The Rules

[The Rules | How to Enter | Standings | Links | For the Record | Scott's Latest Update]

Who's eligible to join the pool?

HWCI members, friends, and family.

What are the requirements?

The only requirements are that the $10 entry fee is paid before the 2nd round games have begun, and that the pertinent entry information is received before the start of the tournament. The pertinent entry information would include:

- Real name
- Preferred nickname (I am the Mighty Mobelfakta, so that name's taken already).
- Prediction for the total combined score of the championship game (for tie-breaking purposes).
- Predicted winners of all 63 tournament games.

Our Web Entry form is the most convenient way to get that info to us. See the section How to Enter.

How are the points scored?

2 points for each 1st round win
3 points for each 2nd round win
4 points for each 3rd round win
6 points for each 4th round win
8 points for each 5th round win
12 points for correctly picking the NCAA Champion

There is no weighting for "upsets".

How is the prize money distributed?

In 2002 with 80 entries, there was a first, second, third, and fourth place prize. The $800.00 pot was split as follows: 1st-$400.00, 2nd-$200.00, 3rd-$130.00, and 4th-$70.00. This year the money will be split with roughly the same proportions going to the winners.

If there are enough entries into the pool this year, there will be additional "wild card" prizes (such as correctly picking the lowest seeded team to reach the 2nd or 3rd round, best conference win total, etc.). This will be finalized once we get all the entries in.

What if there's a tie?

The participant whose prediction comes closest (higher or lower) for the final combined score of the championship game will win the tie-breaker. If there is STILL a tie, the money will be split. For instance, if there is a tie for first place, the winners will split the combined prize money for first and second place. FYI, in eight years of running this pool, there has only been one tie for prize money.

Can I enter more than once?

You certainly can. Statistically, your chances of winning would double. So far of the 15 people (32 entries) who have tried their luck with multiple entries, three have taken home prize money.

How To Enter

[The Rules | How to Enter | Standings | Links | For the Record | Scott's Latest Update]

1. The most convenient method of entry for those with internet access would be the web entry form which can be accessed here. Otherwise, get thee a copy of the NCAA Men's Tournament Bracket. The most convenient place to get one would be the sports section of your local newspaper. You can also get the brackets at various sports related web sites (ESPN, FinalFour.net, CBS Sportsline, etc.). If you are planning to enter online via this web site, skip to step 6 below.

2. Fill out the brackets completely using all the college basketball wisdom you can conjure up.

3. Make a prediction for the total combined score for the championship game. For instance, if you think the final score will be 82-76, your prediction would be 158.

4. Create a nickname for yourself. This is important, because if you don't give us one, we'll make one up for you. Historically, these assigned nicknames have not been flattering.

5. Send all that precious information this-away before the first game on Thursday, March 17. Obviously, the fastest way to get the info here is via the web entry form or by e-mail (ncaa\(at\)hwci.com). If sending your picks by e-mail, the most efficient way of completing this tedious task is to format your picks as follows:

Nickname:
Final game total score:
NCAA Champion:
Runner-up:
Final Four losers (round 5):
Round 4 losers (4 teams):
Round 3 losers (8 teams):
Round 2 losers (16 teams):

6. And finally, you must arrange to have your entry fee of $10 sent to us. There are three basic methods for payment:

1. Personally hand the $10 fee to an HWCI member by March 18
2. By check sent by snail mail (mailed and postmarked by March 17, the first day of the tournament). Please e-mail us at ncaa\(at\)hwci.com to get the address to which mail the checks.

Important exception: If you have an HWCI member who can vouch for you and front your money, this is not a hard deadline.

Remember, if you have any questions, address them to ncaa\(at\)hwci.com.

NEWCOMERS 'NOVA AND MEMPHIS JOIN OLD STANDBYS DUKE AND UCONN AS #1 SEEDS

Hard drive crash causes delay of full functionality of website

SAN FRANCISCO/CERRITOS, CA (smt)- I know I was gone the whole weekend (and most of the year), but who is Memphis? And how did UCLA get a two seed and get to play another team nicknamed the Bruins? Bruins squared? The Missouri Valley Conference, whose tournament was going on when I was in St. Louis last weekend ("Arch" Madness.. heh... and BTW, avoid the drunk female Saluki fans in the bar at Union Station) gets four teams while Conference USA with #1 Memphis gets just two? I guess we know which conference will get the most wins as the Big East got a record 8 teams (of 16) in the tourney, but how many will that be? And we'll get to see powerhouses Michigan, Florida St., and Maryland... in the NIT? And easy picks to lose in the 1st/2nd round no matter how high a seed, Stanford and Cincy, are out of the tourney as well. But we still have Florida and Gonzaga :-). Let the madness begin.

Villanova (MW), whose only notoriety was upsetting Georgetown in the final in '85, and Memphis (W) (who are they again?) get their first-ever #1 seeds while Duke (S), who gets their record 10th #1 seeding and 3rd straight, and UConn (E), getting their 8th #1 or #2 seed in the past 12 years, took the other two top seeds. Duke is 1A (best overall). Arizona extends their consecutive tourney streak to 21 and is one of three teams (Kansas and Kentucky, with 17 and 14 straight, respectively) to be in all 12 HWCI NCAA tournaments pools (Stanford and Cincy did not make it this year, ending their streaks at 11).

For us local SoCal people, we again have UCLA to root for and San Diego St. We have great pods (teams very close to host cities) for Duke, Villanova, Texas (#2S), Ohio St. (#2MW), UCLA (#2W), and Florida (#3MW). For simplicity, I'm using the traditional region names (West, Midwest, South, East) but our entry bracket will have the "official" regional names (Minneapolis (MW), Oakland (W), Atlanta (S), and Washington DC (E)).

And we apoligize for getting this site up and running 18 hours late. The hard drive our HWCI server is on decided to sleep... forever. David reconstructed backups from backups and I captured as much data to restore the site. Thanks for your patience.

Alas, it's time to take out your frustrations on the 8 1/2 by 11 sheet of paper holding the your key to hundreds of dollars. If you've been with us since the beginning, that's $110 down the drain. Or about 40 gallons of gas. So what do you say? Deal... or no deal?

MONMOUTH WINS THE PLAY-IN MATCH AND WILL LOSE TO VILLANOVA ON FRIDAY

Despite hard drive crash, record 21 enter on Tuesday; Deadline is 9 AM PST

LONG BEACH/CERRITOS, CA (smt)- #64-Monmouth easily took care of #65-Hampton to enter the "real" portion of the tournament with only embarrassment to look forward to as they'll face #1E-Villanova. Or will they? They are only a 19-20 point underdog and we will have to see if 'Nova's Allan Ray has recovered from his eye injury.

With UCLA getting a #2 seed, it's going to make it more difficult for those Bruin fans to pick their bracket and keep their loyalties. Solution? Enter twice. Result? Lose twice. But it's for the fun of it, right? And most of us should know about Ken B and his Florida allegiance but will the Gators once again choke...er, I mean, fail to reach the Sweet 16. And how many people are still looking the the 'Zags from 1999-2001 and putting them far in their bracket? And who will prove people wrong? The Big East with 8 teams sans Cincy or the Missouri Valley Conference with a generous four? Tipoff is less than 24 hours away.

Just watched the CBS Selection Show (yeah, I'm a little behind) and my ears are still ringing from Jim Nance and Billy Packard's drilling of the Selection Committee chairman and then ignoring he was there as they chatted with each other.

Jim: "In 1955 and 1956, San Francisco won back-to-back NCAA championships... why aren't they in the tourney but Washington, who has never won it, is in?"

Outmatched Chairman: "But SF finished 11-17 and..."

Billy: "Shouldn't past history count, hey Jim, want to get a taco and get away from this bozo?"

