The Rules

[The Rules | How to Enter | Standings | Links | For the Record | Scott's Latest Update]

Who's eligible to join the pool?

HWCI members, friends, and family.

What are the requirements?

The only requirements are that the $10 entry fee is paid before the 2nd round games have begun, and that the pertinent entry information is received before the start of the tournament. The pertinent entry information would include:

- Real name
- Preferred nickname (I am the Mighty Mobelfakta, so that name's taken already).
- Prediction for the total combined score of the championship game (for tie-breaking purposes).
- Predicted winners of all 63 tournament games.

Our Web Entry form is the most convenient way to get that info to us. See the section How to Enter.

How are the points scored?

- 2 points for each 1st round win
- 3 points for each 2nd round win
- 4 points for each 3rd round win
- 6 points for each 4th round win
- 8 points for each 5th round win
- 12 points for correctly picking the NCAA Champion

There is no weighting for "upsets".

How is the prize money distributed?

In 2002 with 80 entries, there was a first, second, third, and fourth place prize. The $800.00 pot was split as follows: 1st-$400.00, 2nd-$200.00, 3rd-$130.00, and 4th-$70.00. This year the money will be split with roughly the same proportions going to the winners.

If there are enough entries into the pool this year, there will be additional "wild card" prizes (such as correctly picking the lowest seeded team to reach the 2nd or 3rd round, best conference win total, etc.). This will be finalized once we get all the entries in.

What if there's a tie?

The participant whose prediction comes closest (higher or lower) for the final combined score of the championship game will win the tie-breaker. If there is STILL a tie, the money will be split. For instance, if there is a tie for first place, the winners will split the combined prize money for first and second place. FYI, in eight years of running this pool, there has only been one tie for prize money.

Can I enter more than once?

You certainly can. Statistically, your chances of winning would double. So far of the 15 people (32 entries) who have tried their luck with multiple entries, three have taken home prize money.

How To Enter

[The Rules | How to Enter | Standings | Links | For the Record | Scott's Latest Update]

1. The most convenient method of entry for those with internet access would be the web entry form which can be accessed here. Otherwise, get thee a copy of the NCAA Men's Tournament Bracket. The most convenient place to get one would be the sports section of your local newspaper. You can also get the brackets at various sports related web sites (ESPN, FinalFour.net, CBS Sportsline, etc.). If you are planning to enter online via this web site, skip to step 6 below.

2. Fill out the brackets completely using all the college basketball wisdom you can conjure up.

3. Make a prediction for the total combined score for the championship game. For instance, if you think the final score will be 82-76, your prediction would be 158.

4. Create a nickname for yourself. This is important, because if you don't give us one, we'll make one up for you. Historically, these assigned nicknames have not been flattering.

5. Send all that precious information this-away before the first game on Thursday, March 18. Obviously, the fastest way to get the info here is via the web entry form or by e-mail (ncaa(at)hwci.com). If sending your picks by e-mail, the most efficient way of completing this tedious task is to format your picks as follows:

Nickname:
Final game total score:
NCAA Champion:
Runner-up:
Final Four losers (round 5):
Round 4 losers (4 teams):
Round 3 losers (8 teams):
Round 2 losers (16 teams):

6. And finally, you must arrange to have your entry fee of $10 sent to us. There are three basic methods for payment:

1. Personally hand the $10 fee to an HWCI member by March 19
2. Over the internet via PayPal to "hwci@hotmail.com" by March 19 (you'll find more info about PayPal below)
3. By check sent by snail mail (mailed and postmarked by March 18, the first day of the tournament). Please e-mail us at ncaa(at)hwci.com to get the address to which mail the checks.

Important exception: If you have an HWCI member who can vouch for you and front your money, this is not a hard deadline. For all others, please get acquainted with PayPal.

Paying with PayPal

PayPal is the most popular and established method of transferring funds between independent parties over the internet. Personal accounts are free. To pay via PayPal, you can click on the link below:

If you don't already have a PayPal account, you'll need to sign up for one. Because hwci@hotmail.com is a personal PayPal account (as opposed to Business or Premium), we can not accept credit card payments. If you try to send a credit card payment, it will be rejected. This means you will have to set up your PayPal account to withdraw from a verifiable bank account. To do this, you'll need your bank account number and routing number ready.

Remember, if you have any questions, address them to ncaa(at)hwci.com.

2004 HWCi NCAA Pool Update

Sunday, March 14, 2004

Issue # 0.0.0 (DF) "X Marks the Spot"

Home] [Updates]

Pool Veterans and Neophytes,

It's mid-March, so you know this mass mailing can mean only one thing. Believe it or not, this is our 10th year running this pool. 10 years of buzzer beaters and 5-12 game upsets, of small mid-majors standing toe-to-toe with college basketball powerhouses, of Miles Simon and Mateen Cleaves becoming school legends, of Gonzaga overachieving, of Bob Knight underachieving, of Kentucky final fours, of Jay Williams choking at the line against Indiana, of Tyus Edney coast to coast (yeah baby!), and 10 years of me not winning this darn thing. No matter which teams are in this year or which teams are out, the tournament always provides high drama.

Here are the major details (all other information can be found at the website):

Website: <http://www.hwci.com/ncaa>

Entry Fee: $10

Entry Form Available: Sunday night, March 14, 2004

Entry Deadline: 9 am, Thursday, March 18, 2004

Entry Fee Deadline: Friday, March 19, 2004

Further Details:

No more free bonus entries for referrals

This was getting a little out of hand. And anyways, shouldn't the incentive to "recruit" be the simple joy of spreading the excitement that is the shared experience of the NCAA tournament? For most of you, probably not :- (But we'll find out.

Possible "Bonus" category

If we should exceed a certain number of entries, we will be bringing back the highest-conference-win-total bonus category. The rules will be the same, with place winners (1st through 4th) ineligible, and ties being broken by the total final game score.

Entry fee deadline moved up to 2nd day of tournament (March 19, 2004)

After receiving a couple deadbeat entries a couple years ago, we decided to be more strict on the entry fee deadline. It's simply not fair for people to sit back and watch the first two rounds to see how they did before deciding whether or not to send their money in (even though half of the time the ultimate winners don't lead in the standings after 2 rounds). Thus, we're moving the deadline up. There are three basic methods for payment:

1. Personally hand the $10 fee to an HWCI member by March 19
2. Over the internet via PayPal by March 19 (you'll find more info about PayPal below)
3. By check sent by snail mail (mailed and postmarked by March 18, the first day of the tournament). Please mail them to:

(email ncaa\(at\)hwci.comhwci.com) for snail mail address)

Important exception: If you have an HWCI member who can vouch for you and front your money, this is not a hard deadline. For all others, please get acquainted with PayPal.

Paying with PayPal

PayPal is the most popular and established method of transferring funds between independent parties over the internet. Personal accounts are free. To pay via PayPal, you can click on this link.

If you don't already have a PayPal account, you'll need to sign up for one. Because hwci@hotmail.com is a personal PayPal account (as opposed to Business or Premium), we can not accept credit card payments. If you try to send a credit card payment, it will be rejected. This means you will have to set up your PayPal account to withdraw from a verifiable bank account. To do this, you'll need your bank account number and routing number ready.

Remember, if you have any questions, please write to ncaa\(at\)hwci.comhwci.com).

2004 HWCII NCAA Pool Update

Issue # 0.0.0 (JC) "Opportunity to enter a bracket challenge"

Home] [Updates]

Some of my friends run a TERRIFIC NCAA pool every year, and I wanted to pass along the invitation to you since I suspect you might be interested. Why enter THIS one, rather than any of the other myriad pools that are out there?

1) You can enter online and track your results on their web page. If you have a browser and PayPal, you're in business. Make SURE that you get the $$$ in no later than 3/19, since you WILL be disqualified. (There were some bad entries last year...there won't be a repeat.)

2) The pool entrants are damn cool people...and you probably know a lot of them! Although everyone enters under a nickname, you can usually guess who is who. The discussion board is hilarious -- well, at least when people post -- and it's fun to make fun of, say, me when someone like, say, Dan, who NEVER watches college hoops, can somehow kick my ass in the standings.

3) You don't have to do the math. Scott is usually very good about emailing out summary emails each night with updated tournament results and pool standings, so if you are busy and miss a night or two worth of games, you can just check your inbox and the website to see how you're doing. Towards the end, Scott publishes possible scenarios, with percentage chances of winning money, and who needs which team to win to pull off the big score.

4) Better chances to win? Well, it STILL boils down to being right. But since the pool usually has a few dozen people, you have a much better chance of winning than in the major pools with hundreds of people.

I'm not getting any kind of referral bonus (see here if you don't believe me) and I won't bother you again after this, so you're on your own to follow up. Just wanted to pass along the info...

Issue # 1.0.1 "The Real # 1 Seed" (Rev. A)

KENTUCKY TAPPED AS #1 RANKED TEAM OF THE #1 SEEDS... CONFUSED?

Late losses don't hurt St. Joe's or Duke but Pitt gets punished

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- As if nothing better to do, the NCAA Committee has eliminated the traditional geographical regional names and replaced the each regional by their host city. For simplicity, I'll still be using the traditional names for the regions (Midwest = St. Louis, South = Atlanta, West = Phoenix, and East = East Rutherford). And if you don't know that St. Louis is Midwest and Atlanta is South, that probably just means you went to high school in the U.S. The Committee also ranked the four #1 seeds officially for the first time. So Duke's loss in the ACC Final likely gave #1MW-Kentucky (26-4) (who was ranked #8 in the AP poll prior to this week) the top ranking with #1S-Duke (27-5) second, followed by #1W-Stanford (29-1) and #1E-St. Joseph's (27-1). The surprise of St. Joe's keeping their #1 seed despite losing their opening conference tourney game (ending the perfect season) reminded me of a question a reporter asked st. Joe's coach earlier this year- something like if you go undefeated this year, do you think you'll get a #1 seed? No respect. No respect for #3E-Pitt, whose last second shot that didn't fall pushed them down to a #3 seed and to the Milwaukee, WI pod- and a likely matchup with #6E-Wisconsin in the 2nd Round. #2MW-Gonzaga got some respect. But the last time Gonzaga wasn't a Cinderella, it was upset in the 1st Round.

