky, #2MW-Oregon, #5S-Indiana, #8S-Notre Dame, and #8MW-Stanford rolled to easy victories, #2S-Alabama, #7MW-Wake Forest, #4W-Ohio St., #3W-Arizona, and #1MW-Kansas survived some scares. Arizona Others weren't so lucky. #11W-Wyoming eliminated fan-favorite #6W-Gonzaga thanks to hitting their last 13 free throws. #4S-USC, however, despite a spirited 19-point second half rally with 9:37 left to send the game into overtime, could've beat #13S-UNC-Wilmington had they just hit one of their seven free throws they missed during that stretch.

#10S-Kent St. and #12W-Missouri set the tone of the tourney by upsetting their higher-seeded counterparts easily. #12E-Tulsa almost let a 14-pt lead slip away but held off #5E-Marquette. Arizona held off Mark Hull and his #14W-UCSB's 3-pt barrage (16 3-pointers) and Kansas, Alabama, Wake Forest, and Ohio St. had to wait until late in the second half to pull away from what most thought would be easy wins. Interestingly, five double-seeded teams won while #9 seeds went 0-2. The "underrated" West Coast Conference lost both teams (Zags and Pepperdine). California-based teams, seven total, went 1-3 today.

In the pool, CMT ONE (24 pts) won his first 8 games before setting for a tie for 3rd. SSLUK (26) used his Wyoming pick (the only one to do so) to tie for the lead with RANDOM PICKS (1st-Tied, 26). 60 entries have at least 10 wins. STRUMMER (81st-T, 14) lost her first five games, and 3-9 before going 4-0 in the late games to salvage a tie for last place with SPLASHER (81st-T, 14). The 14 pts also ties for the worst Thursday ever. It's no surprise that everyone picked Duke, Oregon, and Alabama but the surprise was they all picked USC as well. That was the only game no one won. 17 people picked Tulsa and 32 picked Missouri, both #12 seeds. The most evenly contested game was Wake Forest-Pepperdine as 42 went with the local Waves and 40 for the Demon Deacons. JINX (12th-T, 22) was hurt the most as two of his Final Four teams (USC and Gonzaga) were eliminated. Four people lost one team in their final. But it's still early and tomorrow, fortunes can be reversed.

Unofficially, we received a whopping 82 entries from 73 people. This shatters last year's total of 59. Another surprise is that 42 are returning participants. We appreciate everyone's support and hope you enjoy it even if you don't win.

Issue # 4.1.2 "Missouri Valley Pride..."

<http://www.HWCI.com/ncaa>

MVC' CREIGHTON AND SOUTHERN ILLINOIS PROVIDE ONLY UPSETS OF DAY

Random Picks takes 4 point lead while Free Jinx goes 15-1

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- The Missouri Valley Conference flexed their muscle as #12MW-Creighton upset #5MW-Florida in double-overtime and #11E-Southern Illinois knocked off Bob Knight's #6E-Texas Tech. These were the only two upsets of the day although #15E-Hampton nearly provided their second straight upset of a #2 seed in as many years, losing to #2E-UConn. #7E-NC St., #7W-Xavier, and #8W-UCLA had strong second halves to advance. #1W-Cincy replicated Duke's effort in routing poor #16W-Boston U. #4MW-Illinois, #6MW-Texas, and #3S-Pitt won at "home" in the new Pod system. #2W-OK, #6S-Cal, #8E-Wisconsin, #3MW-Mississippi St., #1E-Maryland, and #3E-Georgia also won. The Pac-10 finished 5-1 and the ACC 4-0. This is the first time three #12 seeds advanced to the second round.

In the pool, FREE JINX (50 pts) went 15-1 to tie an all-time record for a Friday and go from tied for 39th to tied for second. He picked Creighton and So. Illinois but missed picking NC State. Just 12 picked Creighton and 16 picked the Salukis. In another split vote, 40 picked NC St. and 43 chose Xavier. The leader is RANDOM PICKS (52) who opened up the largest lead (4 pts) after one round in the history of the pool. NC St. gave PICKS the lead and Xavier's win gave him a 2-win margin and maintained it til the end of the day. Eight people are tied for second with 48 pts. SSLUK (46) had some hard luck and goes from tied for 1st to tied for 25th. Ten people went 14-2 while six went 9-7.

We are still in "unofficial" status as we try to verify everyone's entries. The sooner you send in your money, or tell us you'll be sending in your money, the quicker we can announce the prize money breakdown.

ALABAMA AND OHIO ST. GET EARLY EXITS AMONGST CLOSE GAMES Yellow Monkey and Kaizen shadow leader Random Picks

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- If you woke up late, you almost missed #1S-Duke going down, but alas, they held on to win by seven. However, #4W-Ohio St. and #2S-Alabama were upset easily by #12W-Missouri and #10S-Kent St., respectively. The "state" teams, #2MW-Oregon, #4E-Kentucky (led by Tayshaun Prince's 41 pts), #3W-Arizona, and #5S-Indiana won tight games while #1MW-Kansas routed #8MW-Stanford to reach the Sweet 16 for the second straight year. #13S-UNC-Wilmington played a reverse roll from their first round game, rallying from 17 pts down midway in the second half to pull within 3, before Indiana put the game away.

How good is CBS's coverage? With less than 40 seconds left and Oregon clinging to a 3-pt lead, CBS switched over to Arizona and their double-digit lead with 4 minutes left. Huh? Not only did CBS not show the end of Oregon's game, the failed to show the end of the tight Tulsa-Kentucky game (also in the last minute) that ended minutes after Oregon's game. If you had a radio nearby, that was the only way to listen to the end of the Oregon game, then the end of the Kentucky game in succession.

RANDOM PICKS (72 pts) stayed on top and maintained his 4 pt lead over KAIZEN (68) and YELLOW MONKEY (68). NOBODY (64) matched the leaders and moved from tied for 25th to 6th place. WILDCAT PRIDE (57) was the only one to pick both upsets and moved from 53rd to 10th, but ended the day tied for 39th. GOBAY (79th, 43) had the worst one-day 2nd Round total ever (Sat or Sun) going 1-7, his only saving grace being Duke. PSW, PINEAPPLE PRINCESS, and ZONAMASTER (all 53rd-T -> 28th-T, 60) made runs up the standings while JAYEMELLE (9th-T -> 39th-T, 57) slid down the bracket. GOBAY, FREE BIX PIX (51st, 55), and PATTOMAN (28th-T, 60) lost their champion, Alabama, while NETFLOWER just has 2 of her Elite 8 teams left (and just one Final Four team). GOBAY also lost 3 of his 4 Final Four teams and can't get more than 76 points.

After tomorrow's games, we'll (unfortunately) find out which entries have been eliminated. In 2000, 13 of 36 entries were eliminated but in 2001 only 6 of 59 had no chance. So some of you may be surprised you still have a chance and others near the upper half of the standings could be disappointed. That's why we love this pool.

We are still in "unofficial" status as we try to verify everyone's entries. The sooner you send in your money, or tell us you'll be sending in your money, the quicker we can announce the prize money breakdown.

Issue # 6.2.2 "UCLA saves Lavin..Again..."

<http://www.HWCI.com/ncaa>

CINCY STUNNED BY UCLA IN DOUBLE OT WHILE SALUKIS UPSET GEORGIA

Nobody sneaks up to third place while 23 are eliminated

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- #8W-UCLA, whose coach Steve Lavin was under fire to be fired, shocked #1W-Cincinnati, 105-101, in a wild double overtime game. Cincinnati, after reaching the Sweet 16 last year, failed to get past the second round for the fifth time in the past six years and is the first #1 seed to fall. #6MW-Texas nearly blew a late 14-pt lead to hold off #3MW-Mississippi St. while #2E-Uconn hit 21 of 23 free throws to stave off #7E-NC St. #4MW-Illinois, #3S-Pitt, and #1E-Maryland, all playing at "neutral" pod sites close to home, picked up victories. The other upset was #11E-So. Illinois coming back to beat #3E-Georgia. The Big 12 has 4 teams in the Sweet 16 while the Southeastern Conference began the tourney with 6 teams but only Kentucky remains.