Chairman: "I'm still here"

Jim: "What an idiot, what about Greek?"

Chairman: "Hello?"

With no one able to enter for the first 20 hours or so, we had a record 21 entries on Tuesday, pushing our total to 30 (subject to verification & payment).

Enter online at <http://www.HWCI.com/ncaa/2006/entry.html>. You can also fax your entry to me at (720) 368-0816 or email us for a snail mail address (postmarked by Thurs AM). Issue # 3.1.1 "Double Digit Dominance"

Home] [Updates]

10+ SEEDS SHOCK, SCARE, AND HUMBLE THEIR POWERFUL OPPONENTS

In Your Huckleberry and Gators Never Choke Jump to Early Lead

GOLETA/SANTA BARBARA, CA (smt)- #15E-Winthrop (vs. #2E-Tenn), #14W-Xavier (vs. #3W-Gonzaga), #13MW-Pacific (vs. #4MW-BC), and #11W-San Diego St. (vs. #6W-Indiana) nearly pulled off incredible upsets and proved that no team can be taken for granted. All four teams had leads late in the game but couldn't hold on. But four double-digit seeded teams did, as #11MW-Wisc-Milw, #10W-Alabama, #12MW-Montana, and #12S-Texas A&M advanced with the latter sending a resurgent #5S-Syracuse and Gerry McNamara (just 2 pts) home.

#7E-Wichita St, #3MW-Florida (!), #2W-UCLA (Go Bruins!), #4S-LSU, and #5E-Washington rolled to victories while #1S-Duke and #4E-Illinois struggled before pulling away. #8S-George Washington went on a 19-0 run in just 4:14 to rally from an 18-point 2nd half deficit and eventually won in OT. This game and the BC-Pacific (double OT; poor FT shooting BC hitting clutch freebies down the stretch), Zags-Xavier (Adam Morrison 35 pts; Xavier blowing late 6-pt lead) and Winthrop-Tenn (Winthrop actually led 61-60) games were the best of the bunch. Even the 70 minute delay (due to a bomb scare in San Diego) couldn't stop the Bruins (the UCLA variety) from getting the biggest rout of the day. The Big East conference is starting to fall like dominos as Seton Hall, Syracuse, and Marquette lost while the SEC went 4-0.

Unofficially, a record 85 entries were received (3 more than last year) and will result in the biggest 1st Place prize ever. More details once we receive payments (or promise thereof). If you have never participated in our pool before, there is a Bonus Prize for getting the Conference with the most wins (and getting the wins correct). That is why, if you look at your printed bracket, there is a line that says which conference (likely the Big East) and number of wins you chose based on your picks. Clever, eh? No one won last year so the $40 got redistributed back into the top prizes. More details later. I promise. Thereof.

Luckily, BC, Tenn, and Gonzaga survived and everyone's bracket remains in good shape... well, except for ANGRY HAWAIIAN (last, 18 pts) who had #10E-Seton Hall in the Final. IMYOURHUCKLEBERRY and GATORS NEVER CHOKE went 14-2 (28 pts) to tie for the lead. But 59 others are within 6 pts.

Just 7 picked Montana's upset and an amazing 6 almost picked Tenn's loss. The split decision was Seton Hall-Wichita St with 43 getting it right. Duke and UCLA were unanimous decisions. GATORS, BUCKEYE (15th-Tied, 24 pts) and BIX PIX (15th-T, 24) got 3 of the 4 upsets correct. Everyone has at least 7 of their 8 Elite 8 teams intact and just three (aforementioned ANGRY with FABIO (62nd-T, 20) with Marquette and KEEP CHIEF ILLINIWEK (15th-T, 24) with Syracuse) have lost one Final 4 team.

Twelve teams were picked to win it all with #1E-UConn (39) and Duke (19) leading the way. UCLA received 9 mentions with #1MW-Villanova and #3W-UNC picked by 4 each. Thirty-three (33) picked a Duke-UConn final. Besides ANGRY's Seton Hall finalist, other odd picks include three that have #3S-Iowa in the Final, three that have #4S-LSU in the Final Four, four that picked BC in the Final (must've put a scare in them today), and single picks for #7S-Cal, #8MW-Arizona (actually 2 people), #7MW-Georgetown, and #7W-Marquette (oops!).

Sixteen more games tomorrow, hopefully I'll get to see some of them.

Whew!...

10+ SEEDS CONTINUE TO REAK HAVOC AS UCONN SURVIVES

Poolraider in sole position of first but most picks are intact

GOLETA/CERRITOS, CA (smt)- This is why you have to watch the games for the most enjoyment. 72-59. Looking at the score, it looks like #1E-UConn won handily. It does not say anything about the double-digit turnovers the Huskies committed and selfish play in allowing #16E-Albany to build a 12-point lead with 11 1/2 minutes left in the game. A 16 seed! Not against #1 Memphis or Villanova, but UConn. The score does not say anything about UConn's rapid 28-5 run to dash any hope of the ultimate upset. I'm glad to be finally watching games live. But it is very stressful though. But I have work to relieve the stress.

In other action, #14S-NW State stunned #3S-Iowa on a last second desperation 3 pointer (and would've been the game-tying shot if Iowa had hit their last free throw that set up the scenario) and #13E-Bradley was in control most of the game and held on to beat #4E-Kansas, who is turning back to the "old" Kansas, the chokers - their 2nd straight 1st round loss. I guess since Cincy didn't make the tourney, Kansas took the choker role again.

#2MW-Ohio St, #8MW-Arizona, #6S-West Virginia, #1W-Memphis, and #5W-Pitt rolled to easy victories while #1MW-Villanova and #2S-Texas struggled in low-scoring games to advance. #11E-George Mason, #9W-Bucknell, and #10S-NC State pulled off upsets while #10MW-Northern Iowa (vs. #7MW-Georgetown), #14W-Murray St. (vs. #3W-UNC), and #9E-UAB (vs. #8E-Kentucky) just fell short in their efforts.

The Big East dominated going 5-0 after going 0-3 yesterday. The ACC is 4-0 and the SEC is 5-1. Kentucky won their 16th straight 1st round match to become Mr. Dependable. #16 seeds might be 0-88 in the tournament but all four played their #1 counterparts even for at least the 1st half.

In the pool, where money talks, POOLRAIDER is all alone in 1st with 50 pts but 32 others are within four points. The last time the 1st round leader won the pool was in 2000 (Sam N's MORALES' MOUNDS) so it's not a good indicator. BRUINS4LIFE (50th-Tied, 42 pts), DTERP (2nd-T, 48), MR. WONDERFUL FC! (14th-T, 46), and SARGE (14th-T, 46) all went 13-3 today while VENDETTALESS tied a record low with a 7-9 record and is tied for last with ANGRY HAWAIIAN and KANAKAKIDZ with 34 pts. DTERP moved from a tie for 42nd to a tie for 2nd in one day. Just 5 picked George Mason, 4 picked NW St. and only three (BAMAG (14th-T, 46), POOLRAIDER, and MR. WONDERFUL FC!) picked Bradley.

Three entries are in deep trouble (THE RAT PACK (14th-T, 46), KEEP CHIEF ILLINIWEK (14th-T, 46), and G-DOGG (76th-T, 38)) as they only have 2 of 4 Final 4 teams alive. But 78 of the 85 entries have at least 6 of their Elite 8 teams so there are a lot of points to be picked up. BASKETBALL JONES (2nd-T, 48) is the only entry to have all 16 Sweet 16 teams alive. Only BOROTH CHAY (14th-T, 46) has lost his/her champion (Iowa). Both of Scott T's and his dad's entries are tied for 2nd (THE FABONOUS DOZEN, RACEAROUNDTHEWORLD and BELUCKY2ME and BELUCKY1), at least for the time being.