A decade of tournament pool frustrations. It's our 10th Anniversary of the first HWCI NCAA Pool. We hope you will join us in our pool and maybe you'll win some money out of it as well. Darryn B. won the \$280 top prize last year, our 9th different person to win 1st place.

This seems to be one of the toughest tournaments to read. Stanford and St. Joe's, despite being undefeated for most of the season, didn't scare anyone. Duke and #2W-UConn, top picks to begin the season, have struggled. Only 3 teams each made it from the Big 10 and Pac 10 and just 4 in the Big 12. A very odd season.

So go ahead and fill out your bracket. For the past two years, there is no local team to root for (is Nevada the closest team?). So no loyalties mean you can pick with a good conscience.

TOURNAMENT STARTS IN DAYTON BUT NO ONE NOTICES 24 hours left - deadline to enter your picks is 9 AM PST Thursday!

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- Quietly, the NCAA Tournament kicked off with its Opening Round match in Dayton. #65-Florida A&M (FAMU) (RPI # 266) won their fourth straight game by upsetting #64-Lehigh in the Play-In game on Tuesday. Florida A&M, however, is still under .500 (15-16) and will play #1MW-Kentucky on Friday. This is the third straight year the team that won the Opening Game is still under .500. The real tournament begins at 9:20 AM Thursday with 16 games followed by another 16 on Friday with exclusive crappy CBS coverage.

Billions of hours of work productivity will go down the tubes (no pun intended) on Thursday and Friday so you might as well declare yourself a 4-day weekend. The tournament will, however, enhance the multi-tasking skills of its workers as he/she flips between the Power Point window and CBS Sportsline GameCenter window in the most efficient manner possible. We are on track to get around 50 entries this year (which would put first place in the $230-250 range) and trigger the Bonus Prize. We've gotten several entries from those who found us on the web - which isn't unusual, but a good number actually have paid their fee - which is!

Which brings us to the reminder to remember to pay your entry fees. Make arrangements (such as PayPal) to send in your $10 entry fee(s) by Friday, March 19th. If Dave and I know who you are, you get more leeway because we know where you live (pay us when we see you). Complete rules and daily pool information can be found on the official site. Remember, the entry deadline is 9 am PST Thursday.

Hope the luck of the Irish is with you...

Issue # 3.1.1 "Favorites Tested But Hold Their Own"

Home] [Updates]

2000 NCAA FINALISTS ARE ONLY TEAMS UPSET TODAY Fabio wins first 13 but Jedi Master Rob leads pack

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- #12E-Manhattan routed 2000 Runner-up #5E-Florida (the 15th time in the past 16 years at least one #12 seed has won) and #10MW-Nevada picked up their first-ever tournament win over 2000 Champion #7MW-Michigan St. providing the only two upsets of the day. #8E-Texas Tech, #4W-Maryland, #8W-Alabama, #4E-Wake Forest, #5W-Syracuse (Gerry McNamara had 9 3-pt baskets en route to 43 points), #8S-Seton Hall, and #7W-DePaul (in double OT; both teams combined to miss 28 free throws) squeaked by while #2W-UConn, #3S-Texas, and #6S-UNC pulled away late. The three #1 seeds (E-St. Joseph's, W-Stanford, and S-Duke) and #2MW-Gonzaga had easy victories (average margin of victory: 26.8). Interesting note: Texas was 12/35 (34%) from 2-pt range and 11/15 (73%) from 3-pt range while its opponent #14S-Princeton was 5/26 (19%) from 3-pt range.

As for the pool, my prediction of around 50-55 entries was way off (as are my picks after 16 games- tied for 56th). We unofficially have 81 entries but two are not confirmed yet (and are noted in the standings). The official total will be reflected on Saturday morning. Our record is 80 entries in 2002 so we will probably fall one short. Seven people have tried their luck by entering twice while one has submitted 3 entries (as he has for the past 3 years). Four people had multiple entries last year and none won. The prize breakdown will be announced later this weekend. We got a record 48 entries on Wednesday (previous record 34), which drives us nuts but we enjoy it and hopefully you all do, too. Thanks for your participation and support. Now on to the results!

FABIO (2nd-Tied, 28 pts) won his first 13 games before Arizona failed him. However, it was JEDI MASTER ROB who leads the pack with a 15-1 record (30 pts). Seven are tied for 2nd. Three are tied for last going 9-7 (16 pts). GATOR BLIND (56th-T, 22) lost his champion, Florida, while defending pool champion BIG LUTHER (30th-T, 24) lost his champion, Arizona (Darryn B. still has one other entry with its champion alive). Three others lost one of their Final 4 teams. But it's still too early to call anything. No previous pool champion has ever took the top prize twice and the five former champions (1995, 2000-2003) who are playing are tied for 30th or lower.

(Based on 81 entries) - Just 11 people picked Seton Hall (unusual for a #8 seed), only 21 picked Nevada, while 26 picked Manhattan. The split decisions were DePaul (44-37) and Alabama (46-35). As far as picking the champion, 15 teams got picked with Stanford getting 21 votes (26%). Duke (16), #1MW-Kentucky (13), and UConn (11) were the only other teams with 10 or more votes. Twenty-eight (28) think Kentucky will make the final while 27 think Stanford is in the big game. For the top seeds, 11 think St. Joseph's won't make the Sweet 16 while 10 think Duke won't.

Whew. One day down.

The Madness is upon us...

#1 KENTUCKY TESTED WHILE ANOTHER #12 SEED ADVANCES

Four go 15-1 as Jodon007 finishes on top

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- Close games and high scoring affairs highlighted the day but in the end, 14 of 16 top seeds still advanced. The top seed of the #1 seeds, #1MW-Kentucky, had to fend off a pesky #16-Florida A&M team (who won their Tuesday Play-in Game) who ran right with the Wildcats (for a half at least), winning 96-76. #3W-NC St., #6MW-BC, #6W-Vandy, #4S-Cincy, #3MW-Georgia Tech (the win making the ACC a perfect 6-0 thus far), #2E-Oklahoma St., #6E-Wisconsin, #7S-Xavier, and #3E-Pitt all struggled to put away their opponent. #12MW-Pacific provided the big upset of the day, beating #5MW-Providence. That's the second #12 seed to win and the 8th #12 seed to win in the past five years. #9MW-Alabama-Birmingham (UAB) beat #8MW-Washington, the only team to beat Stanford, in a wild shootout, 102-100. #5S-Illinois, #7E-Memphis, #2S-Mississippi St., and #4MW-Kansas picked up victories as well. Kentucky's 60 1st half points were more than 13 of today's team's total points and the 60-52 (112) score at the half was more than the Pitt-#14E-Central Florida (53-44, 97), Memphis-#10E-SC (59-43, 102), and BC-#11MW-Utah (58-51, 109) final scores.

We officially have 79 entries (with JUGGERNAUT and GLASSER24 dropping out), making the pot $790. The prize breakdown will be announced on Monday (or check the discussion board on Sunday). There will be prizes for the top four entries and a bonus prize (same as last year).

With just two upsets, four people (BINGO (2nd-Tied, 56 pts), JODON007 (58), PINKBUBBLES (2nd-T), and SMORGGLE (2nd-T)) went 15-1, tying a record for a Friday. Twenty-two (22) went 14-2. JODON007 ends the first round in first place with a 29-3 record. M25LEE started the day with 12 straight wins (14 overall) before Washington faltered. Just ten points separate the top 60 entries. Three went 9-7 and ALL HAIL SANT and SKRATCHNSNIFT are tied for last with just 36 points.

A good 20 entries picked Pacific and only 28 picked UAB, probably reflecting the west coast bias (BTW, the entry WEST COAST BIAS sits tied for 30th (50)) most entries have. With just four upsets in the 1st Round, 22 entries have all 16 Sweet 16 teams alive, 61 have their Elite 8 intact, and 72 of 79 entries have all their Final Four teams. BRENT (61st-T, 46) is the only entry to lose two Final Four teams (Washington, Arizona). It's far from over, however, as only three times has the leader or co-leader of the first round won it all. And of the 15 leaders or co-leaders, just 4 went on to win money. Last year, BLUEBERRY went 16-0 the first day and 29-3 overall in the 1st Round only to end up finishing second to last (62 of 63 entries). So there's always hope. And if not, there's always false hope.

An uneventful first round...

Issue # 5.2.1 "Zags Zipped, the Tree Falls"

Home] [Updates]

SEATTLE REGIONAL IS SITE OF TOP SEED MASSACRE

Four go 6-2 but DC944 takes over first place

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- In Seattle, the two biggest West Coast teams were slain as #2MW-Gonzaga and #1W-Stanford were eliminated. #10MW-Nevada (making it the 8 stright year at least one #10 seed has made the Sweet 16) jumped to an early 20-point lead and never let the Zags (a horrible 3/22 (14%) from 3-pt range) or its home crowd back into the game. Gonzaga has lost its magic of late, failing to make the Sweet 16 for the third straight year, all as a #9 seed or better. Then Stanford had a huge collapse, blowing a 13-point lead with less than 8 minutes left. #8W-Alabama used a 16-0 run (29-9 at one point) to shock the Cardinal. The amazing thing about their 30-14 run to end the game is that they only scored one 2-point basket. One. They shot a jaw-dropping 24 free throws (making 19) in that stretch (they took 33 more free throws overall, making 26 more overall), and had they not missed their last 3 free throws, Stanford wouldn't even had a chance to tie it at the end.

OK, six more games were played. #5W-Syracuse won the battle of the former champs, outlasting a #4W-Maryland comeback attempt. #4E-Wake Forest, #1E-St. Joe's (who most predicted would be the first #1 seed to bow out), and #3S-Texas survived some scares while #1S-Duke and #2W-UConn won easily.

Now, one of the first milestones is to survive the weekend. After Sunday's games, we will know which entries have been eliminated from money (top 4 spots and/or bonus prize). It may be surprising that it's not that bad. Some in the bottom of the standings will still be alive and some near the middle won't be. Those who had a Stanford-Gonzaga final (there're five of you), we'll find out if there's still a chance for you.