CBS once again broke away from an "active" game of Mississippi St. and Texas to go to commercial. If not for all the timeouts, CBS would not have gotten back in time for the conclusion. How do you break for commercial with 46 seconds left and Miss. St. bringing down the ball? Again, you could've listened to the exciting game on KMPC 1540 AM.

RANDOM PICKS (90 pts) maintained his 7-pt lead over ARPS. NOBODY (82) moved to third place. THE DUKE, THE FABON8ER, and ZIPPY (81) are tied for 4th. WILDCAT PRIDE (39th-Tied -> 11th-T) and SOURCE (75th-T -> 47th-T) moved up by going 7-1 for the day. HENDO set all-time HWCI NCAA low records: worst point total after 2 rounds (45), worst Sunday 2nd Round (1-7), worst 2nd Round (3-13, tied with GOBAY). RANDOM PICKS set a record for most points after two rounds (was 86 in 1996) and looks to top the all-time record of 148 by BIX PIX in 1995.

Just 3 picked So. Illinois, 15 UCLA, and 28 Texas. 47 each picked Illinois and Pitt. Cincy's loss hurt 7 people who had them winning it all. No one has their Elite 8 bracket intact. GOBAY is the only person with both final teams out and two people have 6 of their Elite 8 teams gone. However, NETFLOWER (70th-T, 62) still has a chance for third place. Which brings us to...

The possibilities. After two rounds, 59 entries are still alive for money spots and 36 still have a chance to claim first place. More details will be divulged tomorrow. For a peak, check the website for everyone's possibilities (or lack thereof).

(Broken record). We are still in "unofficial" status as we try to verify everyone's entries. The sooner you send in your money, or tell us you'll be sending in your money, the quicker we can announce the prize money breakdown.

Issue # 7.2.3 "Pressure's on Random Picks..."

<http://www.HWCI.com/ncaa>

RANDOM PICKS HAS BETTER THAN 2 IN 9 CHANCE FOR FIRST PLACE 36 vie for first while 59 will continue to pray

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- Out of 32,768 possible outcomes in the next two weeks, GO WARRIORS can win money on only 11 of them (0.03%). But that's better than the other 23 entries who have torn up their bracket and cursed the team(s) that failed them. Six (RANDOM PICKS, NOBODY, THE DUKE, FREE JINX, ARPS, and THE FABON8ER) have better than a 1 in 4 chance of winning money with PICKS leading with a 62% chance. PICKS also has the best chance of winning first (22%) and leads the pool by seven points and has doubled the last place point total (90 vs 45 by HENDO). But hot on his trail are NOBODY (14% 1st, 40% $) and THE DUKE (12% 1st, 37% $). Because 9 different teams have been picked to win it all, there are 36 people still with a chance to claim first place. We have never had anyone win the pool twice and the only former champions, FREE BIX PIX and TEAM SAMURAI II, have less than a 1% of winning it all.

The variety of picks has caused some interesting possible scenarios. YUDANJA, sitting tied for 70th place, can still win it all (0.7%) while NETFLOWER, also tied for 70th, has just 2 of her Elite 8 teams intact but because she has Pitt winning it all, can still win 3rd or 4th place (0.3%). Two Sooner fans, WANTABE and BIG RED are tied for 68th but can still win 1st (0.4%). On the other side, KAIZEN, tied for 7th place, can't finish higher than 2nd. BINGO, tied for 22nd, can't finish higher than 4th. And MAD1 (previous years: MAD MANDO and REALLY MAD MANDO), though sitting tied for 32nd with three entries eyeing first, can't win a penny.

If you think your percentage is too low to win any money, just look to last year. 1st place was won by an entry that had just a 2.0% chance of winning it all. 2nd place had a 1.5% chance, 3rd 5.7%, and 4th place entry was given just a 0.8% chance. In fact, the top 13 entries with the highest percentages came away with nothing. So hope is not lost if you believe.

Prize money distribution will be officially announced on Friday morning. We have two entries we are still trying to verify. Either way, the 1st place prize will be at least $400 ($200 more and you'll have to report it to the IRS ;-)). Stay tuned...

Issue # 8.3.1 "Hoosiers and Golden Flashes..."

<http://www.HWCI.com/ncaa>

OH MY! BIG SECOND HALVES, FREE THROWS HIGHLIGHT UPSETS Appropriately, The Duke is one of two entries disqualified

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- Big second halves by #5S-Indiana (ended on 29-14 run), #2W-Oklahoma (ended on 48-23 run), and #12W-Missouri (ended on 38-22 run) propelled them into the Elite 8. #10S-Kent St. let #3S-Pitt end the second half on a 15-9 run but held on in overtime to upset Pitt, 78-73. The biggest upset was Indiana's win over defending champion #1S-Duke, who many considered to have an easy road to the Final Four. How big are making free throws? Just ask Jason Williams or the Kent St. team. With Duke down by four, Williams got the rebound and hit a three with four seconds left and was fouled for a chance for a 4-pt play to tie the game. What a gift. But what was going to be Duke's downfall at the start of the tournament? Poor free throwing. Williams had a chance to erase all his free throwing problems with one shot. He missed. Duke lost. On the other side, Kent St. hit all 8 free throws in overtime. The final California team (of 7) and fourth and fifth Pac-10 teams lost today. #8W-UCLA, having already saved coach Lavin's job, folded in the second half.

How bad is it for Bob Knight? He's portrayed horribly in an ESPN movie ladden with profanity. His #6E-Texas Tech team gets upset in the first round. Now, his former team, Indiana, has advanced to the Elite 8 with a clear path to the Final Four.

Two entries have been removed due to lack of payment, leaving the field with 80 entries. THE DUKE and SHOCKING HEATER 99 didn't respond to any emails and will be forever deleted. This allowed MADPRO#2 (53rd-Tied, 69 pts) to briefly go from elimination to a chance for 4th, but at the end of the day, he was back where he started. Duke's loss and Oklahoma's win changed the whole dynamics of the pool. RANDOM PICKS (90) is still in first despite going 0-4 and has a 15.7% chance of winning first but the best chance of winning money shifts to THE FABON8ER (2nd, 85) with 50.4%. CHENMAN and DARA (both at 20th-T, 77) now both have an 11% chance of winning first. The biggest jumpers were those who went 2-2 for the day (YOU BETTER BELIEVE IT 39th-T -> 14th-T and SOURCE 47th-T -> 28th-T thanks to Missouri picks). Two picked Indiana and three picked Kent St. but all failed to pick Oklahoma. ZONAMASTER (37th-T, 73) also picked Missouri but picked Arizona. 31 people lost their Champion pick.

The top three are PICKS, THE FABON8ER, and FREE JINX (84). MHK (83), although tied for 4th place with ARPS, can't finish higher than 3rd. ZIPPY (81) is eliminated despite being tied for 6th place. Also tied for sixth, PINKOCEAN can't finish higher than 2nd and BOB DYLAN can't finish higher than fourth. The $800 prize money breakdown should be released tomorrow on the discussion board sometime.

Issue # 9.3.2 "Sloppy wins..."