More info on the pool and prize money distribution on Monday or Tuesday or whenever I get some sleep.

Anyone watching the World Baseball Classic?...

Issue # 5.2.1 "Sweet 16: We've Missed You"

Home] [Updates]

SIX TEAMS MAKE FIRST SWEET 16 APPEARANCE IN AT LEAST FOUR YEARS

Poolraider holds onto lead while Keep Chief Illiniwek is decimated

LOS ANGELES/CERRITOS, CA (smt)- While #1S-Duke (9 straight) and #5E-Washington (2 straight) once again reached the Sweet 16, six teams made their first appearance in the Sweet 16 in at least four years led by #7S-Wichita St.'s first S16 in 25 years. #2W-UCLA (last S16 in 2002), #3W-Gonzaga (2001), #4S-LSU (2000), #3MW-Florida (2000), and #4MW-Boston College (1994) will try and reacquaint themselves to a rare second weekend of action.

Gonzaga and Florida buried some demons by avoiding the 1st/2nd round upsets of the past four years with the latter rolling to an easy victory (as did Duke & BC). #4E-Illinois blew a late 11-point lead while UCLA, Gonzaga, and LSU nearly blew comfortable late leads as well. #2S-Tennessee, a questionable 2-seed, ran out of luck, falling to Wichita St. after nearly getting upset by #15S-Winthrop on Thursday.

Big FT disparities helped Wichita St (23 made v Tenn's 9), Washington (28 made v Ill's 9), and Gonzaga (32 made v 2 for Indiana) and nearly helped #10W-Alabama (19 v 5) upset UCLA, who late in the game missed 6 straight free throws, a big no-no in tournament play. Indiana finally got to run coach Mike Davis out of town thanks to Gonzaga proving they are not a one-man team. And what's with the big setup at the end of the game just to take a very long 3-point shot? Can't you do that normally without calling a timeout to do that? It failed miserably with Illinois' Dee Brown (for the tie) but LSU's Darrel Mitchell amazingly converted for the win.

POOLRAIDER kept the top spot with 71 pts with BASKETBALL JONES (69) and BLUESTARS1996 (67) close behind. Eight are tied for 4th with 66 pts. Ten went 7-1 while DTERP (51) tied a record low with a 1-7 record. DTERP went from a tie for 2nd to a tie for 77th!! That's a drop of 75 places in one day! Unheard of. On the flip side, FRANK GRIMES and BOMBARDMENTBOMBARMNT moved from a tie for 65th to a tie for 33rd (61).

ANGRY HAWAIIAN regained sole possession of last place (43), which is probably not what she wanted.

Just 8 picked Wichita St. while 20 picked Washington. SAMURAI JACK (26th-T, 62) was the only one to pick both the Shockers and Huskies. Interestingly, though, he only got 6 of 8 correct (missing Oklahoma & SD St., both eliminated in the 1st round). Almost everyone picked Duke (84 of 85, SOURCE (61st-T, 56) being the rebel) and UCLA (80).

Sixty-one entries still have all four Final 4 teams alive while KEEP CHIEF ILLINIWEK (33rd-Tied, 61) lost 3 of 4 teams including both finalists (Illinois, Kansas, Syracuse). Eighteen still have all Elite 8 teams alive and 83 still have their champion.

After tomorrow's games, we will know which entries will be officially eliminated from money (not including the Bonus). And on Monday, things will become official with the prize money distribution (total pot is $850) soon to follow. Also, the explanation of the Bonus Prize (dealing with conference wins) will be fully explained (again), which will especially be of interest to those who are eliminated (since only eliminated entries are eligible).

They killed Edgar on '24'? How dare they! (yes, I'm behind)...

DEFENDING CHAMP AND BIG 10 REPS ARE OUT

Sixty-five entries are still alive as Basketball Jones moves into first CERRITOS, CA (smt)- We had the battle of the Bruins in the first round, won by UCLA (v Belmont). There were three Wildcats (#8E-Kentucky, #8MW-Arizona, #1MW-Villanova) playing today but only Villanova came out victorious, beating fellow namesake Arizona. Kentucky battled hard but its rally from 15 down fell short to #1E-UConn, in the first-ever meeting between these two powerhouses in the tournament. And in the third round, we'll have the battle of the Huskies, as UConn will take on #5E-Washington.

#11E-George Mason upset their second straight '05 Final Four team beating defending champ #3E-North Carolina. #13W-Bradley outplayed #5W-Pitt through most of the game as did #7MW-Georgetown against #2W-Ohio St. #1W-Memphis, #6E-West Virginia, and #2S-Texas cruised to easy victories. Ohio St.'s loss left the Big 10 with no S16 teams, the first time since 1996 (this is important to know for the Bonus Prize).

Why beat up on a team you're supposed to beat early? Cause when you struggle, you have a cushion. UNC had just a 7-point lead at halftime so when they started the second half with 7 straight turnovers, they had trouble bouncing back. In contrast to West Virginia, who had an 25-point lead early in the second half, and then went FG-less for 12:44 but still had an 8-point lead and managed to hold off #14E-NW State.

THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA went 6-2 to go from a tie for 26th place to a tie for 6th place (80 pts). He was one of 4 to go 12-4 for the 2nd Round. BASKETBALL JONES was one of them and she now leads with 84 pts. SHRINER (6th-Tied, 80 pts) and JINX (11th-T, 78) were the others to position themselves in the fight for a money spot.

No one picked Bradley or George Mason but 19 picked WV and 15 Georgetown. However, only 3 picked the both (THE MM, WAYWARD (33rd-T, 73), and KILLER (66th-T, 66 (yipes), what a numerical combination!))). ANGRY HAWAIIAN had a really bad day (not that the previous 2 days were any good to her) as she could've picked up some valuable points but saw Bucknell, Kentucky (only one to pick them over UConn), and Pitt lose. She did, however, get Georgetown correct to salvage the end of the day. But she's still last (49). DTERP (80th, 60) had a bad round, losing 8 of 12 active S16 teams and finishing 4-12. And PAC10ATTACK (62nd-T, 67) only has 2 Elite 8 teams remaining.

We now know who is eliminated. Twenty entries have no chance of the finishing in the top 4 spots but 38 still have a chance for 1st place. KEEP CHIEF ILLINIWEK (33rd-T, 73) is the highest entry to be eliminated while THE FABONOUS DOZEN (boo!) and KRISPY KREMER (both 11th-T, 78) are the highest entries with no chance at 1st place. On the flip side, VENDETTALESS and KANAKAKIDZ (both 81st-T, 58) actually still have a chance to win it all. Really. A very slim chance, but a chance nonetheless (see THE FABONOUS DOZEN and KRISPY KREMER).

BBALL JONES has the best chance for 1st (17.5%) and money (34.6%). BIX PIX (8th-T, 79) is the only other entry with a >10% chance (11.5%) of winning it all. Four others have a >20% chance of winning money. Out of 32,768 possible outcomes, SUZNANA (58th-T, 68) has two possibilities of claiming 1st place and BOROTH CHAY and THE RAT PACK have just four chances to win any money (0.01%).

The prize money breakdown and Bonus Prize details will be revealed next week on the forum and then later that day in the email update.

Bruins, Wildcats, Huskies, where are all the birds?...

Issue # 7.2.3 "Bonus Madness"

Home] [Updates]

ATTENTION LOSERS! BONUS PRIZE AWAITS YOU

Big East nearly certain to get most wins; leads with 9

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- When you completed your online entry and saw your picks (to print out), some of you might have been wondering what the heck "Winningest Conference(s): ?? / Wins: #" meant. And thus, subliminally, you were also picking which conference would get the most wins in the tournament and how many wins that conference would get via your direct picks. Neat, eh? So that output, which in my case, says "Winningest Conference(s): Big East / Wins: 13", means that by the way I picked my bracket, the Big East conference will get the most wins at 13. This is the fourth year we have used this Bonus to give hope to those who get eliminated early as only those who do not finish in the top 4 will be eligible to win.