Four entries went 6-2 today while three went 2-6. DC944 was one of the former and now takes over first place with 72 points. JEDI MASTER ROB, PINKBUBBLES, and SMORGGLE are tied for 2nd with 71 pts. JODON007 (70 pts) had a tough day and falls from first to fifth. SKRATCHNSNIFT was one to just get two right and falls into last place with 42 pts and can't get more than 90 with 3 of the Final Four teams gone. BRENT (71st-Tied, 55) also lost 3 of his Final Four teams. SOURCE (64th-T, 58) lost his first six games. SCHADENFREUDE (50th-T, 61) was the only one to pick Nevada and in the pool competitive games, 22 picked Syracuse and 48 picked Texas.

This is what March Madness is all about...

ORLANDO AND COLUMBUS SITES SEE TOP SEEDS FALL Three-way tie for first and Samurai Jack rises 46 spots in 2 days

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- Two more subregional sites saw a double dose of upsets. In Orlando, #7S-Xavier shocked #2S-Mississippi St. followed by #6W-Vanderbilt staging an incredible comeback to beat #3W-North Carolina St. NC St. had an 10 point lead with 3 minutes left and gave the game away with two fouls on 3-pt attempts and a breakaway foul (essentially a 5-pt play; two free throws plus the ball, which they made a 3-pointer). In Columbus, fans saw #5S-Illinois put #4S-Cincy out of its misery (the 7th time in the past 8 years the highly seeded Bearcats failed to reach the Sweet 16) and then saw the King of Kings, #1MW-Kentucky, fall to #9MW-Alabama-Birmingham. So two #1 and two #2 seeds fail to make the Sweet 16. #3MW-Georgia Tech and #3E-Pitt held off their fiesty opponents, the latter doing it in #6E-Wisconsin's home state. #2E-Oklahoma St. won easily and #4MW-Kansas finally put away #12MW-Pacific late in the game.

With four of the top 8 seeds already gone, the pool has turned ugly. Five of the top 9 entries have lost their champion (41 overall have). Just 3 have their Final Four intact and none near the top (YELLOWMONKEY (42nd-Tied, 74), HOOPSTER (49th-T, 72), and ELDO (49th-T)). It'll be an interesting finish.

BINGO, RANDOM PICKS, and PINKBUBBLES share the lead with 86 points. Four went 6-2 today while LARZ (76th, 65) tied a record low by going 1-7. SAMURAI JACK (77) got a pool high of 11 correct in the 2nd Round and moved from a tie for 72nd place to a tie for 26th which shows one should never give up.

However, we now know for certain who is eliminated from the top 4 prizes and now know who should give up (but remember, one can still win the Bonus Prize). Twenty-one entries have been eliminated. The most interesting quirks. DC944 (84) who sits tied for 4th place just two points off the lead, can't finish higher than 2nd place. UTLA WARRIOR (76) just ten points off the lead in a tie for 31st place, is eliminated while ONE EAGLE (62) who is tied for 76th place, still has a chance to win first place!

BINGO is in the best shape, with a high of 16.7% chance of winning it all and a 57.6% chance of winning money (of course some of that is padded with such possibilities as a UAB-Alabama final). BABY B (7th-T, 82) is the only other entry (11.6%) with a greater than 10% chance of winning first and 35 entries overall still have a chance for that top prize. RANDOM PICKS has a 31.9% chance of money followed by THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA (7th-T) with a 24.6% chance.

Tomorrow, we will reveal the prize money structure and Bonus Prize information. Some of you who find yourselves eliminated from the top prize money will now be revived with a chance to win the Bonus Prize. Don't tear those brackets yet!

Kentucky and Cincy's coaching jobs in jeopardy?...

Issue # 7.2.3 "Money, Money, Money"

SECOND LARGEST POT TO BE SPLIT FIVE WAYS

First place to get at least $370; the Bonus Prize explained

EL SEGUNDO\CERRITOS, CA (smt)- When you completed your online entry and saw your picks (to print out), some of you might have been wondering what the heck "Winningest Conference(s): ?? | Wins: #" meant. It was for our Bonus Prize. And thus, subliminally, you were also picking which conference would get the most wins in the tournament and how many wins that conference would get via your direct picks. (Believe me, there is no point in trying to pick your picks based on a measly $40 bonus prize). So that output, which in my case, says "Winningest Conference(s): ACC | Wins: 14", means that by the way I picked my bracket, the ACC will get the most wins at 14. Last year was the first year we used it after complaints about not enough prizes. THE FABO9ERS (that's me!) got the prize by correctly winning the tiebreaker between seven entries who correctly had the Big 12 with 14 wins.

The rules of how to win this Bonus Prize is as follows:

- 1) The top 4 finishers not eligible (so no double-dipping)
- 2) Ties broken by championship final score total (only among those not finishing in the top 4)
- 3) If there is still a tie, money is split
- 4) If 2 (or more) conferences tie for the most wins, both (or all) conferences must have been picked correctly
- 5) If entry has 2 or more conferences tied for most wins, only one must be correct to win (e.g. entry picks Pac 10 and Big 12 with 11 wins a piece. Big 12 ends up winning the most games with 11, then contestant wins)

And, the Bonus Prize is worth $40, which is four years worth of losing brackets. If no one correctly picks the winningest conference and wins, then the $40 goes back into the prize pot. So, here is the official prize breakdown (in parentheses, if no one wins the Bonus Prize):

1st Place:	$370	($390)
2nd Place:	$180	($195)
3rd Place:	$120	($125)
4th Place:	$ 80	($ 80)
Bonus Prize:	$ 40
TOTAL POT:	$790

So, 17 of the 21 eliminated entries are now back in play for the Bonus Prize! Only BRENT, GATOR BLIND, MRLUCKY, and SKRATCHNSNIFT will continue to wallow in their sorrows. If you aren't one of these four, then pick up your bracket out of the trash can and find out which conference you picked. If you don't have your bracket, then go to the "For the Record" page and pick your nickname from the drop down box. Right now, the current conferences with a chance to get the most number of wins are:

Teams	Curr	Max	Poss
Conf.	Left	Wins	Wins
ACC	3	9	18
Big East	3	8	16
Big 12	3	7	16
SEC	2	6	11
Conf USA	1	5	9
Atl 10	2	4	11

The most wins will be at least 9 and will likely be higher. I am not going to run all the permutations of the bracket, but I assume there is a very slight possibility both the ACC and Conf USA will finish with 9 wins, which is why Conf USA is still in the running. And no one picked Conf USA much less both Conf USA and ACC, which one would have to do to win the Bonus Prize. So if this were to happen, the $40 will go back into the prize money.

So, for example, let's say you had the ACC winning the most games with 17 but inadvertently picked ACC powerhouse Maryland to win it all (sorry CHAIRMANOFTHEBOARDS), you can still root for fellow ACC teams Duke, Wake Forest, and Georgia Tech to pick up a combined eight more victories and hope 17 wins is winning number. In case you are a basketball novice like me, here are the which teams belong to the above six conferences:

ACC	DUKE, GEORGIA TECH, WAKE FOREST (6-0, 3-3)
Big East	UCONN, PITT, SYRACUSE (5-1, 3-2)
Big 12	KANSAS, OKLAHOMA ST., TEXAS (4-0, 3-1)
SEC	ALABAMA, VANDY (4-2, 2-2)
Conf USA	UAB (4-2, 1-3)
Atl 10	ST. JOE'S, XAVIER (2-2, 2-0)

So far, just 9 entries can't win this bonus prize. A total of 68 entries had the ACC with the most wins (shared or otherwise), 7 had the Big East, and just 3 had the Big 12. Hopefully, this will breathe some life back for those who are eliminated from the top 4 money spots yesterday.

This won't be easy to win, because even if you have the correct conference and number of wins, you'll likely have to win the total points tiebreaker between all the entries (not in the top 4) who had the same conference and wins as you. So it's a little more complicated, but hey, it's another chance to win some money. :-)

Hope is restored!...

Issue # 8.2.4 "Sweet Home Alabama"

Home] [Updates]

STATE OF ALABAMA SENDS TWO UPSET MINDED TEAMS

Sweet sixteen musings from a madman

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- While #9MW-UAB, #8W-Alabama, and #10MW-Nevada try to continue their amazing Cinderella runs, #2W-UConn, and #3MW-Georgia Tech, and #1S-Duke will try to take advantage of an opened up bracket en route to the Final Four. #1E-St. Joseph's still doesn't get any respect as all four top seeds are alive in the East (or East Rutherford) Region. Upsets seem unlikely, but we've heard that before.

In the pool, BINGO, RANDOM PICKS, and PINKBUBBLES are tied for first but only BINGO still has his champion alive (Duke). ONE EAGLE and JAREBOK, who have both their top 2 teams alive (Pit and Conn), will try to do the unthinkable and rise from the 70's and finish in the top 4. With each correct pick worth 4 points today and Friday, the stakes are high. YELLOWMONKEY, ELDO, and HOOPSTER have all their Final Four teams and are in good shape to make a move upward. More upsets can only help those near the top of the standings. Those at the bottom need every point they can get.

And now, my Sweet 16 Thoughts & Observations:

About the pool...

- 1) 79 entries. Just short of our record of 80 but still a good jump over last year's 63 entries. It looked like we'd hit about 50-55 but we got a whopping 60 entries in the last 33 hours. Are people are actually thinking about their brackets trying to get the last piece of info before submitting?
- 2) Amazing pick. SCHADENFREUDE (geez, I hope she doesn't do well cause it's a pain to try to remember how to spell it :-)) picked #10MW-Nevada over fan favorite #2MW-Gonzaga. Why? If she wins by 1 or 2 points, that's the reason.

3) Amazing dopes? One round earlier, GATOR BLIND tried to oust Gonzaga with #15MW-Valparaiso. Also, MARTY THE GREEK was all alone in hoping for a #14E-Central Florida miracle (over #3E-Pitt). But LARZ was the only person to not only entry to incorrectly pick #14MW-Northern Iowa would upset #3MW-Georgia Tech, but he had them going to the Sweet 16!

4) West Coast Bias. While most #8/#9 matchups are evenly split, the Pac-10 earned undeserved respect with 68 picking #9S-Arizona and 51 picking #8MW-Washington... both were wrong. Also, a high of 21 entries thought Stanford would go all the way and 17 thought Gonzaga would make the Final Four. Stanford was also the only team all entries thought would make the Sweet 16.

5) Open field. A record 15 different teams were picked to win it all. Just one picked #1E-St. Joseph's and just one picked defending champion #5W-Syracuse. Twenty-six (26) teams were picked to make the Final Four, one short of the record.