<http://www.HWCI.com/ncaa>

TOP SEEDS ADVANCE ALTHOUGH NOT CONVINCINGLY Race too close to call as Ten now has best chance for 1st

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- Both #1 and #2 seeds advanced in the East and Midwest regions to keep bottom bracket intact. #2E-UConn bore down late in the second half to end #11E-S. Illinois' cinderella run. #2MW-Oregon, the lone Pac-10 team left, led by 13 in the second half but Texas' offensive rebounding kept them in the game. Tied at 70 after a Longhorn missed free throw (boy are those free throws huge!), Frederick Jones hit a jumper with 2.8 seconds left for the win. Oregon, 78% free throw shooting, missed 5 of their first 6 free throws and missed some one-and-ones to let Texas crawl back in the game. Both #1E-Maryland and #4E-Kentucky played sloppy, committing lots of turnovers and numerous bad shot selections, but Maryland survived, 78-68, thanks in part to Wildcat Keith Bogans missing consecutive front ends of one-and-one free throws late in the game. #1MW-Kansas, playing with foul trouble most of the second half, almost let a late 10-pt lead evaporate but got revenge from last year's tournament loss with #4MW-Illinois, winning 73-69. Illinois had several chances to tie the game thanks to, you guessed it, Kansas missing the front end of a one-and-one free throw with 19 seconds left. One of the keys to Maryland, Oregon, and Kansas winning was that they never let their opponent take the lead late in the game.

All the favorites won giving 29 people perfect 4-0 records for the day. Fifteen people went 5-3 for the 3rd Round to close in on RANDOM PICKS (102 pts) who now only leads by a single point over THE FABON8ER (101). FREE JINX (100) is within 2 pts. Just 36 still have a chance for money and an unusually high 16 entries still have a chance for first. Again, the pool has shuffled a bit. TEN (14th-T, 93) has the best chance to win first place at 15.6%. RANDOM PICKS slips to second with CHENMAN (14th-T, 93) at 12.5%. Of the 8 people who submitted more than one entry, only Scott T. has both entries alive (THE FABON8ER 47.7%, FREE FABONE (19th-T, 92) 14.1%).

GOBAY went 0-8 for the 3rd Round, the first time someone has not picked at least one correct

Elite 8 team. He will also finish tied with HENDO for worst entry ever at 45 points (35 people this year had 46 points or more after the 1st Round!). Two other people (DIE WITH GATORS (78th, 58) and NETFLOWER (76th, 66)) will also go 0-for-the-Final-Four. This should shape up to be an exciting and furious race to the finish. Six of the 8 teams (and all 4 in the bottom bracket) have been picked to go to the Final meaning a wide variety of entries could win.

If you missed it on the message board, the prize breakdown will be as follows:

1st Place: $400

2nd Place: $200

3rd Place: $130

4th Place: $70.

Good luck!

I'm 0-4 in overtime games...Thank you Mr. Jones...

INDIANA NAILS 15 OF 19 THREE POINTERS WHILE OK CORRALS MISSOURI

The Fabon8er takes the lead but Chenman has best chance to win it all CERRITOS, CA (smt)- #2W-Oklahoma answered every #12W-Missouri rally to advance to the Final Four for the first time since 1988, 81-75, in a matchup of Big 12 rivals. In the fractured South region, #5S-Indiana, thanks to 15 of 19 shooting beyond the arc including making their first 8 attempts, stopped #10S-Kent St.'s 21-game winning streak, 81-69. This was a game of streaks, as Indiana twice built a 20-pt lead on separate occasions (34-14, 59-39) only to see the Golden Flashes make runs of 8-0 and 13-0, the latter to cut the lead to 7. But Indiana then scored five in a row to keep it at a comfortable margin for the rest of the game and got revenge for last year's 1st round loss to Kent St. Indiana's last Final Four appearance was in 1992.

Oklahoma's win sent THE FABON8ER to the top of the standings for the first time (107). FREE JINX (106) took second, sending RANDOM PICKS (101) to third and with no chance to win first place. MADPRO (101) moved from 11th to 4th. The Sooner's win also sent five more entries packing (MHK (5th-T, 99), BOB DYLAN (8th-T, 98), NOBODY and FLYINGELVI (both 8th-T, 94), and KRAZ (51st-T, 84)) and narrowed the field to 12 those who could win first place. Both entries that picked Indiana to win failed to pick Oklahoma so 23 entries went 1-1 today.

WHAT LUCK (85) moved from 60th-T to 47th-T and 6.3% chance for 1st. CHENMAN (5th-T, 99) has the best chance to win the $400 prize at 25% with THE FABON8ER at 18.8%. Overall, THE FABON8ER has a 59.4% chance of winning something with FREE JINX at 50%. Tomorrow's games are going to be huge for a lot of people as at least 14 people have either picked UConn, Maryland, Kansas, or Oregon.

If you missed it on the message board, the prize breakdown will be as follows:

1st Place: $400

2nd Place: $200

3rd Place: $130

4th Place: $70.

Good luck!

OREGON OUTREBOUNDED AND BOUNCED; MARYLAND'S BACK IN FINAL FOUR

The Fabon8er increases chances with 5-pt lead; only 17 remain

CERRITOS (not Las Vegas), CA (smt)- #1MW-Kansas got the monkey off their backs by reaching the Final Four for the first time since 1993 with a 104-86 win over #2MW-Oregon. The Jayhawks went after every rebound (61 to 31 for the game; Drew Gooden with 20) and got nearly twice as many offensive rebounds than the Ducks which translated into numerous second chance points. That was almost Oregon's downfall vs Texas but came within five points at 77-72 before Kansas blew the game open. In a game where there seemed to be a traveling violation every two minutes, #1E-Maryland and #2E-UConn pounded against each other, trading leads over 20 times with over 20 ties throughout the game. After 12 lead changes in the first half, Maryland ended the half with a 7-pt lead. However, the second half again became a game of trading baskets but after tying the game at 79, Maryland took the lead for good building a 4-pt margin with 1:14 left. Steve Blake slammed the door shut with a back-breaking 3-pt basket as the 35-second clock expired.

Kansas' win knocked 6 entries from contention and Maryland's win knocked down another 8. It also left a curiously high 6 entries with a chance for first place with only 8 possible outcomes left. THE FABON8ER (119), one of 11 entries to go 3-1 for the 4th Round, increased his lead to five points over RANDOM PICKS, who moved back into second place. MADPRO (113) is in third and FREE JINX is in fourth but both have Duke winning it all and can't finish any higher. ARPS (111) is tied with MHK for fifth but the difference is ARPS can still tie for first (1 in 8) while MHK was eliminated yesterday. CHENMAN (105) while tied for 15th, has a 1 in 4 chance to win first or win nothing at all. YBBAT is also tied for 15th and has a 1 in 8 shot for 1st. THE FABON8ER has a 1 in 2 chance for first and a 3 in 4 chance for money. PICKS has a 50% chance at money. FREE FABONE (110) has slowly made his way up to a tie for 6th place and a 1 in 8 chance for a tie for first and 3 in 8 for money. WILDCAT PRIDE (109) dropped a spot into a tie for 7th but has the same chances as FREE FABONE. 32 entries went 2-0 for the day while 8 went 0-4 for the 4th Round.

Issue # 12.4.3 "Final Four to decide winners..."

<http://www.HWCI.com/ncaa>

NO ONE IS GUARANTEED MONEY AS 17 AWAIT FINAL FOUR WEEKEND The 8th HWCI NCAA Champion could emerge on Saturday

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- The 8th Annual HWCI NCAA Tournament Pool will see a new person claim the title of champion. Seventeen entries will be fighting for the four money spots as the Final Four kicks off Saturday with #5S-Indiana vs #2W-Oklahoma. Six have a chance to claim the $400 1st place prize. In recognition of the variety of different picks in the pool, 10 different entries have just one chance of winning money.