The rules of how to win this Bonus Prize is as follows:

1. The top 4 finishers not eligible (so no double-dipping)
2. Ties broken by championship final score total
3. If there is still a tie, money is split
4. If 2 (or more) conferences tie for the most wins, both (or all) conferences must have been picked correctly
5. If entry has 2 or more conferences tied for most wins, only one must be correct to win (e. g. entry picks Pac 10 and Big 12 with 11 wins a piece. Big 12 ends up winning the most games with 11, then contestant wins)

And, the Bonus Prize is worth $40, which is four years worth of losing brackets. Last year, both the ACC and Big 10 conferences won the most games with 12 but no one picked that combination via their picks. What happens? If no one correctly picks the winningest conference and wins, then the $40 goes back into the prize pot. So, here is the official prize breakdown (in parentheses, if no one wins the Bonus Prize):

w/Bonus w/o Bonus

1st Place	= $405.00	[$415.00]
2nd Place	= $190.00	[$200.00]
3rd Place	= $130.00	[$140.00]
4th Place	= $ 85.00	[$ 95.00]
Bonus Prize	= $ 40.00

What this means is that of the 20 entries that were eliminated from the top 4 prizes, 12 are back into play! This also means, 8 entries were just awful, lousy picks (including 2003 champ BIG LUTHER).

If you don't have your bracket, then go to the "For the Record" page and pick your nickname from the drop down box. Right now, the current conferences with a chance to get the most number of wins are:

Conf.	Teams Left	Curr Wins	Max Poss Wins
Big East	4	9	19
SEC	2	7	14
ACC	2	6	13
Pac 10	2	5	12
MVC	2	4	11
x-Big 12	1	3	7
x-Col Ath	1	2	6
x-ConfUSA	1	2	6
x-WCC	1	2	6

Sixty-seven entries had the Big East and except for DL32, who had them winning 24 games, all have a chance to win with wins ranging from 11 to 19. So root for teams from the conference you picked.

Below are the teams in the conferences that matter for the Bonus Prize. No one picked the Missouri Valley Conference or the Pac 10 (PAC10ATTACK did, but with 15 wins, 3 more than is possible).

Big East	WEST VIRGINIA, UCONN, VILLANOVA, GEORGETOWN (5-3, 4-1)
SEC	LSU, FLORIDA (5-1, 2-3)
ACC	DUKE, BOSTON COLLEGE (4-0, 2-2)

So, a total of 75 of 85 entries are still alive to win this Bonus Prize. A total of 67 entries had the Big East as their winningest conference (or shared with another conference). Fourteen entries had the Big East with 14 wins.

It's much too much to go through with four rounds remaining. But, if you do have a chance, this will guide you to which team to root for based on the conference the team is in.

Here is the link to what everyone picked. If your nickname is in red, that means you're eliminated from the top 4 prizes; if your conference is in red, you're eliminated from the Bonus Prize.

FOUR BIG EAST TEAMS, FOUR #1 SEEDS, AND FOUR BIG MONEY SPOTS

Sixteen awards as excitement continues Thursday

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- While last weekend was a chance to jockey for position, the real points (66 possible) are earned this weekend in just 12 games. Just eight entries do not have a chance of the big money or the Bonus Prize. That means eight will just enjoy the games while the rest will be stressed out. Can BASKETBALL JONES hold onto the lead despite losing UNC in her Final Four? Can SUZNANA pull off the 2 in 32,768 odds and claim 1st?

The games will be interesting. Memphis will continue playing mid-major teams when they face Bradley while George Mason will get to play near home (DC) in their match vs Wichita St. All four #1 seeds are alive for the 2nd straight year but all 4 #1 seeds have never (with 64/65 teams) advanced to the Final Four. Villanova will face off against former Big East member, Boston College, who now reside in the ACC. While no surprise there are 4 Big East teams in the Sweet 16, what is the Missouri Valley Conference doing with two teams in? And the last time no Final Four team from last year is in the Sweet 16? 1988. Strange, indeed.

In random order (heh, like some picks)...

1. THE INIGO MONTOYA AWARD: Adam Morrison, Gonzaga. Don't know why, and I think his mustache was thicker a while back, but I just picture him saying "Hello, my name is Inigo Montoya. You killed my father: prepare to die."
2. THE "IT COULD HAPPEN, RIGHT?" AWARD: Jen C (aka, ANGRY HAWAIIAN). She was the only one to pick a #16 team, choosing Albany over UConn. Scary part? It almost happened.
3. THE BAD DAY FOR THE CONFERENCE AWARD: Tie... Big East on Day 1 (0-3) and the Big Ten (first time no teams in Sweet 16 since 1996).
4. THE GOOD DAY FOR THE CONFERENCE AWARD: Tie... ACC on Day 1 (4-0), the Big East on Day 2 (5-0), and the Missouri Valley Conference (2 teams in S16).
5. THE BIGGEST FALL AWARD: Delisa S (aka, DTERP). From the end of the 1st Round to the end of the 2nd Round, fell from a tie for 2nd place to 80th place.
6. THE BIGGEST RISE AWARD: John C (aka, JINX). From the end of the 1st Round to the end of the 2nd Round, rose from a tie for 50th place to a tie for 11th place.
7. THE WHEN DOES CBS TELEVISION WOMEN'S BASKETBALL AWARD: Joakim Noah, Florida. I turned on the TV and saw a woman running down the court and I thought maybe I was on ESPN for the Women's tournament. Then, I realized it was just Noah with his hair in a pony tail.
8. THE EASY ROAD AWARD: Florida. Have beaten #14 South Alabama and #11 Wisconsin-Milwaukee and will face #7 Georgetown.
9. THE YOUR POD IS MY PAD AWARD: Tie... UCLA, Florida, Villanova, and Duke. All played close to home and it helped them hold on to some tight games. Only Ohio St. failed to close out, losing to Georgetown in nearby Dayton, OH.
10. THE WHEN WILL IT BE OVER AWARD: No, not ANGRY HAWAIIAN. A tie... Brian Z's second entry, PAC10ATTACK, who only has 2 of his Elite 8 teams alive. And to Ken G (aka, G-DOGG) who lost 3 Final Four teams and has the least max points possible at 87 (currently at 65).
11. THE GIANT KILLER AWARD: George Mason. They knocked off two '05 Final Four teams (Michigan St, UNC).
12. THE WHO'S WHO AWARD: Tie... Three Wildcats, Two Bruins, Two Huskies, Georgetown / George Mason / George Washington / Washington, and Southern / Southern Illinois / Illinois.
13. THE OVERSEER AWARD: Robinson C's 3rd entry, SAMURAI JACK. He was the only to pick both Wichita St and Washington into the Sweet 16.
14. THE BAD TIME TO GLOAT AWARD: Tie... 1st to Reyshawn Terry, UNC. After UNC turned the ball over six straight possessions to start the second half, Terry broke the streak by hitting a 3-pointer and proceeded to stop in his tracks and stare as if to say "take that". Unfortunately, UNC's 7-pt lead had disappeared and UNC coach Roy Williams was there to witness it and had to literally go on the court and slap him back into the game and play defense. And to Jermaine Wallace of NW State and one of his teammates for celebrating his clutch game-winning 3-pointer vs Iowa. Problem? There was still 0.5 seconds left and play continued right after the basket but Iowa missed the shot.