6) Whoa. What about a Final Four of Stanford, St. Joseph's, Washington, and Arizona? BRENT's faith in the Pac-10 killed him bigtime.

7) Sizzlin'. JODON007 got a high of 29 of 32 correct in the first round.

8) Fizzlin'. JODON007 only got 7 of 16 correct in the second round to fall into a tie for 18th.

9) Just izzlin'?. SAMURAI JACK tied for 72nd after one round. Two days later, he is tied for 26th place, 8 points off the lead, and 6 of 8 Elite 8 teams alive.

10) One-Sided. 53 of 79 entries have the champion coming from the right side of the bracket (South and West).

11) By Seedings. If you picked a straight ticket, you'd have 83 points and be tied for 6th. Of course, your champion Kentucky would be gone as well as Stanford.

About the tournament...

12) Buzzer Beaters. There were none. Yeah, we had the clutch layup by Alabama in the first round but that still left five seconds left. Here's a list: Southern Illinois (vs Alabama), Dayton (regulation), Dayton (1st OT, 0.4 seconds left), Dayton (1st OT, 0.0 seconds left), East Tennessee St., Washington, UNC, Stanford, Maryland, Boston College, NC St., and Kentucky. All missed their last second shot to tie or win the game. 0-for-12. The last gasp... all failed.

13) Commercials. CBS has it down pat. They can go to a commercial, come back and switch to another game, which in seconds is going to a commercial as well. I think in a one 10-minute span I saw 2 minutes of actual basketball.

14) Regions. The Phoenix Region? It sucks. And we ignore it. Give us our West, South, Midwest, and East Regions please. Have you seen some sites try to abbreviate? "E-RUTH", "ER", "E-R", "Er..." (East Rutherford).

15) Choking. I know they're just kids and aren't being paid, but it's frustrating to see the demoralized looks on these "favorites" as they go down by 8-10 points late in the game. Gonzaga, Stanford, Mississippi St., NC St., Kentucky. Geez. You are the top seed, play like one.

16) Gifts. And these top seeds gave the games away. It was bad enough to blow a 13-point lead (by getting outscored 16-0 in a 5:49 span) with over nine minutes left (Stanford) or the best team in the tournament losing a late 4-point lead in 25 seconds, but to blow a 11-point lead with 3:44 left (NC St.)? It's only possible if you foul the other team on every play (Stanford), foul a player shooting a three, not once but twice (NC St.), or turnover the ball four times in less than two minutes (Kentucky).

Poor Alabama St. got creamed by Duke...

ALABAMA SPANKS DEFENDING CHAMPS AS ST. JOE'S IS FIRST #1 SEED IN ELITE 8

Twenty more entries eliminated as Bingo eyes money prize

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- #8W-Alabama continued to disrupt brackets by pulling away from the defending champion #5W-Syracuse Orangemen, 80-71. They'll get to face #2W-UConn, who earlier used a 21-8 to close out #6W-Vanderbilt, 73-53. #2E-Oklahoma St. and #3E-Pitt battled a tug-and-war game until OK St. blew open a 42-all tie with a 17-5 run to win 61-51. And in the only bracket where all the top seeds have won, #1E-St. Joseph's, who many thought would be the first #1 seed to lose, became the first #1 seed to advance to the Elite 8 by outlasting #4E-Wake Forest, 84-80. Wake Forest had three major lapses in the game and St. Joe's took advantage of them and shut up Billy Packer.

UConn won with a huge rebounding advantage and OK St. won by shooting nearly 60% in the 2nd half. Vandy shooting star Matt Freije shot just 3/18 for 8 pts (after 31 pts vs NC St.) while Syracuse's Gerry McNamara (56 pts in 1st 2 gm; 24 today) didn't get started until it was too late (starting just 1/6 FG).

BINGO and PINKBUBBLES are tied atop the leaderboard with 98 pts but BINGO has his champion alive (for now) and has a 84.1% chance of winning money and 36.5% chance of winning first. DC994 (96 pts) is in third but can't finish higher than 2nd (forever behind BINGO). Twenty more entries were eliminated (leaving just 28) and only 14 can win first place.

UConn's win sent 2 entries home, OK St's win eliminated 11, Alabama's win sent EVIL MONKEY (60th-Tied, 77) (who was the only person to pick Syracuse to win it all) packing, and the most split game of the day saw St. Joe's win put six entries to bed. 42 had St. Joe's while 30 had Wake Forest. UConn's win knocked THE FAB

X (Scott T) (30th, 85) out of a chance for first, leaving Rob C (with 1 of his 3 entries, JEDI MASTER ROB (6th-T, 92) as the only person left who could win the HWCi NCAA Pool title twice. JODON007 (41st-T, 83), who led after one round, was eliminated with St. Joe's win, becoming the second straight person (BLUEBERRY last year) to crash-and-burn so quickly after winning the first round.

ELDO (49th-T, 80) is the only person left who could get all four Final Four teams correct. This has only happened twice (both in 2001) in 355 entries. He needs Duke and Georgia Tech to win, which seems very likely. Six others, however, join the list of 52 other entries who have gone 0-for-the-Final-Four. Twenty-four (24) entries went 3-1 while KRISPY KREMER (55th-T, 78) was the only person to go 0-4.

Issue # 10.3.2 "You're Ejected!"

Home] [Updates]

COACHES THROW TANTRUMS AS THREE FAVORITES ADVANCE

Bingo takes sole possession of first; 28 battle on CERRITOS, CA (smt)- Two coaches were ejected today and not surprisingly, both for the losing team. #9MW-UAB's coach was ejected with 5:24 left arguing for a foul as UAB got routed by #4MW-Kansas, 100-74. Kansas is just the third team to hit the century mark (both Washington and UAB played to a 102-100 thriller in the first round) making UAB the only team this year to allow 100 points or more in two tournament games. Uneven officiating caused #3S-Texas' coach to get ejected with 3.9 seconds left as their rally fell short to #7S-Xavier (their 1st Elite 8 appearance), 79-71. All in all, five technicals were given today (Nevada's player had the fifth). #3MW-Georgia Tech survived two scares, the first losing their leading scorer B.J. Elder three minutes into the game, then fighting off Cinderella #10MW-Nevada, 72-67. #1S-Duke pulled away from #5S-Illinois in a fast paced game, 72-62.

BINGO is all alone in first with 106 points, four more than RANDOM PICKS and PINKBUBBLES. JEDI MASTER ROB and DC944 hit the century mark as well. BINGO now has a 86.7% chance of winning money and a 35.2% of taking first. After that, things even out with 13 other entries with a better than 10% chance of winning money and four other entries with a better than 10% chance of winning the pool. Only 28 remain in contention and just 11 for the top prize. With 128 possible outcomes, STUDENT BODY RIGHT (25th-Tied, 92 pts) has just one chance for first and THE FAB X (38th-T, 89) has just one chance for 4th.

Four entries went 3-1 while nine went 0-4. For the 3rd Round, it was reversed-nine went 5-3 while 4 went 1-7. The 3.4 win average for the round was the second worst-ever Sweet Sixteen round. Kansas' win was picked by 9 entries, but six of those were already eliminated. Xavier's win, picked by six, though, knocked out six entries. Georgia Tech's victory sealed the fate of 3 more and Duke's win eliminated BIG LUTHER (57th-T, 84). ELDO (42nd-T, 88) still has a chance to go perfect in the Final Four and is the lowest entry to still have a chance for win it all. BAD COW KNEES (49th-T, 87) is lowest entry to still have a chance to win money.

For the Bonus Prize, the ACC leads with 11 wins, followed by the BigEast and Big 12 with nine. No conference will win more than 16. The Atlantic 10 (6 wins) is the only other conference with a chance to lead. Sixty (60) entries, that's most of you, can still win the Bonus Prize. So keep those brackets handy. A complete summary of the Bonus Prize possibilities will be posted after Sunday's games.

EAST REGION WON BY OK ST IN CLASSIC WHILE UCONN CRUISES

Bingo holds onto 4 pt lead; only 7 can win 1st

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- When the seedings were announced, #2E-Oklahoma St.'s conference tournament win came too late to change the four top seeds, giving #1E-St. Joseph's the #1 seed despite losing in the first round of their conference tournament. Well, the only difference was that St. Joseph's got to wear their white uniforms instead of OK St. The top two seeds did meet and in a classic battle, John Lucas matched St. Joe's Three with his own with 6.9 seconds left giving the Cowboys a ticket to the Final Four, 64-62. And for the 13th straight time, the buzzer beating shot to tie/win failed to fall (this time for St. Joe's). #2W-Connecticut blew out their opponent for the fourth straight game, this time outshooting Cinderella #8W-Alabama, 87-71. UConn has won their four games by an average of 17.5 points. #1S-Duke will try to make sure at least one #1 seed makes it to the Final Four tomorrow (never has no #1 seed advanced).

Very little change in the standings as 8 of the top 9 entries got both games correct (17 did overall). BINGO (118 pts) still leads by four points over RANDOM PICKS. SHIBBY SHAKE (103) moved from a tie for 31st to a tie for 12th. BINGO has a 40.6% chance to win 1st and a 84.4% (27 of 32 possible outcomes) chance to win money. FABIO (4th, 111) has a 28.1% chance for 1st and a 56.3% chance for money. Just 17 entries can still win one of the top 4 prize spots and just seven (7) can win 1st.

UConn's win was picked by 35 entries and eliminated five entries (including yours truly) from money contention. Ok St.'s win was picked by 39 (only 13 had St. Joe's going to the Final Four) and eliminated six more entries. Twenty-two entries went 0-2 today. St. Joe's loss also ruined ELDO's (38th-Tied, 94) chance to go a perfect 4-for-4 in the Final Four. So that means just 2 in 434 (0.46%) entries have ever picked all four Final Four teams correctly. St. Joe's loss also meant that SKRATCHNSNIFT (79th, 67) will be only the 2nd person to ever to be last (or tied for last) after every single day of the tournament (BETHEON in 2000 was the other).

In the race for the Bonus Prize, the ACC still leads with 11 wins, followed by the BigEast and Big 12 with ten apiece. No conference will win more than 16. The Atlantic 10 dropped out of contention with St. Joe's loss. Sixty (60) entries (minus the 4 who win the top 4 prizes) can still win the Bonus Prize. A complete summary of the Bonus Prize possibilities will be posted after Sunday's games.