Scott T. is the only person that has a chance to win money on all 8 possible scenarios but if Oklahoma beats Kansas in the Final, he could lose the tiebreaker and take home nothing. Otherwise, he gets 1st or 2nd if Maryland (via THE FABON8ER) or Indiana (via FABON8ER or FREE FABONE) reaches the final. RANDOM PICKS will take home either 2nd or 4th if Maryland beats Kansas. CHENMAN will take home 1st if Oklahoma wins it all or nothing at all. WILDCAT PRIDE will take 1st or 2nd if Kansas wins it all (3rd/4th if Indiana beats Kansas). YBBAT will take 1st if Kansas beats OK (2nd/3rd if reversed) and 4th if Kansas beats Indiana. ARPS has a chance for first if Indiana beats Kansas and will fight for 4th if OK beats Kansas. Other than that, everyone else will need a specific scenario to win money. The prize breakdown: 1st-$400, 2nd-$200, 3rd-$130, and 4th-$70. The $70 for 4th place matches the 1st place winnings in our first pool in 1995.

After the first 2 rounds, THE FABON8ER only had a 3.1% chance of winning first (now 50%). KAIZEN is the only person who never had a chance for first after 2 rounds and is still alive. BIG RED had a 0.99% chance to win money and is still alive. On the other side, RANDOM PICKS had a 22.3% chance for 1st and can't finish higher than 2nd. NOBODY had a 39.6% chance for money and is now eliminated.

RECORD 80 ENTRIES FUELED BY 42 RETURNEES The Who's Who of 2002

EL SEGUNDO, CA (smt)- The 8th Annual HWCI NCAA Tournament Pool posted its second largest increase in entries ever and set a new record with 80, topping last year's record-shattering 59. Seventy-one (71) people submitted the 80 entries, with 42 of those past participants. We hope the 28 new participants are enjoying the pool, win or lose, and will be back next year. Eighteen (18) people have participated in at least three previous years. A record 9 people have entered at least twice (Robinson with 3 entries).

Below is a list of names (we do not protect the innocent... well, ok, last names are omitted) to nicknames so that you can see who you've been battling with the past couple of weeks and make fun of those who picked Indiana to beat Duke and reach the Final Four (ha ha- what, you say they're still playing?).

In terms of nicknames, NOBODY (who was NICKNAME last year), failed to get the required five non-referrals (if no one referred you, you were supposed to write in "nobody" but only a few people did) but again is the most original generic nickname. Another gem was Troy's two entries: TABBY and YBBAT. CLAY HENRY, COOKIE KWAN, and FRANK GRIMES take TV references to another level. Team pride failed to boost BOW'S (Hawaii), DIE WITH GATORS, or ZONAMASTER's chances while BIG RED still can ride Oklahoma to money. Some good variations of his/her names (KIMBA, HENDO, BINGO, LITTLE ANN, CHENMAN, STRUMMER, THE NOTORIOUS RBC) and eck, boring nicknames (DARA, CMT, MHK, MATSUURA).

There were aliterations (PINEAPPLE PRINCESS, POPO'S PICKS, FREE FABONE) and rhymes (BUCKEYE MIKE, BIX PIX, KNACK ATTACK). Some cool sounds (ARPS, SSLUK, KRAZ) and some disturbing images (CHICKEN ADOBO, CORNDOG, MECONIUM (I had to look this one up- I'm sorry I did)). Some hopefuls (YOU BETTER BELIEVE IT, THE BELIEVERS- both still alive to win money), truth tellers (RANDOM PICKS, WHAT LUCK) and far-fetched story tellers (PINKOCEAN (in cartoon land, maybe), PACK 10 RULES (with a "k"?), WILDCAT PRIDE (didn't pick KY or AZ to go far..hmmm)). Mixed results for PACK 10 RULES, UCLA SUCKS, PAC10 SUCKS, and GO PAC10. There's THE TERMINATOR and THE FABON8ER, the free entries (FREE BIX PIX, FREE FABONE, FREE JINX), and the ultimate losers, THE DUKE and SHOCKING HEATER 99, who didn't pay their entry fee and were axed.

So now that you know who's who, flame away in our discussion board (also read some origins of some of these nicknames there). For another take on nicknames, read John Casey's annual best/worst list on our discussion board.

Issue # 0.0.0C "Annual best/worst nicknames..."

<http://www.HWCI.com/ncaa>

The Annual Best/Worst Nicknames Thread

(from the musings of John Casey 3/14/02)

[Original Thread]

It's time for my annual opening day distraction -- judge the nicknames! (This is the NCAA pool equivalent of rating the dresses on Oscar night. Except that I'm not Joan Rivers.) Read on to see how you did...

Bob Dylan -- hands down, this has to be the best nickname this year. It's great to see Bob getting props -- unless the person who picked this name was doing it to MOCK him, in which case I hope that you set a record for lowest score this year. Don't mess with Bob.

Clay Henry -- a close second in the race for best name. Anyone who thinks those Subway ads suck get high marks in my book. Jared is the devil.

Cookie Kwan -- is this a cereal for figure skaters or something? I don't get it...but it sounds kind of tasty. Mmmm...figure skaters. (Oh wait, it's not a sport...I shouldn't like it.)

Dukkie -- I wouldn't have even noticed this nickname except that they picked MARYLAND to win the whole thing. Ummm....what?

FlyingElvi -- still a classic name, although Elvis STILL sucks. If anyone can explain to me why that guy was EVER a big deal, drop me an e-mail. Seriously.

Free Jinx -- sounds like a damn protest movement or something. I can see college kids handing out flyers at rock concerts and writing term papers in history class about how "The Man" screwed over Jinx because he was threatening the system...

Go PAC10 -- you get a mention because I like your politics.

Jinx -- yeah, it's a stupid nickname, but at least I earned it in real life...

Netflower -- for some reason, based on this nickname alone, I just picture a smokin' hot girl. Drop me a line, willya baby? I can make you feel like a winner even if your picks don't come through, if you know what I mean...

Nobody -- probably related to previously mysterious names like "Nickname" and "Eponymous." Damn cool choice.

Pac10 Sucks -- no, they don't. Next.

Pack10 Rules -- yes, they do. But it's spelled "Pac-10." You do get points for having your heart in the right place. Probably a USC graduate...

Pineapple Princess -- AWESOME name. AND she's brave enough to pick Oregon as the eventual champ. You rule.

Random Picks -- you get lots of points for truth in advertising. On a semi-related note, I would have had my picks done earlier this year, but since I was really drunk, I kept missing the damn dartboard. Hopefully my landlord won't be mad.

Ssluk -- I have no idea what it means, but saying it out loud makes me feel dirty.

Tabby/Ybbat -- Like matter and antimatter, if Tabby and Ybbat ever meet, it could mean the end of the universe. And how funny would it be if they finished tied in this pool?

The Duke -- unless you're royalty, you too are guilty of being a fairweather fan -- yet ANOTHER Maryland pick! Did they spray mind-control gas at Cameron this year when Maryland came to town? Too weird...

You Better Believe It -- believe WHAT? Don't keep me in suspense...

And, for the absolute worst nickname two years in a row:

UCLA Sucks.

Don't stand under any trees if there is even one cloud in the sky, because the lightning is coming. 'Nuff said.

Issue # 14.5.1 "Pick-a-who, I choose you..."

<http://www.HWC I .com/ncaa>

THE HWC I NCAA POOL: THE SEVEN YEAR ITCH Overall leaders and the "best" predictors list

MIAMI, FL (smt)-- Every year people fill out their brackets for the NCAA Tournament. Every year people tear up their brackets within days. Picking the correct teams takes a little bit of knowledge, some hunches, and just plain luck. Sometimes it's not so bad picking who will make the Final Four but it's all those games in between. Picking a Hawaii upset cause you have ties to the Rainbow Warriors could mean you finish fifth instead of fourth. Believing the USC hype or putting all your marbles on a revenge-minded Gonzaga team could be the death of you in the pool.

You must pick the correct NCAA champion if you want a good chance of winning any money. Other than 1997 and 1998 when no one picked the correct champion, only 1999 saw one person (3rd) not pick the correct champion and win money (only 4 picked UConn, 3 winning money). This year, if Oklahoma wins it all, there could be one or two people winning money who didn't pick OK because only three people picked Oklahoma (and there are four money spots) to be the champ.