15. THE THANK GOODNESS THEY'RE OUT AWARD: Iowa. Those bright yellow uniforms were awful.
16. THE PORTLAND TRAILBLAZERS AWARD: Iowa. They blew an 17-point lead with less than 9 minutes in the game vs. Northwest St.

16 teams, 12 days, 1 survivor...

LSU OUT HUSTLES, MEMPHIS ROLLS, TEXAS STUNS, AND UCLA EMBARRASSES

Just 39 entries remain as UCLA loyalists are rewarded

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- For the 5th time in 7 years, #1S-Duke fizzles in Round 3, upset yet again, this time by a bruising #4S-LSU. I guess we can dispel the refs favor Duke theory as none of the 10 clean Tiger blocks were called fouls. While Duke choked, JJ Redick was a joke. The worst stat? Not the 3 of 18 shooting. Or 0 for 9 within the arc. Nope. Zero assists. Zero. Meanwhile, #1W-Memphis continues to march on, easily dispensing of Cinderella #13W-Bradley, 80-64.

The second pair of games provided one of the most exciting finishes that I could remember. #6S-West Virginia hit two threes in the last minute to tie #2S-Texas with five seconds left. But Texas didn't call a timeout, came down the court, and Kenton Paulino hit a game-winning 3-pointer at the buzzer. At the buzzer. This was the first game-winning buzzer beater in three years. What an ending. What could top that?

I guess there's something in the Westwood water because #2W-UCLA's basketball team plays just like their football team did. Let's see... no field goals in the first 8:43 of the game, down by 17... down by 9 with 3:26 left and no time outs. Piece of cake. UCLA goes on an 11-0 run to end the game capped by Jordan Farmar's inexplicable steal of J.P. Batista and pass to Luc Richard Mbah a Moute (what a name!) put UCLA up for the first time with 10 seconds left. The Bulldogs also didn't call a timeout and ran down the court, to disastrous results as Derek Raivio lost the ball. Fan favorite (could they be the new Cubs?) #3W-Gonzaga collapsed like no other team could. The most amazing stat? Up by nine, Gonzaga didn't shoot another free throw the rest of the game. UCLA never had to foul because Gonzaga would turn the ball over.

The refs seemed to favor Gonzaga for most of the game but UCLA got the last laugh with the phantom foul by Batista with 20 seconds left... a silly and dumb foul, if it was a foul. In the last minute, Duke allowed LSU to rebound a missed LSU free throw three straight times, a pitiful display of heart. Texas outrebounded WV 43 to 15 but WV balanced that by hitting 11 more 3-pt shots (15 to 4). The top two scorers (Redick & Zag's Adam Morrison) are out. As for Memphis, yawn. Now they get a tough opponent in UCLA.

AGENT 86 OF CONTROL (9th-Tied, 88 pts) and KANAKAKIDZ (59th-T, 74) went an incredible 4-0, with the latter moving from 81st place. But it's still BASKETBALL JONES with the lead at 96 pts. Our esteemed pool co-administrator THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA continues to rise and is now all alone in second place with 92 pts. POOLRAIDER drops a spot to 3rd with 91 and can't win 1st place! Ten went 0-for-4 and DTERP (82nd, 58) will go 0-for-the-Final Four with Duke's loss. Just eight picked LSU while 51 picked UCLA. Four picked both Memphis & LSU.

Twenty-six (26) more entries bit the dust (including both of mine and my wife's) and just 18 can win 1st. BBALL JONES has a 57.2% chance of winning money and almost a 30% chance to win 1st. Three others have a better than 30% chance for money (THE MM, BAMAG (9th-T, 88), and COBI'S CRUSADERS (4th-T, 90)). Five still have all Final Four teams. VENDETTALESS sits in 79th place (66) but still has a chance to finish 3rd.

What's with the broken technology in Atlanta that they had to use horns?...

VILLANOVA, FLORIDA, AND UCONN SURVIVE WHILE GEORGE MASON BREEZES BY Cobi's Crusaders in great shape as Basketball Jones hold onto slim lead

SAN JOSE, CA (smt)- #4MW-Boston College was caught napping and #1MW-Villanova took advantage for the game-winning shot (goaltending called) with 2 seconds left to win 60-59 in overtime. It was the first OT loss in nine games for BC as they couldn't hit their free throws when it counted (8 for 17). BC continued the trend of going scoreless for extremely long periods of time (9:16) and the Wildcats continued the trend of teams winning after being down by more than 10 points (26-9). #11E-George Mason took advantage of their "home" crowd and easily put away #7E-Wichita St in the battle of Cinderellas.

#3MW-Florida outlasted #7MW-Georgetown to reach the Elite 8, outscoring the Hoyas 5-0 in the last minute to win 57-53. In the battle of the Huskies, #1E-UConn needed a last minute three by Rashad Anderson to send the game vs. #5E-Washington into overtime. UConn rallied from 11 points down (51-40) and had just one more field goal than turnovers (27 to 26). UConn's coach could not believe the horrible refereeing but UConn still shot more than twice the free throws (47 to 23) of Washington.

Boy, have the refs been bad in the Sweet 16. Duke (of all people to complain) got muscled into a very physical game, UCLA couldn't buy a break until one of the very last plays, BC was frustrated by bad calls, UConn couldn't buy a break which almost got coach Jim Calhoun ejected, and Washington had five people foul out.

Twenty (20) went 3-1 today while 23 went 1-3. Seven (7) finished the third round 6-2 while three went a pitiful 1-7. BASKETBALL JONES still has the lead with 104 pts, however, the past five leaders after Round 3 have not won 1st place and only one has taken any money at all.

COBI'S CRUSADERS and Cliff T's two entries, BELUCKY1 and BELUCKY2ME, moved into a tie for 2nd with 102 pts. POOLRAIDER (12th-Tied, 95 pts) had a bad day and fell from 3rd to out of contention.

Five still have all Final 4 teams alive. Only twice has someone picked all four Final 4 teams (in 516 total entries). KOBERAJ (68th-T, 79) became the second entry to lose all 4 Final 4 teams.

COBI'S CRUSADERS has the best chance for money (57.8%) while BASKETBALL JONES still has the odds for first (26.6%). Only 24 have a chance for big money and just a good number (13) still have a chance for first.

The Big East now has 11 wins with the SEC close behind with 9. Both have two teams in the Elite 8. Those are the only two conference with a chance to finish with the most wins. That still leaves 48 in the running for the $40 Bonus Prize. The Big East could finish with as many as 15 wins and the SEC 14.

LSU RUNS AWAY IN OVERTIME WHILE UCLA SHUTS DOWN MEMPHIS

Belucky1 moves into 1st but does not have champion alive

SAN JOSE, CA (smt)- #4S-LSU blew a late 50-45 lead but routed #2S-Texas in OT, pulling out a 70-60 victory. An unbelievable, crazy sequence late in regulation finally ended with Texas tying the game on a three pointer that ultimately sent the game into overtime. Both teams scored 26 pts in each half but LSU bolted to a 59-52 lead in overtime and never looked back. The Bayou Bengals reach the Final Four for the first time since 1986. #2W-UCLA leapt into a 21-9 lead over #1W-Memphis and never let the Tigers get into the game, winning 50-45 and advancing to the Final Four for the first time since 1995, when our pool first started thanks to UCLA being the favorite to win it all.

The Bruins prevented a Tiger-Tiger match-up (in line with the earlier Bruin-Bruin & Husky-Husky match-ups) in the Final Four. UCLA again continued to be streaky from the charity stripe. They missed 5 of their last 7 free throws vs Alabama, made 15 of 17 (which kept them in the game) to start against Gonzaga and then hit 7 of their last 8, and in this game vs Memphis, missed 15 of their first 21 free throws to give the Tigers a fighting chance. But then UCLA at one stretch in the second half hit 14 of 17 free throws to ice the game. UCLA's defense was relentless as Memphis, who hit an average of 7.6 3-pointers a game, missed their first 14 attempts before hitting two in garbage time. UCLA did go 8:39 without a FG, a common occurrence among teams this year.