JUST MILES FROM CAMPUS, KANSAS FALLS; DUKE OUTLASTS XAVIER

Bingo continues to roll but isn't guaranteed money (yet)

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- Playing less than 300 miles from campus, the pro-Kansas crowd in St. Louis could not overcome another mileage problem - Aaron Miles - as #3MW-Georgia Tech held off #4MW-Kansas in overtime, 79-71, scoring the last eight points. The Jayhawks' Miles, in the last two minutes plus OT, walked the ball up the court when Kansas needed a quick basket, forced three bad shots, had one fast break turnover, committed one stupid foul (giving Georgia Tech 2 free throws), and had one dumb traveling violation. The Yellow Jackets, who once again won without their top scorer B.J. Elder, blew a 65-58 lead but headed into OT tied at 66, thanks to Miles. Kansas lost for the first time this season when scoring 70 points (23-1).

#1S-Duke went on a 12-3 run to overcome a 56-53 deficit to defeat a pesky #7S-Xavier team, 66-63. Xavier knocked off the #3 team in the region (Texas), the #2 team (Miss. St.), but ran out of steam against the #1 team. Xavier was the hottest team winning 16 of their past 17 games. Duke makes it to its 10th Final Four under Coach K (just the third time in the 10 years of the pool, making many past predictors frustrated).

KYLIAAR (114 pts) was one of 4 people to go 2-0 and moved from a tie for 15th to 5th- but can't finish higher than 3rd. BINGO (124), who was one of 17 to go 3-1 for the round, continues to maintain his 4 pt lead over RANDOM PICKS. He tied a HWCi NCAA record high of 124 pts after four rounds and has 46 wins so far with a possible point total of 152. With three games left, he has a chance to break the HWCi NCAA records of 48 wins (by JAYBIAN in 1996) and 148 points (by BIX PIX in 1995). On the other end, 24 went 0-2 and twelve went 0-for-the-Final-Four.

Georgia Tech's win was picked by 12 and it eliminated SCHADENFREUDE and ZIPPY (coincidentally, the two people who actually requested their individual possibilities list). Duke's win was picked by 47 sending the only person to have Xavier in the Final, BAD COW KNEES, home. While 24 entries can't pick up any more points, 17 still have both of their finalists in the Final Four.

An unusually high 14 entries can still win one of the top four prizes. BINGO still has not secured money but has a 7 in 8 chance of winning something and a 50% shot for first place.

The ACC sweep today means that someone will win the Bonus Prize and the winner can forget about collecting $390 instead of $370. The ACC will be the winningest conference with either 13 (currently at), 14, 15, or 16 wins.

A complete wrap-up of the Final Four possibilities will be posted tomorrow. The Bonus Prize summary will be posted on Tuesday. Both are on the web site now without commentary.

Two great games (for once)...

BINGO IN DRIVER SEAT BUT THREE READY TO UNSEAT HIM Fourteen entries have hope with none guaranteed money

CERRITOS/EL SEGUNDO, CA (smt)- The 10th HWCi NCAA Tournament Pool will see a 10th different person claim the top prize. Fourteen entries (a high of 17 were alive in 2002) still have a chance for at least $80. Three of the teams have a loyal following (23 have picked Duke, 22 UConn, and 21 OK St. to reach the final; only 2 have picked Georgia Tech) that some people hope will ride them into money. BINGO (4 in 8), FABIO (2 in 8), RANDOM PICKS (1 in 8), and SHIBBY SHAKE (1 in 8) have a chance to win the $370 top prize.

BINGO (4th year, 3rd '01, 4th '03) and RANDOM PICKS (3rd, 2nd '02) have won some money before. FABIO (3rd) and SHIBBY SHAKE (4th) will be trying to win money for the first time. Of the other ten entries, MARTHAS INSIDE PICKS and MRDUCKY are trying to win money in their 6th year. Interestingly, five of the entries still alive are a person's 2nd entry, not their 1st entry. Why is this interesting? Of the previous 25 people to enter twice (or 3 times), only one has won on their alternate (2nd or 3rd) entry (FREE FABONE \(1st entry: THE FABONE V\) in 1999). Four others have won on their first entry (despite entering 2 or 3 times).

In all nine previous pools, the HWCi NCAA Pool champion has been crowned after the Semifinals. The only way this will happen for a 10th straight year is if Duke wins vs UConn on Saturday- BINGO would win 1st place and DC944 wins 2nd or 3rd. But if that doesn't happen, then nervousness will arise on Monday's championship game. If UConn wins the championship, FABIO wins 1st and OMG 2nd. The only way BINGO goes home empty-handed is if UConn beats Georgia Tech in the final. RANDOM PICKS wins it all if UConn beats Oklahoma St. and SHIBBY SHAKE wins the pool if Oklahoma St. beats UConn. If the latter happens, there will be a 3-way tie for 3rd Place. Which means, that one could go home empty-handed (this would not be the case if the total points in the final is 140, then BINGO would take 3rd and JEDI MASTER ROB and STUDENT BODY RIGHT would share 4th Place).

1st Place = $370
2nd Place = $180
3rd Place = $120
4th Place = $ 80
Bonus Prize = $ 40

The Bonus Prize summary will be posted tomorrow. Or you can check the web site now without commentary.

Issue # 14.4.4 "A Bonus Prize for Losers"

Home] [Updates]

THE ACC FLEXES ITS MIGHT AS THE WINNINGEST CONFERENCE

Forty-four losers still have a chance to claim $40

CERRITOS/EL SEGUNDO, CA (smt)- Whereas last year the Big 12 ruled with 14 wins and two teams in the Final Four, this year the ACC (13-4) sent two teams to the Final Four and will be the winningest conference. Depending how Duke and Georgia Tech fare, the ACC will end up with 13, 14, 15, or 16 wins. Of the flip side, the once mighty Pac 10 sent only 3 teams and finished 1-3.

Last year was the first year the Bonus Prize was implemented and THE FABO9ERS was the loser \(11th place\) who won the $40 via the tiebreaker. Eleven entries still had a chance going into the Final Game. This year, once again someone will win the Bonus Prize (depriving the Pool Champion at a chance for $390) with 68 entries correctly picking in some part the ACC as the winningest conference. It looked like the Big 12 may pull it off again but Kansas lost to Georgia Tech (and that could've thrown the Bonus Prize of $40 back into the pot since only three entries had the Big 12).

More than half (which is nearly every one of you) the entries (44) still have a chance to win the Bonus Prize of $40. Remember, the top 4 winners will be ineligible, so some entries may see their chances improve as the winners are taken out of the equation. Currently, 12 entries have correctly picked the ACC with 13 wins which would mean the winner will be determined via the total points in the final tiebreaker. Twelve picked the ACC with 14 wins, 11 with 15 wins, and if Georgia Tech and Duke win their Semifinal games, 9 picked the ACC with 16 wins.

HWCI NCAA Pool Bonus Prize Rules

So check out if your entry is still alive and maybe you'll actually have a reason to watch the championship game on Monday. Some, like ZIPPY, if the ACC finishes with 13 wins, will have to hope Oklahoma St. and UConn combine for exactly 121 points. Some like DEESKEE can win if the total points is 149 or higher. Some like OMG (if he doesn't finish 1st-4th), PINKBUBBLES, and XK2XBOILX will have to split the $40 prize ($13.33 each) if the total points is exactly 117.

1st Place	= $370
2nd Place	= $180
3rd Place	= $120
4th Place	= $ 80
Bonus Prize	= $ 40

OMG! THE SCHADENFREUDE OF RANDOM PICKS BY JINX

My list of nicknames of the past decade

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- The economy must be picking up as we increased our entry total by 16 from last year after our first-ever drop (17 less). We actually got 81 entries but just 79 were paid and accounted for. A record 54 entries returned from past years and a total of 70 (ties a record high set in 2002) people submitted the 79 entries with 8 people submitted two or three entries (Robinson C. with 3 as always) and for the first time, it seems to be working (most go empty-handed when submitting 2 or 3 entries). The name/nickname list was posted on the discussion board on the very first day of games, the earliest ever to give friends a chance to see who they were up against.

So what do I think? I thought I had it bad last year in typing 'XK2XBOILX' (he's back this year as well), but now I have to look up SCHADENFREUDE and SKRATCHNSNIFT not to mention a bunch of seemingly random number generated names such as M25LEE, JODON007, and DC944. Or the run-in sentences in CHAIRMANOFTHEBOARDS, UTAHPIXTHETREE, and GATORBLIND. Or the bland: BRENT, SOURCE, and DARA CHAY (OK, sounds cool, but that's her name!). Or acronyms: OMG and PSW. What happened to the classic nicknames?

Now, I have no idea how some of these nicknames came about, so I'm gonna make some it up. We have QUEENB and BABY B, SHRINER and HOOPSTER, MRLUCKY and MRDUCKY (and not related to wishful thinking MRS. MCGRADY), and ELDO, HENDO, BINGO, and FABIO. We have general college hoop statements (GLASS SLIPPER, OKAFOR'S ARMADA, WEST COAST BIAS) and political statements (KERRY=DISASTER, MARTHA'S INSIDE PICKS, UTLA WARRIOR). We have animals (EVIL MONKEY, YELLOWMONKEY, ANGRY DRAGON, BAD COW KNEES) and colors (BLUESTARS1996, PINKBUBBLES, TEAM GREEN).

Some seem uplifting (ONE EAGLE, ZIPPY), hopeful (RANDOM PICKS, STRETCH, MR. WIZARD), or depressing (BRUINS SUCK, JINX). There were references to the ever-popular Simpsons (ARTHUR FORTUNE, THE SLACK JAWED YOKEL), sci-fi/cartoons (JEDI MASTER ROB, SAMURAI JACK), and possible new reality shows (THE PROJECT, THE PEOPLE'S CHAMP). Some clever and not-so-clever nicknames based on their name or origin (MARTY THE GREEK, LARZ, SEANITO'S SWING, TROYSOLDIERS, OMAR OF OZ, ALL HAIL SANT, GEORGIA BOI, BIG AL, DEESKEE) and names I just don't get (BUCKS WILL B BACK (who are the Bucks?), KAIZEN, KYLIAAR, JAREBOK, SMORGGLE). We had the old standbys (THE FAB X, THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA, BUCKEYE MIKE, YELLOWMONKEY (hey, mentioned twice!), THE FLYING ELVI, CARSERONI, and TEAM SAMURAI) and some clever new names (KRISPY KREMER, AFROS ARE AWESOME, SHIBBY SHAKE, STUDENT BODY RIGHT, ACE OF SPADES). And then there's our defending champion, BIG LUTHER.