Although several people have won money in two or more pools, no one has won the top prize twice. This year, an 8th different person will claim the HWC I NCAA Pool title and get bragging rights for one year. Jeff C. (CHENMAN), Marsha N. (WILDCAT PRIDE) and JD G. (ARPS) will try to become the fifth person to win the grand prize in their first try. Scott T. (THE FABON8ER and FREE FABONE) will try to become the first 4-time money winner and claim the pool title for the first time in 8 years (11 entries). Troy B. (YBBAT) will try to win the $400 top prize in just his second year (3 entries). On another note, Alvin K. (YOU BETTER BELIEVE IT) will try to win money for the first time ever (8 years, 9 entries), the current drought leader.

Here are the best and worst of the predictors. Power points are calculated based on your placement in the pool and the size of the pool. For example, in a pool of 12 people, finishing 1st gets 1.0 power point, 7th (middle) 0.5 points, and 12th (last) 0.08 pts. In a pool of 36, finishing 1st gets 1.0 pt, 6th 0.86 pts, 18th (middle) 0.5 pts, and 36th (last) 0.03 pts. The closer to an average of 1.0 power point, the better you have done in the pool. "YR" indicates number of years in pool; "EN" indicates total number of entries in pool.

BIG 12'S OKLAHOMA AND KANSAS FALL IN SEMIFINALS The Fabon8er claims title as four battle for 3rd and 4th

MIAMI, FL (smt)-- Six different #5S-Indiana players each went 1-for-1 from 3 pt range in the second half to shock #2W-Oklahoma, 73-64. The Sooners had rallied to tie the game at 60 with a 7-0 run but Indiana took the ball inside and scored the next 7 pts to put the game away. Indiana stifled the Sooner guards (White and Price) as they shot 1-for-16 combined. The Hoosiers' bench outscored OK's bench 41-12 and will advance to the Final where they are 5-0 lifetime. Meanwhile, #1E-Maryland will advance to the final for the first time in school history. The Terrapins almost blew a 20-pt lead (83-63) with six minutes left (shades of a 22-pt blown lead in a loss to Duke last year) and needed a Juan Dixon clutch basket (2 of his 33 pts), a Jayhawk turnover, and a Jayhawk mistake- calling a timeout (at 92-88) with none left, to secure the victory. Maryland's bench outscored Kansas' 22-12. It also didn't help that Kansas missed 10 free throws (66.7%).

Indiana's stunning win assured Scott T. (THE FABON8ER, FREE FAOBNE) of either 1st or 2nd. It eliminated CHENMAN, WANTABE, '99 Champ BERN IS DA BOMB, FRANK GRIMES, BIG RED, and THE BELIEVERS. Maryland's win gave the 2002 Pool Champion title to THE FABON8ER ($400) and 2nd place ($200) to newcomer RANDOM PICKS. Eliminated were ARPS, WILDCAT PRIDE, FREE FABONE, YOU BETTER BELIEVE IT (who will now go 0-9 entries, $0 won), and YBBAT. The race is now for 3rd ($130) and 4th ($70). If Indiana wins on Monday, MADPRO and FREE JINX are in. Otherwise, LITTLE ANN and KAIZEN will be dancing in the streets.

If you're wondering what effect the two deleted entries had on the pool, the only change would be THE DUKE could get 3rd with a Maryland win and KAIZEN would be eliminated. So KAIZEN should thank THE DUKE for failing to pay his entry fee and therefore still have a chance to win money. For Scott T., this is the first time he won first place in the pool but the fourth time he has won money (3rd '98, 2nd '99, 3rd '00) increasing his lifetime winnings to $590. Lisa F., currently tied for 39th, was the previous leader with $330. Since history has not repeated thus far, we can expect a new person to top the pool in 2003.

Issue # 16.6.1 "History of the pool, part VIII..."

<http://www.HWC I .com/ncaa>

AFTER 8 YEARS, THE FABON8ER CLAIMS POOL CHAMPIONSHIP A look back at each of the eight HWC I NCAA pools

EL SEGUNDO, CA (smt)- The 8th HWC I NCAA Tournament pool prematurely crowned its 8th different champion, as the unlikely Indiana win gave Scott T (THE FABON8ER) his first title and claim to the largest first place prize ever, $400. Before the semifinals, a record 6 people had a chance to take home the top prize. Newcomer Jeff H (RANDOM PICKS) built the largest 1st round lead ever but faltered in the last 4 rounds to take home 2nd place ($200). THE FABON8ER trailed by 9 pts after 2 rounds and will win by 5 pts. Only Sean D (MAX) in 1997 had a larger deficit (14 pts) after 2 rounds to win (by 1 pt). The average point total will be below 100 pts only the second time in history (94.6 in 2000).

Scott T is now the most successful predictor with his 4th money spot win ($590). A total of $2,920 in prize money has been given out in the eight years. This year, a 19th (Jeff H), 20th, and 21st person will claim money for the first time. Each year, the pool has either matched or grown in entries to this year's record-shattering 80 entries.

A little history.....

In 1995, the first year of the pool, just 12 people entered in a modest effort put forth by HW-UCLA and their close friends. Names like BAD ASS and LIVER BOY graced the pool. Of course, their interest was heightened because UCLA was favored to win it all. Indeed, 10 of 12 picked UCLA while 2 picked Kentucky. This pool featured the infamous LOSER WHO DIDN'T PICK UCLA (Dennis K) who set an all-time record (still stands today) with a 14-2 2nd Round to go from tied for 9th to tied for 1st before going 0-7 in the final 3 rounds to finish dead last (12th) with 98 points. TINA'S BOY (Mark C) became the first person to be eliminated when the 2nd round ended. He is, however, one of only 3 people (all in 1995) to correctly pick the two teams in the final and the champion prior to 1999. BIX PIX (Fernando B, 1st, 148) and MR. NELSON (Nelson, 2nd, 146) were the other two and claimed the top two spots, winning $70 and $30, respectively. THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA (Dave F, 3rd, 141) claimed third prize worth $20. All but one finished with 110 points or more, the highest scoring pool ever (130.6 avg).

In 1996, 19 people participated in the pool. Without the HW-UCLA guys picking nicknames, we had some boring stuff like JAMES, JOSEPH, and HEATHER. That year, the total points tiebreaker was first used to settle ties. A newcomer, JAYBIAN (Jason S, 1st, 144) rode Kentucky to a first place prize of $110. He also set a record going 8-0 for the 3rd round and never looked back. BIX PIX TWEY (Fernando B, 5th, 129) hoping to duplicate last year's effort, fell short of winning money thanks to his loyalty to UCLA. JOSEPH (Joseph K, 2nd, 140) and JAMES (James L, 3rd, 139) won $50 and $30, respectively. Six picked Kentucky that year with just as many picking UCLA (who lost to Princeton in the first round- ouch!). This was the first year someone entered twice (Dave F) and ended up 11th (REALISTIC MOBELFAKTA, 113) and 16th (THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA, 106). MM and HATE THE DUCKS (Mark C, 12th, 112) became the 2nd and 3rd people to go 0-for-the- Final-Four. HATE THE DUCKS had a 64% chance of winning money heading into the 4th round, and 0% chance after. THE CHEF (Douglas H, 19th, 80) set an all-time low in points for a pool.