SAMURAI JACK (99 pts) was the only one to get both correct and moved from a tie for 39th place to a tie for 13th. He, GATORS NEVER CHOKE (26th-Tied, 94), and KYLIAAR (10th-T, 101) were the only ones to pick LSU. Thirty-two (32) picked UCLA but that meant 51 went 0-2 today. The first change in a while occurred as BELUCKY1 moved into first with 106 pts with LORENZO MATA in second with 105. Unfortunately, both do not have their champion (Duke). THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA (106), who can't win first, and JINX (104) move into 3rd and 4th place with previous leader BASKETBALL JONES (104) dropping into a tie for 4th. ANGRY HAWAIIAN (84th, 63) is no longer in last as FABIO (62) takes the cellar spot.

Five entries lost both games (losing Memphis and Texas) while SAMURAI JACK is the only to try to become just the 3rd person to pick all 4 Final Four teams (601 entries including this year). AKUMA (80th, 72) and EEK (50th-T, 86) became the 3rd and 4th entries to go 0-for-the-Final-Four.

BELUCKY1 has the best chance for money (65.6%) while JINX and AGENT 86 OF CONTROL (6th-T, 102) have a 43.8% chance for money. LORENZO MATA, SAMURAI JACK, FAT BASTARD (13th-T, 99), BELUCKY1, and GATORS NEVER CHOKE (26th-T, 94) all have between 12.5-18.8% chance of winning first. Four others have a chance for 1st and a total of 18 are still alive for big money.

The SEC picked up win # 10 to close in on the Big East, which has 11 wins. All 48 are still alive to win the $40 Bonus Prize (minus the eventual big money winners).

UConn RUNS OUT OF CHANCES AND FLORIDA ROARS INTO FINAL 4

Lorenzo Mata in good shape but no one is guaranteed money

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- #1E-UConn played with heart, rallying from four points down with 23 seconds left to send the game into overtime. Problem? It was against #11E-George Mason, who fed off the "home" crowd and by default, played with more intensity and heart in becoming the first double-digit seed in the Final Four since 1986 (LSU, which coincidentally also made the FF). Though a husky (dog), #1E-UConn played like it had nine lives as it needed GM's Tony Skinn to miss the front end of a one-and-one with 5.5 seconds left to set up Denham Brown's reverse layup that bounced ever so softly as the buzzer sounded to send the game into overtime. UConn got another break as GM missed two free throws (the Patriots missed 5 of their last 7 FTs) with 6.1 seconds left setting up the same scenario but this time UConn went for the win and its three attempt was just long giving the Patriots a 86-84 win. The Huskies' luck finally ran out as UConn struggled against #16E-Albany, barely held off #9E-Kentucky's rally, and need two 3's late to send the game into OT and beat #5E-Washington. GM, up 71-67, also had a chance to ice the game but Will Thomas had two slam attempts blocked and UConn took the ensuing turnover and turned it into a 3-point play with about 47 seconds left.

#3MW-Florida jumped to a 35-23 lead and never let #1MW-Villanova get in the game, stopping every Wildcat rally and built back their 12-point lead (62-50) with 5:55 left. The Gators are finally back in the Final Four (2000) after several disappointing runs. This was the first non-close game since Memphis' win over Bradley in the early afternoon Thursday Elite 8 session.

I'll miss UConn as they have scored 87, 98, and 84 points. The 84 points (not including UConn's opponents) are more than any other team in the past 20 games (Gonzaga's 90 in win vs Indiana in 2nd Round). Villanova went 10:08 without a FG (but helped themselves by hitting 9 of 10 FTs) and UConn lost despite holding a 12-point lead, infamous trends that continue in this year's tournament. Scarier still, these are both #1 seeds and their losses meant that this is the first time no #1 seeds are in the FF since the field expanded to 64/65 teams (only other time was 1980 when there were 48 teams).

Obviously, no one picked George Mason but fourteen did pick Florida meaning a HWCII-record 71 went 0-2 today. Only five went 2-2 for the round while a HWCII-record 41 went 0-for-the-Final-Four. In the previous 11 years (516 entries), only 68 have gone 0-4. LORENZO MATA takes over first with 113 points with JINX close behind with 110. BELUCKY1 falls from 1st to a tie for 3rd with AGENT 86 OF CONTROL with 108 pts. GATORS NEVER CHOKE (100 pts), who should have considered this name years ago, moved from 26th to 13th and will hope Florida will end George Mason's magical season.

UConn's loss meant that we will likely have winners who didn't pick the correct champion but there are still nine who picked UCLA and one who picked Florida (guess who?). No one is guaranteed money and basically, if Florida wins it all, GATORS NEVER CHOKE will be the champion, if UCLA wins it all FAT BASTARD (14th-Tied, 99) takes 1st, and all other scenarios belong to LORENZO MATA. Four of the 9 entries remaining have a 75% chance of winning money (JINX, LORENZO MATA, AGENT 86 OF CONTROL, and BELUCKY1).

The SEC picked up win # 11 to tie the Big East with 11 wins. UConn and Villanova losing means the Big East is stuck on 11. This disastrous scenario means only three entries have a chance to win the Bonus Prize. Or maybe no one will. If LSU & Florida lose, BAMAG (5th-T, 106) and LORENZO MATA can win it, but if LORENZO MATA wins money, the Bonus will go to BAMAG. If the either team loses in the final (but not play each other), then DAVYBOY (33rd-T, 92) will win the Bonus. If both teams win (regardless who wins the final) then no one wins the Bonus Prize for the 2nd straight year and the money will be redistributed to the top 4 prizes.

Issue # 13.4.3 "Three games to decide four money spots"

THREE CAN CLAIM TITLE AND FIRST EVER HWCi WIN

Three can win the Bonus but maybe no one will

EL SEGUNDO/CERRITOS, CA (smt)- The 2006 HWCi NCAA Pool Champion could be crowned on Saturday if #4S-LSU and #11E-George Mason both win. LORENZO MATA (1st, 113 pts) will hope for this scenario and thus claim the $405 prize, our largest ever. And it could grow if the SEC picks up at least two wins because then no one will win the Bonus Prize and the first place prize will grow to $415. In addition to MATA (who could also win if LSU or George Mason wins the championship), GATORS NEVER CHOKE (13th, 100) (if Florida is the champ) and FAT BASTARD (14th-Tied, 99) (if UCLA wins it all) will not only try to win the title, but also win their first money spot (in 3, 7, and 2 tries, respectively).

In addition, JAYLOC (21st-T, 95) will be trying to win money for the first time in 10 tries, BELUCKY1 (3rd-T, 108) in 8 tries, and JINX (2nd, 110) in 7. BIX PIX (18th-T, 97) will be trying for his third money win, but first since 1999. BRUINS4LIFE (18th-T, 97) is in his first pool and AGENT 86 OF CONTROL (3rd-T, 108) won 4th last year in his third try. These are the nine people still alive for the big money spots.

These supposed Bruin fans may have to trade $$ for a championship as LORENZO MATA, JINX, and BELUCKY1 did not pick UCLA to make the final. THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA (5th-T, 106), another Bruin alum, sits in 5th and also did not have UCLA in the final and can't win any money.

Complete Final Four Possibilities

As for the $40 Bonus Prize, the SEC and Big East conferences have 11 wins each. But there are 2 SEC teams in the Final Four and no Big East teams.