Hey, this is the first time I've tried to mention everyone's nickname. Except for dual similar entries such as UTAHPIX and MR. WIZARD TOO. Oh, wait, now I have mentioned every entry's nickname. How about that?

So feel free to flame me on how I butchered your nickname or to defend or explain your nickname on our discussion board.

WHICH SCHOOL STORY WILL BE TOLD?

More than half the entries have a shot of winning cold hard cash

CERRITOS (smt)- Georgia Tech has won two tough games without the assistance of their leading scorer, B.J. Elder. Oklahoma St. is trying to give their coach, Eddie Sutton, winner of 755 games, the one thing he does not have - a national championship. No one wants Duke to win and the team in the Final Four probably wouldn't fall into the top 10 Duke teams of all time, yet they are the only #1 seed in the Final Four. Connecticut, the preseason favorite, has not played a tough game yet and hasn't played a seed higher than #6. Their star, Emeka Okafor, missed most of the last game due to an injury. The first game on Saturday will see Georgia Tech take on Oklahoma St while the nightcap will be Duke vs. UConn in a rematch of the 1999 Championship where a 2-loss UConn team upset the 1-loss Duke team.

Of the fourteen entries with a chance for big money, RANDOM PICKS (2nd, 120 pts) is the only one who has his/her champion out (Kentucky). BINGO (1st, 124) will hope that Duke wins so that he can wrap up the HWCII NCAA Pool title on Saturday (as per the protocol for the past 9 pools), but if not, we will have two entries battling for the title on Monday for the first-time ever. But besides these 14 hopefuls, another 36 (44 overall) still have a chance to win the $40 Bonus Prize. That means 50 of the 79 entries (63.3%) still have a chance to win something other than pride or credit card debt or a new guitar.

1st Place = $370
2nd Place = $180
3rd Place = $120
4th Place = $ 80
Bonus Prize = $ 40

LATE RALLIES MAKE BOTH GAMES CLASSIC; LAST #1 SEED GONE

Three guaranteed $$$, but for first time, champ is undecided

CARSON/CERRITOS, CA (smt)- #2E-Oklahoma St. used a 6-0 run in 2:20 late in the game to tie the score, but that left 26 seconds left in the game for Will Bynum of #3MW-Georgia Tech to hit a tough running layup with 1.5 seconds left and send the Yellow Jackets into the Final for the first-time ever, 67-65. The Cowboys were playing catch-up all game long (down by 12 in the 2nd half) and poor free throw shooting (17/25, 68%) didn't help matters.

#1S-Duke led 75-67 with 2:47 left but #2W-UConn used a 12-0 run in 2:44 to stun the Blue Devils, 79-78. Emeka Okafor was held scoreless in the first half but scored 18 in the second to rally the Huskies. UConn ran out to the early lead at 15-4, but Duke quickly outscored UConn 32-11 and eventually built an 11-point 2nd half lead (45-34). The rematch of the '99 Final again went to UConn, who reaches the Final for the 2nd time. This makes it the second straight year no #1 seed is in the final.

The heart-pumping games made RANDOM PICKS (1st, 128), FABIO (2nd, 125), and OMG (4th, 119) richer. But where they will finish is another story. For the first time ever in the HWCI NCAA Pool, the Champion was not decided after the Semifinals. If Georgia Tech wins, RANDOM PICKS stays in first; if UConn wins, FABIO becomes our new champion. THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA can take 3rd if UConn wins, knocking BINGO (124) (who coincidentally, happens to be his Dad) out of 3rd place. BINGO had the worst day of all, losing both his Finalists in one day, falling out of first place, and with only a 50% chance of winning money (he had 7 of 8 chances before).

If Ga Tech beats Connecticut in the final, then the possible winners are...

Random Picks Score:128 (1st $370)

Fabio Score:125 (2nd $180)

Bingo Score:124 (3rd $120)

OMG Score:119 (4th $80)

If Connecticut beats Ga Tech in the final, then the possible winners are...

Fabio Score:137 (1st $370)

OMG Score:131 (2nd $180)

The Mighty Mobelfakta Score:130 (3rd $120)

Random Picks Score:128 (4th $80)

Tech's win eliminated six entries and UConn's win eliminated three more. Just two picked Georgia Tech and 22 picked UConn, but no one got both right. Twenty-four (24) went 1-1 leaving 55 with a big goose egg.

For the Bonus Prize, Georgia Tech upped the ACC's win total to 14 and if they win on Monday, it'll be 15. Tech's win eliminated 12 from the prize and Duke's loss eliminated 12 more. Also, RANDOM PICKS is ineligible (since he will win money), so that leaves 22 still in contention for the $40 award.

TEN YEARS, TEN DIFFERENT CHAMPS, TEN HEADACHES

A look back at each of the ten HWCI NCAA pools

MONTEREY PARK/CERRITOS, CA (smt)- The 10th HWCI NCAA Tournament pool, for the first time ever, will crown its 10th champion on Monday instead of this yesterday. Rick F (FABIO), in his third pool is guaranteed at least $180 but would really like that $370 first prize cash. Jeff H (RANDOM PICKS), in his third pool as well, won $200 in 2002 and would like to add $370 to his winnings. But he will leave with no less than $80. Newcomer Darius B (OMG) will win either $80 or $180. The last prize spot will either go to 5-year veteran Bing F (BINGO) or his son and 10-year pool veteran and administrator, Dave F (THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA). Both would take home $120 for third place.

A total of $4,340 in prize money has been given out in the 10 years. Twenty-two entries are still alive to win the Bonus Prize and will be counting points on Monday. The pot of $790 is the second-highest ever ($800 in 2002).

A little history.....

In 1995, the first year of the pool, just 12 people entered in a modest effort put forth by HW-UCLA and their close friends. Names like BAD ASS and LIVER BOY graced the pool. Of course, their interest was heightened because UCLA was favored to win it all. Indeed, 10 of 12 picked UCLA while 2 picked Kentucky. This pool featured the infamous LOSER WHO DIDN'T PICK UCLA (Dennis K) who set an all-time record (still stands today) with a 14-2 2nd Round to go from tied for 9th to tied for 1st before going 0-7 in the final 3 rounds to finish dead last (12th) with 98 points. TINA'S BOY (Mark C) became the first person to be eliminated when the 2nd round ended. He is, however, one of only 3 people (all in 1995) to correctly pick the two teams in the final and the champion prior to 1999. BIX PIX (Fernando B, 1st, 148) and MR. NELSON (Nelson, 2nd, 146) were the other two and claimed the top two spots, winning $70 and $30, respectively. THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA (Dave F, 3rd, 141) claimed third prize worth $20. All but one finished with 110 points or more, the highest scoring pool ever (130.6 avg).

In 1996, 19 people participated in the pool. Without the HW-UCLA guys picking nicknames, we had some boring stuff like JAMES, JOSEPH, and HEATHER. That year, the total points tiebreaker was first used to settle ties. A newcomer, JAYBIAN (Jason S, 1st, 144) rode Kentucky to a first place prize of $110. He also set a record going 8-0 for the 3rd round and never looked back. BIX PIX TWEY (Fernando B, 5th, 129) hoping to duplicate last year's effort, fell short of winning money thanks to his loyalty to UCLA. JOSEPH (Joseph K, 2nd, 140) and JAMES (James L, 3rd, 139) won $50 and $30, respectively. Six picked Kentucky that year with just as many picking UCLA (who lost to Princeton in the first round- ouch!). This was the first year someone entered twice (Dave F) and ended up 11th (REALISTIC MOBELFAKTA, 113) and 16th (THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA, 106). MM and HATE THE DUCKS (Mark C, 12th, 112) became the 2nd and 3rd people to go 0-for-the- Final-Four. HATE THE DUCKS had a 64% chance of winning money heading into the 4th round, and 0% chance after. THE CHEF (Douglas H, 19th, 80) set an all-time low in points for a pool.

In 1997, the first real debate on whether to raise the pool fee to $20 from $10 was raised. Fortunately, it was defeated in a vote. But, three people did plunk down $20 to enter twice as 22 entries were received in the third annual pool. Like Dave F before them, the three people went moneyless (Tuan H- RODERICK (15th, 97) and RHODES (14th, 97); Alvin K- BAD ASS I (4th, 111) and BAD ASS II (18th, 93); and Dennis K- LENNY (6th, 107) and DUKE (12th, 99)). This was also the first year no one picked the correct NCAA champion. Arizona, who usually bowed out in the first or second round, surprised everyone, including Kentucky, in winning the championship in overtime. The #4-SE seed beat three # 1 seeds, the first time that's happened. Twelve had picked Kansas and four North Carolina, neither which made the championship game. MAX (Sean D, 1st, 116) bounced back from a 15th place finish the year before to win the $125 top prize. The Selander brothers took 2nd (Brian S, THE FLYING ELVI, 115) and 3rd (Jason S, JAYBIAN II, 113) for $60 and $35, respectively. Jason S became the first person to win money twice (1st in 1996). Just half (11 of 22) finished 100 points or higher.

In 1998, a record 28 entries tried their luck. ANNA COME LATELY (Anna, 1st, 126), the last entry we received, seemed like the least likely to win, picking a Utah over UCLA final. Well, Utah surprised the 27 other entrants (no one else even had them in the Final Four) and gave ANNA COME LATELY the record top prize of $150. James L became the 2nd person to win twice taking the $70 second place prize (CAVEMAN, 2nd, 113) while THE FABONE (Scott T, 3rd, 110) won money for the first time in four tries to take home $40. For the first time, a 4th place prize was created and that went to SCOTTMAN (Scott H, 4th, 108), which was also the first time the tiebreaker played a part in the top spots as SCOTTMAN won the 4-way tie for 4th place. With Kentucky's rally and win over Utah in the final, this was the 2nd straight year no one picked the champion. Sixteen pegged UNC while five hoped for an Arizona repeat. UTHOPE (Donald G, 24th, 92) became the 4th person to go 0-7 in the last three rounds. ANNA COME LATELY's 13-point win was the largest margin of victory ever. Tuan H once again entered twice with the same results- no money (STRAIGHT BUTTER, 10th, 106 and EN FUEGO, 13th, 104) extending the drought for dual entries to 0-for-5.