In 1997, the first real debate on whether to raise the pool fee to $20 from $10 was raised. Fortunately, it was defeated in a vote. But, three people did plunk down $20 to enter twice as 22 entries were received in the third annual pool. Like Dave F before them, the three people went moneyless (Tuan H- RODERICK (15th, 97) and RHODES (14th, 97); Alvin K- BAD ASS I (4th, 111) and BAD ASS II (18th, 93); and Dennis K- LENNY (6th, 107) and DUKE (12th, 99)). This was also the first year no one picked the correct NCAA champion. Arizona, who usually bowed out in the first or second round, surprised everyone, including Kentucky, in winning the championship in overtime. The #4SE seed beat three # 1 seeds, the first time that's happened. Twelve had picked Kansas and four North Carolina, neither which made the championship game. MAX (Sean D, 1st, 116) bounced back from a 15th place finish the year before to win the $125 top prize. The Selander brothers took 2nd (Brian S, THE FLYING ELVI, 115) and 3rd (Jason S, JAYBIAN II, 113) for $60 and $35, respectively. Jason S became the first person to win money twice (1st in 1996). Just half (11 of 22) finished 100 points or higher.

In 1998, a record 28 entries tried their luck. ANNA COME LATELY (Anna, 1st, 126), the last entry we received, seemed like the least likely to win, picking a Utah over UCLA final. Well, Utah surprised the 27 other entrants (no one else even had them in the Final Four) and gave ANNA COME LATELY the record top prize of $150. James L became the 2nd person to win twice taking the $70 second place prize (CAVEMAN, 2nd, 113) while THE FABONE (Scott T, 3rd, 110) won money for the first time in four tries to take home $40. For the first time, a 4th place prize was created and that went to SCOTTMAN (Scott H, 4th, 108), which was also the first time the tiebreaker played a part in the top spots as SCOTTMAN won the 4-way tie for 4th place. With Kentucky's rally and win over Utah in the final, this was the 2nd straight year no one picked the champion. Sixteen pegged UNC while five hoped for an Arizona repeat. UTHOPE (Donald G, 24th, 92) became the 4th person to go 0-7 in the last three rounds. ANNA COME LATELY's 13-point win was the largest margin of victory ever. Tuan H once again entered twice with the same results- no money (STRAIGHT BUTTER, 10th, 106 and EN FUEGO, 13th, 104) extending the drought for dual entries to 0-for-5.

In 1999, a record 36 entries (18 NCAA pool newcomers, 13 pool newcomers if you include those who participated in the World Cup Pool) were received with two dual entries (Scott T- THE FABONE V and FREE FABONE and Gareth M- CARSERONI and MAJERUS FOR SDSU). This was the first year the referral program was in effect (free entry for 5 referrals). Mark C (DARKSHARK) became the first person to go 0-for-7 in the Final Four twice (1996). SHARY BOBBINS (Lisa T, 1st, 146) and CARSERONI (Gareth M, 3rd, 120) became the 12th and 13th different people to win HWC NCAA pool money. Scott T (FREE FABONE) and Gareth M (CARSERONI) broke a streak of winless dual entries with a 2nd and 3rd Place finish in one of their entries. James L (BIG GAME, 5th, 117) bid to go 3-for-3 in winning money came falling down with Duke's stunning loss. Three of four people who picked UConn (29 picked Duke) to win it all won money. Fernando B (BIG SPIDER BECK, 4th, 118) had just a 4 in 132 chance to win money and took 4th, his second winning entry ever. Loretta A (TRUE BRUIN, 36th, 67) finished with all-time record low in points.

In 2000, a record-tying 36 entries once again tried their luck as 14 newcomers entered. Sam N (MORALES' MOUNDS, 122 pts) becomes the sixth different champion after finishing 26th and 31st in the previous two years. He became the first person to either be tied or in the lead after each of the six rounds. After a record breaking first round that saw two people get 30 of 32 first round games correct, the brackets started to fall apart as no one got more than 3 of 8 Sweet Sixteen games correct and eight people will go 0-7 in the Final Four (just six have done so before (117 entries)). Just one #1 and one #2 seed advanced to the Elite Eight. Dave F (THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA) returns to the winner's circle with a 2nd Place finish. Scott T (FREE FABONE and THE FABONE VI) won money for a record third straight pool. Beth S (BETHEON, 36th, 62) shattered the all-time low in points. Fourteen people pegged Michigan St. as the correct champion. Craig E (CRAIGS99) won 4th place in his first pool.

In 2001, a record shattering 59 entries were received by 53 people (21 new people). Robinson C (TEAM SAMURAI) won the biggest prize ever of $280 after finishing 3rd to last (34th) last year. He entered three times and it worked. Three others (Scott T, Mike K, Fernando B) went winless in both of their entries after the last three people to enter twice won money (3-8 overall for those with 2 entries; Robinson is the first 3-time entry-er). Sam N (B-S FC), last year's pool champion, and Dylan R (DYLAN) become just the 3rd and 4th people to not get at least half the games correct. Four people went 0-7 in the Final Four (just 18 people have done so out of 212 entries) with Donald G (UTHPOPE) doing it for the second time (Mark C is the only other person with this dubious distinction). On the flip side, two people (BINGO and PEEPS) became the first-ever people to predict all four Final Four teams correctly. Eleven different teams were picked to be the champion with 18 picking Stanford, 15 Duke, and 8 Arizona. In addition to Robinson C, Lisa F (ARMIN TAMZARIAN) wins for the 2nd time and is the all-time leader with $330. Bing F (BINGO) takes 3rd in his first try and Sam P (JAYHAWK FC) takes home 4th. The top 13 finishers all had Duke winning it all.

In 2002, a record breaking 82 entries were received. Unfortunately, for the first time ever, after 2 rounds, 2 entries had to be dropped due to nonpayment of fees. That still left a hefty 80 entries from 71 people including 29 new people and 42 returnees. Seven people entered twice and one person entered 3 times but only Scott T managed to take home something, his first pool title in 8 years (THE FABON8ER) and largest take ever, $400. He also now is the leading prize earner with $590 and his 4th win (1 1st, 2 2nd, and 3 3rd place finishes) tops all. Jeff H (RANDOM PICKS) had the largest 1st and 2nd round leads ever (4 and 7 pts) and most pts after 2 rounds (90) but had to settle for 2nd. In reference to quantity does not equal quality, Gabriel T (GOBAY) and Dan H (HENDO) shattered records for lowest point total (49) and worst 2nd round (3-13). Gabriel also set records for worst 2nd Round Saturday (1-7), lowest pt total after 2 rounds (45), worst record in 3rd round (0-8), worst record in last 4 rounds (0-15). HENDO set a record for least wins (22). Eight people failed to get half the games right (just 4 in previous 7 pools) and eight went 0-7 in the last 3 rounds (just 18 in previous 7 pools). Two new winners will take home 3rd and 4th, but who will it be?

Thank you for your support...

MARYLAND WINS FIRST-EVER NATIONAL TITLE IN POOR FASHION Little Ann and Kaizen take 3rd and 4th pools

CERRITOS/EL SEGUNDO, CA (smt)-- It was said #5S-Indiana would have to come up with a near perfect game to overcome the much more talented and physical #1E-Maryland team. However, Maryland committed 16 turnovers, shot 22% from 3-pt range, missed 8 free throws, and star Juan Dixon went over 20 minutes without scoring giving the Hoosiers a good chance to win. So what did Indiana do? They played just as poorly, committing 16 turnovers, shot 29% from 2-pt range, had 12 balls stolen, shot 29% from the free throw line, and at one point, was 7-for-31 from 2-pt and free throw range and 7-for-11 from 3-pt range. It took Maryland almost 31 minutes before they pulled together and put Indiana away. The Terrapins kept Indiana in the game with their sloppy play and the Hoosiers finally went ahead, 42-40 with less than 10 minutes to go. But Dixon broke out of his 20-minute scoring slump to hit a crucial 3-pt basket seconds later and Maryland broke for a 17-3 run to win, 64-52 in Atlanta. Maryland won its first championship in its first try while Indiana lost in the championship game for the first time in six trips.