So this is what it boils down to. If UCLA beats George Mason in the Final, then BAMAG (5th-T, 106) and LORENZO MATA will tie and be subject to the tie breaker (if total points scored in final is ≤ 144 , BAMAG wins, if 145 they split, and if 146+ MATA wins). If George Mason beats UCLA in the Final, then since LORENZO MATA will win money, BAMAG will win the Bonus Prize. If UCLA beats Florida or if George Mason beats LSU in the Final, then DAVYBOY (33rd-T, 92) will win the Bonus Prize as he was the only person to have the SEC with 12 wins. All other scenarios mean no one will win the Bonus and the money will be redistributed to the top 4 winners.

Complete Prize Distribution and Bonus Prize Details

Etc, Etc... Of the seven people who entered at least twice, only Cliff T with his BELUCKY1 entry has a chance to cash in... Round 4 was the worst-ever, averaging just 0.58 correct (of 4 possible teams), edging out 2003 where the average was just 0.75... even if everyone picks up the maximum points, this will be the lowest scoring pool ever, currently at 89.3 (can't finish any higher than 92.0); the average over the 12 pools is 101.2... no #1 seeds? what about the past five years a school has made both the Men's and Women's Final Four (OK '02, TX '03, CT '04, Michigan St. '05, and LSU this year) and something to think about for next year... what's less exciting than the NIT tournament? the Women's NIT tournament! I didn't even know it existed.

A SPITAKULARR WAYWARD POOLRAIDER Some names re-return, others are just, uh, interesting

CERRITOS, CA (smt) - Despite not having the website up for the first 21 hours due to a hardware failure, a record 85 entries were received, topping the 82 we had last year and marking the fourth straight year the number of entries has increased. More curious, a record 71 entries were from previous years, meaning that for whatever strange reason, people like our HWCi NCAA pool (or just don't mind throwing $10 away). A record total of 77 people submitted the 85 entries and an amazing 42 people (46 entries) have participated in at least five of the 12 pools.

This year, we had the return of some old nicknames which have brought JAYLOC (last used in '99) and BIX PIX ('02) good luck (so far) but the same bad luck for FLYING ACE ('00). Others have settled on their nicknames year after year (such as THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA (all 12 years), JINX, BIG LUTHER, SOURCE, PSW, ZIPPY, INDY, SHRINER, FABIO, CARSERONI, and KRISPY KREMER) while others have used the same name in back-to-back years (in process of settling or just couldn't think of another clever nickname?) (such as TERMINATOR, METHOD TO THE MADNESS, FLIP FIGHTERS (probably because this is the name what won it for Robinson C last year), COBI'S CRUSADERS, and WOODEN_SOLDIER). We even had someone from our 2002 HWCi World Cup pool participate in our NCAA one for the first time (EEK).

There were references to TV shows (RACEAROUNDTHEWORLD, AGENT 86 OF CONTROL (tribute to the late Don Knotts?), RICHARD BELDING (classic!), and FRANK GRIMES) and movies (HOLLYWOOD HOOP, (Vi N for) VENDETTALESS, and FAT BASTARD (or is it the wine? Which I had in St. Louis)). There were flyers (FLYING ACE & FLYINGELVI), samurais (TEAM SAMURAI & SAMURAI JACK (same person)) and buckeyes (BUCKEYE & BUCKEYE MIKE - neither apparently Ohio St. fans). There were egos (THEMAN, IMYOURHUCKLEBERRY, JOLBSTER THE GENIUS, and MR. WONDERFUL FC! - all eliminated by the Elite 8) and eagles (YANKEEAGLE) and slight references to the military (SARGE and THE ROCKET).

There were the ABC's (AJ, QUEEN B, BOBBY CEE) and the G's (G-DOGG and BAMA-G). Some resembled online gaming screen names (KYLIAAR, DL32, AKUMA, DTERP, KOBERAJ, and ANNIHIATOR44) while others reassembled names in their nicknames (Quang Phung -> PHUQUA CLAN, Dan Henderson -> HENDO, David O -> DAVYBOY, Debbie M -> DEB & BUSTER, Suzanne M -> SUZNANA, Jay S -> JAYLOC, Sam Pitak -> SPITAKULARR (clever, but why the extra "r"?), and Steve Norat -> THE RAT PACK). Some were optimistic (BELUCKY1 & BELUCKY2ME (both Cliff T's picks)), some seemed bitter (ANGRY HAWAIIAN, KILLER, MADPRO, and BOMBARDMENTBOMBARDMNT), and some relished in others' failures (SCHADENFREUDE (one of the all-time great nicknames)).

There were those that liked Duke (CHRONICLES OF REDICK) and those that didn't (HE HATE DUKE which made me laugh thinking about the original)- both picked UConn to win it all. There were Bruin (UCLA, that is) fans (BRUINS4LIFE, PAC10ATTACK, and LORENZO MATA (who did not pick UCLA to win it all and it might cost him)), the Fighting Illini fan (KEEP CHIEF ILLINIWEK (I agree!)), and the ever optimistic (and it might pay off this time) Florida fan (note the singular - j/k) GATORS NEVER CHOKE. Others just referenced the game of basketball itself (ZONE DEFENDER, 360 DUNK, and BASKETBALL JONES).

As always, we have our colors (THINKPINK (who's a different "pink" every year, which is cool and original), BLUESTARS1996, and YELLOW MONKEY) and, in what seems to run in the Chay family, non-colorful names of DARA (Dara Chay) and BOROTH CHAY (who is... Boroth Chay - go figure). Troy B's two entries perplexed me (UOPTAYLOR and KANAKAKIDZ) and I just didn't know how to categorize Robby D's LERAGER, which sounds cool but I don't know why.

Next year? Maybe Baker's Fabone for our 13th year...

NO #1 SEEDS, IT'S ANYBODY'S GAME
Pool Champ could be decided Saturday

CERRITOS, CA (smt) - The last time Florida made the Final Four was in 2000, coincidentally, the last time the FF was hosted by Indianapolis. The Gators will be looking to do more than make the championship game when they lost to Michigan St. The iron men (all five starters averaging more than 30 minutes & 10 pts a game) of George Mason will try to continue their magical run and become the first #11 seed to make the championship game. To do so, the Patriots will have to beat their fourth power conference team (in contrast to UCLA, which will only be facing their 2nd) and will not have the "home" court advantage they had in Washington, DC.

Two very good defenses will battle each other in the later game. LSU, with their very close-knit team of local players, has blocked their way into the Final Four stifling JJ Redick and his Duke Blue Devils, the #1 team in the tournament. The UCLA Bruins, with its gritty defense, have dominated in all but one game (vs. Gonzaga) but their tendency to miss free throws have kept teams in the game.

The Bruins find themselves the highest seeded team left but all four teams have beaten the #1 seed in their region, the first time that has happened (in 1980, the only other time no #1 seeds made the FF, Purdue did not beat the #1 team in its region on its way to the FF). GMU, which didn't even win their conference (Colonial Athletic Association, or as the coach called it, the Connecticut Assassins Association) tournament, are 4-3 overall in the tournament, with all 4 wins coming this year. UCLA, on the other hand, is 89-32 overall and has won 11 titles.

In the pool, three people (LORENZO MATA, GATORS NEVER DIE, FAT BASTARD) have a chance to win it all. Six others are hoping to land in the money. Three could still win the Bonus Prize (as long as LSU and Florida don't both win). For the rest of us? Well, let's hope for some good games and root for your friends to win (or lose, if you're that type of person).