In 1999, a record 36 entries (18 NCAA pool newcomers, 13 pool newcomers if you include those who participated in the World Cup Pool) were received with two dual entries (Scott T- THE FABONE V and FREE FABONE and Gareth M- CARSERONI and MAJERUS FOR SDSU). This was the first year the referral program was in effect (free entry for 5 referrals). Mark C (DARKSHARK) became the first person to go 0-for-7 in the Final Four twice (1996). SHARY BOBBINS (Lisa T, 1st, 146) and CARSERONI (Gareth M, 3rd, 120) became the 12th and 13th different people to win HWCI NCAA pool money. Scott T (FREE FABONE) and Gareth M (CARSERONI) broke a streak of winless dual entries with a 2nd and 3rd Place finish in one of their entries. James L (BIG GAME, 5th, 117) bid to go 3-for-3 in winning money came falling down with Duke's stunning loss. Three of four people who picked UConn (29 picked Duke) to win it all won money. Rob C (LUIS ENRIQUE'S ARMADA, 11th, 113) became the first person to pick the correct champion and lose out to someone who didn't (where the correct champion was picked). Fernando B (BIG SPIDER BECK, 4th, 118) had just a 4 in 132 chance to win money and took 4th, his second winning entry ever. Loretta A (TRUE BRUIN, 36th, 67) finished with all-time record low in points.

In 2000, a record-tying 36 entries once again tried their luck as 14 newcomers entered. Sam N (MORALES' MOUNDS, 122 pts) became the sixth different champion after finishing 26th and 31st in the previous two years. He became the first person to either be tied or in the lead after each of the six rounds. After a record breaking first round that saw two people get 30 of 32 first round games correct, the brackets started to fall apart as no one got more than 3 of 8 Sweet Sixteen games correct and eight people went 0-7 in the Final Four (just six have done so before (117 entries)). Just one #1 and one #2 seed advanced to the Elite Eight. Dave F (THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA) returns to the winner's circle with a 2nd Place finish. Scott T (FREE FABONE and THE FABONE VI) won money for a record third straight pool. Beth S (BETHEON, 36th, 62) shattered the all-time low in points. Fourteen people pegged Michigan St. as the correct champion. Craig E (CRAIGS99) won 4th place in his first pool.

In 2001, a record shattering 59 entries were received by 53 people (21 new people). Robinson C (TEAM SAMURAI) won the biggest prize ever of $280 after finishing 3rd to last (34th) last year. He entered three times and it worked. Three others (Scott T, Mike K, Fernando B) went winless in both of their entries after the last three people to enter twice won money (3-8 overall for those with 2 entries; Robinson is the first 3-time entry-er). Sam N (B-S FC), last year's pool champion, and Dylan R (DYLAN) become just the 3rd and 4th people to not get at least half the games correct. Four people went 0-7 in the Final Four (just 18 people have done so out of 212 entries) with Donald G (UTHPOPE) doing it for the second time (Mark C is the only other person with this dubious distinction). On the flip side, two people (BINGO and PEEPS) became the first-ever entries to predict all four Final Four teams correctly. Eleven different teams were picked to be the champion with 18 picking Stanford, 15 Duke, and 8 Arizona. In addition to Robinson C, Lisa F (ARMIN TAMZARIAN) wins for the 2nd time. Bing F (BINGO) takes 3rd in his second try and Sam P (JAYHAWK FC) takes home 4th. The top 13 finishers all had Duke winning it all.

In 2002, a record breaking 80 entries were received. A hefty 80 entries from 71 people including 29 new people and 42 returnees. Seven people entered twice and one person entered 3 times but only Scott T managed to take home something, his first pool title in 8 years (THE FABON8ER) and largest take ever, $400, giving him a lifetime total of $590 and his 4th win (1 1st, 2 2nd, and 3 3rd place finishes). Jeff H (RANDOM PICKS) had the largest 1st and 2nd round leads ever (4 and 7 pts) and most pts after 2 rounds (90) but had to settle for 2nd. Ann B. (LITTLE ANN) and Paul N. (KAIZEN) took 3rd and 4th, with the 4th Place prize of $70 matching our first ever 1st Place prize of $70 in 1995. In reference to quantity does not equal quality, Gabriel T (GOBAY) and Dan H (HENDO) shattered records for lowest point total (49) and worst 2nd round (3-13). Gabriel also set records for worst 2nd Round Saturday (1-7), lowest pt total after 2 rounds (45), worst record in 3rd round (0-8), worst record in last 4 rounds (0-15). HENDO set a record for least wins (22). Eight people failed to get half the games right (just 4 in previous 7 pools) and eight went 0-7 in the last 3 rounds (just 18 in previous 7 pools). 22 entries chose Duke to win it all but all four winners (out of 17) correctly chose Maryland.

In 2003, with the War in Iraq looming that week, 63 valid entries (including a record 47 returnees) from 58 people were received, our second highest total. With some complaints that four prizes weren't enough, we instituted our first-ever Bonus Prize of $40 to the entry who picked the winningest conference and number of wins correctly. This allowed 21 extra entries with a chance for money heading into the Final Four. Scott T (THE FABO9ERS) won the prize (11th, 110), his fifth win, pushing his lifetime total to $630. Four people entered twice and none won anything. Cliff T became the first person to enter twice and have both of his entries eliminated after the 2nd Round. Darryn B (BIG LUTHER), in his second pool, took home the first place prize of $280, our 9th different pool champion. John S (MR. WIZARD) and Quang P (KRIMSONGUARD) took home 2nd and 3rd, respectively, their first-ever wins, and the 23rd and 24th different people to win money. Catrina B (BLUEBERRY) had a record-setting perfect first day (16-0) but eventually lost her last 14 games and 26 of the last 31 games to finish in 62nd place. John B (BLOOMERS123) also went 16-0 on the first day but finished 27th. Twelve teams were picked to win it all but the overwhelming choices were Kentucky (32 entries) and Arizona (13) but neither team made it to the Final Four. For the first time since the pool started, 3 #1 seeds lost in the Elite 8, and for the second time, no #1 seed is in the Final. With that disaster Elite 8 round, a record 26 entries went 0-for-the-Final Four, matching the previous eight-year combined total of 26 (in 292 entries). No one had more than 2 Final Four teams correctly picked. Robinson C (TEAM SAMURAI, 63rd, 72) became the 13th entry to not get more than half the games correct. Fern B (GALAXY, 5th, 117) missed money by one point and became just the 2nd entry to get the correct champion (Syracuse) and lose to someone who didn't pick the champion (in years where the correct champion was picked). To add insult to injury, Fern also picked the tiebreaker correctly (which means with one extra point he would have won 4th), just the third person to do so.

In 2004, our 10th anniversary, the pool bounced back and 79 entries were received from 70 people (7 dual entries, 1 3-entries), including a record 54 return entries. Once again, none of the 8 people who entered multiple entries won money (maybe the Bonus Prize- stay tuned). Six different people led after each of the first four days before Bing F (BINGO) took over after Rounds 3 and 4. However, after Round 5, Jeff H (RANDOM PICKS) took the lead pushing Bing F to no higher than 3rd. For the first-time ever, the pool champion was not crowned after Round 5 and we will have to wait til after Monday's game to find out who our Pool champion is. It will be a 10th different person. Jeff H will add to his winnings

($280 or $570) while Rick F (FABIO) and Darius B (OMG) will win for the first time, our 25th and 26th people to win money. Either Bing F or Dave F (THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA) will win money for the 3rd time. Twenty-one entries still have a chance for the Bonus Prize. Fourteen different teams were picked to win it all, but 2 of the top 3 didn't make it to the Sweet 16 (Stanford (21) and Kentucky (12)). Duke (16) lost in the Semis but UConn (11) is still alive. Despite only one #1 seed making the Final Four, 17 entries got 3 of the 4 teams correct. Three entries got less than 32 games correct (16 overall). Twelve went 0-for-the-Final-Four (64 overall). So who will be our new pool champion? Who will win the Bonus Prize? Find out on Monday!

Okafor, Gordon power Huskies to national title

SAN ANTONIO -- Best at the beginning, even better at the end, the Connecticut Huskies closed out the season by easily winning the title they expected all along.

Led by 24 points from Emeka Okafor and 21 from Ben Gordon, UConn outclassed Georgia Tech 82-73 on Monday night for the national championship.

Connecticut became the first team since the 1996 Kentucky Wildcats to win the title after being ranked first in the preseason. The Huskies wound up on top of the college basketball world, thanks to the tall, quick, deep and talented roster assembled by coach Jim Calhoun.

"Going wire-to-wire is one of the hardest things you can do, and it wasn't just the beginning of the year for us," he said. "This wire-to-wire went September to April, and that's as hard as it gets."

The Huskies looked like champions from start to finish in the title game, running when they wanted, controlling the middle at other times, grabbing just about every loose ball and making the Yellow Jackets look ordinary.

"You can't win with one player," forward Rashad Anderson said. "That's what everyone overlooks. If you shut down Emeka and Ben, somebody else is going to beat you."

On Tuesday, tiny Storrs, Conn. -- the home of the Huskies -- could become the undisputed capital of the basketball universe. The women's team takes on Tennessee in the title game in New Orleans, and with a win, Connecticut would become the first school to sweep both championships in the same year.

Whatever happens there, this was a job well done by Calhoun.

The 32-year coaching veteran missed making the Basketball Hall of Fame by one vote this week. But after the way he built and guided this team, it's hard to imagine why. He coached UConn to its second championship in six seasons, and joined Mike Krzyzewski and Bob Knight as the only active coaches with multiple titles.

Some say the Huskies' success starts with Okafor, the Final Four's most outstanding player. He grabbed 15 rebounds to record the 24th double-double of a season that was marked by persistent injuries. Prowling the lane on both ends, using his lanky 6-foot-10 frame to block two shots and alter dozens more, he dominated on offense and negated Tech's Aussie center, Luke Schenscher.

Okafor's mother and father -- who grew up in Nigeria and found success in America -- were in the stands watching.