Although not a pretty game to watch, LITTLE ANN and KAIZEN couldn't be happier, taking home 3rd ($130) and 4th ($70) place and leaving MADPRO and FREE JINX to wonder why Indiana couldn't play just a half-decent game. THE FABON8ER won the pool with 139 pts followed by RANDOM PICKS with 134. With 24 tiebreaker scenarios (total pts = 116), there were no ties and therefore, HENDO officially finishes last with 49 pts, the lowest point total ever. So GOBAY finishes 79th (49 pts) but he is the only person (not even CHICKEN ADOBO has done this) to get zero pts in the 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th rounds. But HENDO got the least wins ever (22 wins, 41 losses).

The high schoolish game produced just 116 pts, the lowest total ever in 8 years (previous low: 143 in 1996), and only one person, BERN IS DA BOMB, picked a total lower (104). 79 people picked a higher number (avg: 152.9) with WHAT LUCK getting closest (120) and WANTABE furthest (186). No number was chosen by more than 4 people (last year, 5 people chose 144 pts, including 3 stuck in our first-ever 3-way tie for 16th) with 157, 160, and 161 being the popular picks.

What an ugly game...

the 2002 NCAA Champions

HEADLINE: Maryland Celebrates NCAA Win

BYLINE: PAUL NEWBERRY; AP Sports Writer

DATELINE: ATLANTA

BODY:

The white-haired little boy skittered around the court, oblivious to the whole celebration. Gary Williams scooped up his grandson, looked into his eyes - and smiled.

The coach could relax. Finally.

The Maryland Terrapins had their national championship. Finally.

"I've never done this before, so I'm not sure what I'm supposed to be like," Williams said. "I'm very happy. It's a thrill, there's no doubt about it. But I'm really tired." No wonder. He kept coaching right to the end, long after Maryland secured a 64-52 victory over Indiana in the title game Monday night.

The tie was askew. The arms were flailing. The voice never wavered. After 24 years of coaching - and Maryland's history of scandal and disappointment - who could blame him for taking no chances?

"If you're going to be a good basketball team, you have to play every play," Williams said. "We don't want to waste any plays."

On Tuesday morning, still sleepy-eyed, Williams accepted the championship trophy.

"This will look good in my living room," he joked.

This team, led by seniors Juan Dixon, Lonny Baxter and Byron Mouton, had no intention of letting that happen. Not after the disappointment from 366 days earlier, when the Terrapins squandered a 22-point lead in the Final Four against eventual champion Duke.

"People asked me if the Duke game was on my mind," said Baxter, who scored 15 points and grabbed 14 rebounds. "I was like, 'No, it won't be until I win a national championship.'"

In other words, the Terrapins (32-4) never really forgot. Their game plan was simple: Get back to the Final Four, win two games, cut down the nets - put that bitter defeat behind them.

"They had the courage after last year's game in the Final Four to set a goal that a lot of people kind of laughed at," Williams said. "They weren't afraid to tell people what their goal was."

This was Maryland's first appearance in a national championship game and the senior-laden lineup came through over the final 9:42, ending the Hoosiers' magical run through the NCAA tournament.

"The victory was won," said Indiana's second-year coach, Mike Davis, who succeeded Bob Knight and took a No. 5 seed to the final game of the season. "We had a chance tonight, but Maryland is a much better team than we are."

It wasn't always that way. Williams guided his alma mater from the depths of probation 13 years ago to the pinnacle of college basketball. He took over just three years after the cocaine-induced death of star Len Bias, inheriting a program wracked by scandal.

"Having played at Maryland, coming back at a time I hate to even think about because there was so much mistrust, so much doubt about the place of the basketball program at the University of Maryland," the coach said. "We had to work all those things out before we could even think about having a good basketball team."

With the journey complete, Williams held his 21/2-year-old grandson, David, and allowed that famous intensity to melt long enough to celebrate with the players.

Dixon led the Terrapins with 18 points and hit the shot that put his team ahead for good. When the horn sounded, the 165-pound guard hurled the ball toward the roof of the Georgia Dome and collapsed to the floor, sandwiched between the 260-pound Baxter and 247-pound Tahj Holden.

"I feel like I'm dreaming right now because I'm part of a national championship team," said

Dixon, selected the Final Four's most outstanding player.

He scored at least 27 points in four of the first five tournament games, including 33 in the semifinal victory over fellow top-seed Kansas.

Dixon started the title game at that pace, scoring 11 points in the opening 10 minutes. He didn't score again for more than 20 minutes, allowing Indiana to grab its only lead. It lasted just eight seconds.

Steve Blake escaped a trap and fed Dixon for a 3-pointer with 9:42 to play, giving Maryland the lead for good at 45-44.

"I was trying to be patient," Dixon said. "I was trying to let the game come to me. I hit a big shot."

Dixon made a bunch of them during his career, passing Bias as the school's leading scorer.

The senior overcame a troubled life. Both parents were addicted to drugs and died of AIDS while he was in high school. Dixon wanted to play at Maryland, but plenty of people thought he was too frail - only 150 pounds at 6-3 as a freshman - to make it.

Williams took a chance and was rewarded with an All-American.

"It's not the size of the body," Blake said. "It's the will to want to get open, to want to score. He has that."

Indiana (25-12) shocked defending national champ Duke in the regional semifinals, then knocked off second-seeded Oklahoma in the national semifinals. The team that had the country almost forgetting about Bob Knight couldn't come up with another stunner, though.

The Hoosiers made eight of their first 12 from behind the 3-point line, then went 2-of-11 the rest of the way. When the long-range shots stopped falling, they had no way to counter the more physical Terrapins.

Jared Jeffries, the Big Ten's player of the year, finished with eight points on 4-for-11 shooting. The Hoosiers were 20-of-58 from the field (34.5 percent), the first time in the tournament they shot below 50 percent.

Maryland, which won 19 of its last 20 games, again was big on the boards, finishing with a 42-31 rebound advantage.

"They were definitely physical," said Jeffries, who will decide whether to enter the NBA draft.

Kyle Hornsby led Indiana with 14 points.

The loss was the first for Indiana in six national championship games. The last three titles - 1976, 1981 and 1987 - were won under Knight, fired two years ago.

"I think we went further than any team could go, other than Maryland," Davis said. "Who would have thought Indiana would be playing for a national championship?"

Issue # 18.6.3 "Closing thoughts..."

<http://www.HWCI.com/ncaa>

THE MARYLAND TERRAPINS WERE ON A MISSION Scott gives some random thoughts on how to pick a champion

EL SEGUNDO/CERRITOS, CA (smt)-- Duke was supposedly given the easy path to the Final Four but was upended by Indiana in the Sweet 16. Maryland, however, had to beat the top seeds in each round (#16-Siena, #8-Wisconsin, #4-Kentucky, #2-Conn, #1-Kansas) before meeting the Hoosiers. The Terrapins, after blowing a 22-pt lead to Duke in last year's semifinals, vowed to recover and ended up with the school's first-ever NCAA national basketball championship. The tournament seemed to exist on hype: a Duke-Maryland final matchup, a resurgent Gonzaga team, a watch-your-back improved USC team that could beat Duke, a different and better Cincinnati team that wouldn't choke in the 2nd round. None of it happened. But we did get to see a fun Oregon team, Cinderella magic in Kent St. and Missouri, and UCLA, er, Steve Lavin, redemption.

So without further ado, my thoughts on the tournament:

BONEHEAD PLAY I: Dane Fife (Ind) fouling Duke's Jason Williams on a 3-pt attempt with a 4-pt lead and seconds remaining. Williams made the basket.

BONEHEAD PLAY II: Williams missing the gift free throw to tie the game and send it into overtime.

GREATEST MOMENT: Terrell Talyor's (Creighton) incredible 3-pt basket with 0.2 seconds left in double overtime to give the Bluejays a 83-82 win over Florida.

SOUREST MOMENT: Florida coach Billy Donovan claiming that it was possible to go the length of the court and score with 0.2 seconds left and that the celebratory Creighton bench players should've been assessed a potential game-tying technical. You couldn't do it if the only 10 guys on the court were on your team.

POD SYSTEM: New "home-court" advantage regional setup may have given injury-plagued Pittsburgh and sixth-seeded Texas easy rides into the Sweet 16. Both lost their next game.

STATE QUARTERS: Of the 8 teams in the Elite 8 (quarterfinals), seven are known by their state name (IN, MO, OK, MD, CT, KS, OR)- Kent St. being the exception.

COOLEST NICKNAME: Southern Illinois Salukis.

WORST NICKNAME: Kent St. Golden Flashers, I mean, Flashes. See?

ROAD TO FINAL FOUR: Both Maryland and Kansas had to play the top seeds in each round while, if we exclude #1-Duke, #5-Indiana faced #12-Utah, #13-UNC Wilmington, and #10-Kent St.

WORST TV COVERAGE: Don't you hate monopolies? CBS leaves two tight games in closing seconds to show either a commercial or the non competitive local game of the day.

BEST RADIO COVERAGE: KMPC 1540 LA. While CBS was dallying around, KMPC played both tight games right after each other as they happened.

AMAZING COMEBACKS: Though they lost, USC's 19-pt late 2nd half comeback to send the game into overtime was exciting. Indiana's 14-pt 2nd half comeback to beat Duke. Kansas almost overcoming a 20-pt with 6 minutes to go vs Maryland would've been historic. No big lead ever seems to be safe in college basketball.

FREE THROWS: USC and Florida would still be alive had they hit their free throws.

BIGGEST DISAPPOINTMENTS: Gonzaga and Hawaii.

NO OVERTIME, PLEASE: Lower seeded teams were 4-0 in OT.

BEST HAIR: Wesley Stokes, Missouri.

And my thoughts on the pool:

CONGRATS: Scott ($400), Jeff ($200), Ann ($130), and Paul ($70).

FOOLED ME: U$C.

AMAZING PICKS: Catrina (YUDANJA) and Jon (WHAT LUCK) both had Indiana going to the Final. Unfortunately, neither had Maryland making the Final Four. Three picked Kent St. and 2 picked Missouri to make the Elite 8.

BIZARRE PICKS: Craig (BOW'S) had Hawaii winning it all. Gabriel (GOBAY) had St. John's in the final. Dan (HENDO) had Stanford in the final and NC St. making the Final Four. GOBAY also had Holy Cross beating Kansas.

OUCH: After first 7 games, Cliff (CMT ONE) was 7-0 and Beth (STRUMER) was 1-6.

HARD TO PICK?: Getting half the games right seemed like a given. So why did 8 entries go below .500? Dan H's (HENDO) 22 wins over 6 rounds were LESS than what 33 people got just in the 1st Round. Conversely, Jeff H (RANDOM PICKS) got 46 right, one more than champion Scott T.

WELL, AT LEAST HE GOT THIS ONE RIGHT: Robinson C's FLIP FIGHTERS is only the 3rd entry to pick the correct champion and not reach 100 pts (99).

And finally, thoughts on my picks:

Several have joked they were going to copy my picks for next year. I don't know, it's taken me 8 years to win this thing. Truth is, this was the worst feeling I've had picking teams. Usually, I try to read up on stuff Tuesday-Wednesday and read the paper early Thursday morning before submitting my picks. This year, due to the vast amount of entries we had to sift through, I didn't have much time to read anything except what I heard on the radio and was so tired I submitted my picks late Wednesday night. But in the interest of science, here are my $400 random thoughts on picking this year's field:

1) Ignorance. I don't watch any college basketball except for maybe one game and maybe a couple of the conference tournament championships just to get in the mood. I feel paying too much attention during the regular season biases you... plus I don't have time.

2) Hype. Maryland was primed to erase last year's loss to Duke. Thus, a Duke vs Maryland final. So I had them going all the way (yes!). Duke had an easy route so I had them going to the final (mistake). Cincinnati should not have been a # 1 seed so I had them going early (though not early enough). Oklahoma deserved #1 seed so I had them reaching the Final Four (they did). Kansas was a team that wouldn't choke like prior teams so I took a chance and had them go to the Final Four (they did). Alabama was a trouble-plagued team, so despite a #2 seed, I didn't have them reaching the Elite 8 (they went out 1 round earlier). Kent St. was underrated so I had them winning over OK St (eerily, in another pool I had them going to the Elite 8) only.

3) Paths. I didn't think Oregon deserved a #2 seed but there didn't seem to be any resistance until they played Kansas (they did). The Pod system, placing teams close to home, allowed me to take injury-plagued Pitt team (playing in Pittsburgh) and a sixth seed Texas team (playing in Dallas) to make the Sweet 16 (they did). Same for Illinois but they were already a #4 seed (they did).

4) #1 seeds. At no time have all 4 #1 seeds made the Final Four. Oklahoma was my lone #2 seed.

5) #8 vs #9. These are the games that can make or break you because you'll get a split vote for each. I went 3-1 missing Stanford's win (4-0 with my FREE FABONE entry).

6) Favorites. Generally, the seedings work. Unless there is hype (see above) to contradict something, I usually go with the higher seeds. The exception is...

7) Hometown or Biases. Picking Hawaii (my parents were born there) could've cost me. I almost picked Pepperdine as well but I heard something on the radio about Wake Forest being the sleeper team (I chose Pepperdine for my FREE FABONE entry). And I hate Duke so I wasn't going to have them win it all even if they were favored to win (worked in 1999, killed me in 2001). It all comes down to...

8) Luck and Hunches. I don't know why UConn is a #2 seed. But I like UConn (picked them in 1999 and won 2nd place) so I sent them to meet Maryland (they did). I thought Bob Knight would inspire Texas Tech's first tourney in a while into the Sweet 16 (lost in 1st round). I also have this fondness for Ohio St for some strange reason and had them go to the Elite 8 (lost in 2nd round). Gonzaga got robbed on their #6 seeding so for the first time in a while, had them lose in the 2nd round (they lost in the 1st).

As you can see, all of the above is just mumbo-jumbo. It seems to work but maybe if I paid more attention during the week, I may have talked myself out of some picks and end up finishing 5th. Of course, one thing has remained constant: 144 for total points!

On to New Orleans...

Issue # 19.7.1 "Lisa is still the best..."

<http://www.HWCII.com/ncaa>

LISA HOLDS ONTO TOP RANKING FOR 2ND STRAIGHT YEAR Scott's 1st place finish puts him just behind Lisa

CERRITOS, CA (smt)-- Despite finishing in 44th place this year, Lisa F held onto to the top position for the second straight year. Scott T's first place finish put him just 0.031 of first (from 0.180 down). With the requirement moving up one to a minimum of four entries, just 21 people qualified (26 in 2001). Good finishes also bumped up Andy F to 5th place (12th in 2001) and Sam N to 16th (from 23rd). Poor finishes dropped Bob G from 11th to 14th and Fernando B from 8th to 9th. Jason S, who didn't participate this year, moved up to 8th from 13th.

There have only been four people to hold the #1 spot in the eight years (Fernando '95-'96, Jason '97, James L '98-'00, Lisa '01-'02). Rankings are based on weighted power point average (WT-AV) which is sensitive to final placement AND the number of people in pool that year. Each year a person can up up to one point (for 1st). Lisa's WT-AV dropped from an insanely high 0.939 to 0.820. Scott's WT-AV improved from 0.759 to 0.789. James (2nd in 2001 with 0.907) dropped out without a fourth entry. Rob C (7th in '01), Jon K (18th in '01), Bobby J (24th in '01), and Donald G (26th-last in '01) also dropped out. Fifteen people have 3 entries and could qualify next year if they participate as the requirement won't be raised to five entries until 2005.

Dennis K reclaims last place (2nd to last in '01) despite not playing this year. He's also been ranked last in '95, '99, and '00. Thirty-three entries (32 people) have been ranked overall.

The Class of 1999 has performed very well. Three of the top four people started in 1999.