"I knew he'd be good, but not this good," said his dad, Pius.

Early in the second half, Okafor kept his hands straight up and denied three straight Tech attempts to get the ball close to the basket. Yellow Jackets coach Paul Hewitt simply buried his head in his hands and turned around toward the crowd. He couldn't believe there wasn't a foul -- or maybe he just couldn't stomach what was happening.

By that point, the lead had grown to 20, and although a furious Tech rally cut the deficit to seven in the final seconds, the outcome was never in doubt.

"We were going to fight until the last buzzer," Tech guard Marvin Lewis said. "All we can do is keep our heads up because we fought as hard as we could."

But UConn proved to be too powerful, too multidimensional.

Gordon, a junior who led the team in scoring this season, hit all three of his 3-pointers during the first 20 minutes to help the Huskies take a 15-point lead at halftime. His backcourt mate, Taliek Brown, bounced back from a rough game in UConn's semifinal win over Duke to finish with nine points, six rebounds and four assists.

Josh Boone, Rashad Anderson, Charlie Villanueva ... the list goes on and on. No fewer than 10 UConn players made significant contributions in this one.

Anderson celebrated at the end of the game by running around the court with the game ball, laughing and holding his index finger in the air as Okafor chased him. They eventually hugged -- a fond farewell for Okafor, a junior who earned his degree in three years and will almost surely leave for the NBA.

Anderson and Okafor hooked up beautifully just before halftime, when Okafor snatched a missed free throw, turned and, while still airborne, threw to Anderson, who dribbled to the top of the key and swished a shot at the buzzer. The Huskies pulled it off in five seconds, and looked as if they were the only ones on the floor, instead of playing against five Yellow Jackets.

Tech got nine points and 11 rebounds from Schenscher. Will Bynum led the Jackets with 17 and B.J. Elder scored 14, but they simply couldn't shoot on this night. That they shot just 38 percent from the field was understandable, given they were going against Okafor and a lineup that included two more 6-10 guys.

But 12-for-21 from the line? That was a killer, and it allowed the Huskies to push the lead to double digits much more easily than they might have.

"You know, it happens like that some nights," Hewitt said.

Losing always hurts, but it was hard to deem this season a failure for Tech.

The team from the campus in downtown Atlanta was picked to finish seventh this season in the nine-team Atlantic Coast Conference, but instead made it to its first Final Four since 1990 and its first title game.

"We may not have one name that people can latch on to, so we're somewhat nondescript," Hewitt said. "But this has been an excellent basketball team the whole season."

The first inkling that this could be a big year for Tech came in November, in the preseason NIT, when the Jackets dismantled UConn 77-61 to knock the Huskies out of the top spot in the poll.

Okafor's back was hurting then. The UConn team that showed up for the final barely resembled the one from last fall.

"The difference between this game and the preseason NIT was that this was the national championship game," Gordon said, "plain and simple."

Issue # 19.6.2 "A Yawner- UConn Dominates..."

UConn BECOMES 2ND STRAIGHT BIG EAST TEAM TO WIN TITLE

Fabio rests easy and wins pool title; Buckeye Mike takes Bonus

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- #2W-Connecticut jumped to an early 32-18 lead en route to dismantling #3MW-Georgia Tech, 82-73. Sloppy play and poor free throw shooting by the Yellow Jackets only helped a subpar UConn build a 25-point lead (60-35) in the 2nd half. Curiously, Georgia Tech tried to get back into the game without fouling a poor free throw shooting UConn team- and came sort of close, getting within eight, 78-70 in the final minute. But too little, too late. UConn wins its 2nd title in six years and follows Big East comrade Syracuse, who won last year.

UConn's win was picked by 11 entries and enabled FABIO (1st, 137 pts) to win the pool in his third try, overtaking RANDOM PICKS (128) who fell from 1st to 4th place. OMG moved from 4th to 2nd and THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA took 3rd over BINGO (6th, 124), who entered the Final Four weekend with 7 of 8 winning possibilities. RANDOM PICKS is only the 3rd entry ever to win a top prize without picking the correct champion (he had Duke) when others have picked the champion (i.e., the other 8 lost out), and he did so by only one point over SHRINER, who had UConn. Looking over SHRINER's picks, he had both Arizona and Washington winning their 1st round games--- had he got just one of those correct, he'd be $80 richer. Odd Stat of the Day: GEORGIA BOI (50th, 98) had only one correct in the 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th rounds (UConn)- only the third time that has happened (CARSERONI and JAYBIAN IV in 2000 with Michigan St.)

The first half was frantic but the second half started very sloppily and slowly, with the 100-point mark barely hitting halfway through the 2nd half. But the points picked up (Tech started hitting three's) and the final total of 155 passed nine entries and landed in the range for BUCKEYE MIKE (44th, 100), who won the Bonus Prize (ACC with 14 wins), his first win in nine years. An amazing five entries picked 155. In the previous eight years (no tiebreaker in 1995), only 3 entries have ever correctly guessed the tiebreaker total. Congrats to all who won and thanks to all who played.

The entry Okafor's Armada finished 9th...

Issue # 20.6.3 "A New Decade Awaits..."

PRESEASON FAVORITE WINS TITLE WITH HEALTHY OKAFOR Tourney and our tenth pool had some zany moments

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- UConn coach Jim Boenheim waited 27 years for his first championship, picked up his 2nd in six years. He did miss getting voted into the Hall of Fame on Monday, so he still has something to look forward to. UConn avenged their first loss of the season to Georgia Tech in the NIT that showed the cracks in the Huskies' armour. Despite the six losses, a playing Emeka Okafor energized a UConn team that won their last 9 games. Tech squeaked by in their five tournament wins but dug themselves too big a hole vs UConn to come back from.

And, now, final thoughts on a subpar tournament....

NUMBER ONE?: Two of the 4 top seeds not only lost, they went down in flames comparable to an expansion franchise choking under pressure. Stanford blew a 13-pt lead and Duke blew a 8-pt lead with less than 3 minutes left.

HOME COURT DISADVANTAGE: A roaring crowd didn't seem to help the lower seed this year. #11W-Air Force lost in Denver, #6E-Wisconsin lost in Milwaukee, #2MW-Gonzaga lost in Seattle, #4MW-Kansas lost in St. Louis, #1E-St. Joe's lost nearby in East Rutherford, and a pro-#2E-Oklahoma St. crowd lost in San Antonio.

WHERE'S THE HIGHLIGHT?: Georgia Tech's Will Bynum's layup with 1.5 seconds left was close, but John Lucas's despartion heave (that missed) was the buzzer beater shot. With that and St. Joseph's missed game-tying jumper vs OK St., that made 14 attempted buzzer beaters with zero successes. Well, there's always next year.

NO HIGHLIGHT, BUT GREAT GAMES: Best game of the tourney was probably St. Joe's and Oklahoma St. A tight game til the end, capped by John Lucas' 3-pt with 6.9 seconds left. Best comeback, and there were a lot to choose from, was probably Vandy's 11-pt comeback with just 3:44 left.

BEST STRATEGY: Down by six with 3 minutes left, Washington started to foul UAB early. But instead of trying for 3-pointers, they just took the ball downcourt and drove for easy layups (remember Tyus Edney's run? Washington used a bunch of plays just like that) in 5-10 second intervals. The plan went awry when Will Conroy's layup attempt was blocked with 17 seconds left (and would've put them down by just one). UAB shot 14 free throws in the final minute (making 9). It almost worked to perfection.

THE NEW CINCY: #1W-Stanford has now missed the Sweet Sixteen five of the past six years (despite 3 #1 and 1 #2 seedings). #4S-Cincy missed the Sweet Sixteen for the 7th time in the past 8 years (despite a #1, 2 #2, and 2 #3 seedings). #12S-Murray St. has lost all six first round games since 1995 (yes, they've been ranked from #9-15), but no miracle yet.

THE ANTI-CINCY: #1S-Duke made the Sweet Sixteen for the 7th straight year while Kentucky and Kansas have won their first-round game every year since the pool started in 1995.

ZIG ZAG: Gonzaga is now 2-3 and no Sweet Sixteens when ranked #9 or higher and 7-3 and three Sweet Sixteens when ranked #10 or lower (since 1999).

BEST HAIR: Josh Childress, Stanford (who happens to be related to DEESKEE, and probably explains her 52nd place finish). And now I think I understand AFROS ARE AWESOME (77th, 74 pts) now that I see he picked Stanford to win it all.

And, now final thoughts on a competitive pool....

CONGRATS: Rick ($370), Darius ($180), David ($120), Jeff ($80), and Mike ($40).

BONUS MADNESS: 21 entries still had a chance going into the final game to pick up the $40 prize.

PLAY-IN COMPLICATION: #65-Florida A&M, who won the opening game, and technically labeled "PLAY-IN" in our pool bracket, played #1-Kentucky even in the first half, trailing just 60-52 at the half.

#1 SEED MASSACRE: With Stanford and Kentucky out in the 2nd round and St. Joe's gone in the Regional final, 17 entries still got 3 out of 4 Final Four teams correct. And for the first time, more than one entry (11 picked UConn) correctly picked a non-#1 seed to win the championship.

TURNAROUND'S FAIR PLAY: Rick F won the pool after finishing 57th (of 63) last year. Jeff seems to alternate- finishing 2nd two years ago and then 55th last year before winning 4th this year.

DOUBLE OR NOTHING... NOTHING: The seven people who entered twice (and one who entered 3 times) all came away with nada, including our top two winners from last year (Darryn B and John S).

Save 20 cents a week for the next 50 weeks...

As we head into our 10th Annual HWCI NCAA Pool, here's a look at all the stats that are fit to print (Updates in progress.... still showing from 2002). Sometimes we learn best from history, but I doubt if there's anything useful here (if there is, let me know!) besides harmless fun. Find out how well you are doing against the other entries. Cheers!

#On May 8, 1997, the NCAA Executive Committee voted to negate the Minutemen's 1996 NCAA Tournament record, for Marcus Camby's acceptance of agents' improper gifts. The 35-2 record was reduced to 31-1, and the UMass slot in the Final Four is officially marked as "vacated." The Final Four trophy, banner and 45% of tournament revenue were returned to the NCAA. Camby reimbursed the school for the $151,617 in lost revenue.