GATORS & BRUINS JUMP TO BIG LEADS TO ADVANCE TO FINAL

No one is guaranteed money as nine fight for four spots

CARSON/CERRITOS, CA (smt)- #3MW-Florida (32-6) came out on fire in the second half to jump to a 51-32 lead before coasting to a 73-58 win over fan-favorite #11E-George Mason (27-8) in the first Final Four semifinal. The Gators made ten 3-point shots (Lee Humphrey with six of those) before the Patriots made even made one (late in the game) to advance to the championship for only the second time (lost in 2000, also in Indy). GM made one last run to cut it to 9 with 4:46 left but Florida went 4/4 on FTs to put the lead back to 13 and out of reach.

#2W-UCLA (32-6) exploded coming out of halftime to expand on their 15-point halftime lead (first three baskets were dunks), building it up to 24 (55-31), and never letting Big Baby (or Big Zero) and his #4S-LSU Tigers (27-9) find their rhythm in winning 59-45. For the second consecutive game the Bruins held their opponents to 45 points and have established one of the best defenses in the shot clock era. In a twist, LSU, not UCLA, shot poorly from the free throw line, missing 15 of their first 26 attempts. UCLA also hit five 3-pointers to LSU's zero. UCLA is in its 13th championship game, winning 11 of 12 games.

Any combination would have been an unlikely scenario at the start of the tournament, but eleven did pick UCLA and three picked Florida, but no one got both. As such, LORENZO MATA (113 pts) is in first place but can't finish higher than 2nd and JINX (110) is in 2nd place but can't finish higher than 3rd. A record 9 entries are still alive and if you look at the possibilities, everyone has a 50% chance for money. For the second straight year, no one is guaranteed money going into Monday's game. And for the third straight year (after the first 9 years saw the HWCi NCAA Pool Champion crowned after the Semis), we don't have a winner yet. And (can I really start sentences with "and"?) the Bonus Prize can only be won if UCLA wins which means the prize totals are different! Confused? Here is the scoop...

if UCLA wins

1st: $ 405.00
 2nd: $ 190.00
 3rd: $ 130.00
 4th: $ 85.00
 Bonus: $ 40.00

if FLA wins

$415.00
 $200.00
 $140.00
 $ 95.00
 [None]

So, if UCLA wins, FAT BASTARD (6th, 107) will win $405 and DAVYBOY (19th-Tied, 100) will win the Bonus Prize by correctly predicting the SEC will be the winningest conference with 12 wins. If Florida wins, GATORS NEVER DIE (3rd-T, 108) will win $415 and no one will win the Bonus Prize (since no one will have picked the SEC with 13 wins).

With two scenarios left and nine people alive for just four big money spots, that means the tiebreaker will come into play. If UCLA wins, there is a battle for 2nd place. If the total points scored in the final is 132 or less, then BRUINS4LIFE (9th-T, 105) wins 2nd and BIX PIX (9th-T, 105) 3rd. If the total is 134 or more, it's reversed. If the total is 133, then both will split $320. If Florida wins, there is a battle for 4th place. If the total points scored in the final is 152 or less, AGENT 86 OF CONTROL (3rd-T, 108) wins 4th and BELUCKY1 (3rd-T, 108) goes home empty-handed. If the total is 154 or more, it's reversed. If the total is 153, the both will split $95. Interestingly, the over/under is about 128 points.

Watching with the pro-UCLA media in the Galaxy press box... priceless...

553 LOSING ENTRIES? THAT'S LIFE
A look back at each of the 12 HWCi NCAA pools

CARSON/CERRITOS, CA (smt) - Could UCLA bookend the 12 years we have been doing the pool with its 12th championship? The HWCi NCAA Pool started as a mischievous idea by UCLA friends who wanted to root for UCLA via the pool in 1995 (and take $10 from novices such as myself). At that time, ten of 12 entries picked UCLA to win it all. And they did. Flash forward and only 9 of 85 entries (3 of the 7 original members stuck again with UCLA) picked UCLA. Quite a change in twelve years.

After Monday, we will have distributed $6,010 in prize money over 12 years and a record first place check (either $405 or $415). The pool has become a family affair in more ways than one and has steadily grown in the past three years. In one sense, you can call this the modern era (2001-2006 with 59 or more entries) and the last century our golden era (1995-2000, 36 or less entries).

A little history....

In 1995, the first year of the pool, just 12 people entered in a modest effort put forth by HW-

UCLA and their close friends. Names like BAD ASS and LIVER BOY graced the pool. Of course, their interest was heightened because UCLA was favored to win it all. Indeed, 10 of 12 picked UCLA while 2 picked Kentucky. This pool featured the infamous LOSER WHO DIDN'T PICK UCLA (Dennis K) who set an all-time record (still stands today) with a 14-2 2nd Round to go from tied for 9th to tied for 1st before going 0-7 in the final 3 rounds to finish dead last (12th) with 98 points. TINA'S BOY (Mark C) became the first person to be eliminated when the 2nd round ended. He was, however, one of only 3 people (all in 1995) to correctly pick the two teams in the final and the champion prior to 1999. BIX PIX (Fernando B, 1st, 148) and MR. NELSON (Nelson, 2nd, 146) were the other two and claimed the top two spots, winning $70 and $30, respectively. THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA (Dave F, 3rd, 141) claimed third prize worth $20. All but one finished with 110 points or more, the highest scoring pool ever (130.6 avg).

In 1996, 19 people participated in the pool. Without the HW-UCLA guys picking nicknames, we had some boring stuff like JAMES, JOSEPH, and HEATHER. That year, the total points tiebreaker was first used to settle ties. A newcomer, JAYBIAN (Jason S, 1st, 144) rode Kentucky to a first place prize of $110. He also set a record going 8-0 for the 3rd round (still the only person today) and never looked back. BIX PIX TWEY (Fernando B, 5th, 129), hoping to duplicate last year's effort, fell short of winning money thanks to his loyalty to UCLA. JOSEPH (Joseph K, 2nd, 140) and JAMES (James L, 3rd, 139) won $50 and $30, respectively. Six picked Kentucky that year with just as many picking UCLA (who lost to Princeton in the first round- ouch!). This was the first year someone entered twice (Dave F) and ended up 11th (REALISTIC MOBELFAKTA, 113) and 16th (THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA, 106). MM and HATE THE DUCKS (Mark C, 12th, 112) became the 2nd and 3rd people to go 0-for-the-Final-Four. HATE THE DUCKS had a 64% chance of winning money heading into the 4th round, and 0% chance after. THE CHEF (Douglas H, 19th, 80) set an all-time low in points for a pool at the time.

In 1997, the first real debate on whether to raise the pool fee to $20 from $10 was raised. Fortunately, it was defeated in a vote. But, three people did plunk down $20 to enter twice as 22 entries were received in the third annual pool. Like Dave F before them, the three people went moneyless (Tuan H- RODERICK (15th, 97) and RHODES (14th, 97); Alvin K- BAD ASS I (4th, 111) and BAD ASS II (18th, 93); and Dennis K- LENNY (6th, 107) and DUKE (12th, 99)). This was also the first year no one picked the correct NCAA champion. Arizona, who usually bowed out in the first or second round, surprised everyone, including Kentucky, in winning the championship in overtime. The #4-SE seed beat three # 1 seeds, the first time that's happened. Twelve had picked Kansas and four North Carolina, neither which made the championship game. MAX (Sean D, 1st, 116) bounced back from a 15th place finish the year before to win the $125 top prize. The Selander brothers took 2nd (Brian S, THE FLYING ELVI, 115) and 3rd (Jason S, JAYBIAN II, 113) for $60 and $35, respectively. Jason S became the first person to win money twice (1st in 1996). Todd S. (FRODO, 5th, 109) became the first person to lead going into the Final Four and end up with nothing. Just half (11 of 22) finished 100 points or higher.

In 1998, a record 28 entries tried their luck. ANNA COME LATELY (Anna, 1st, 126), the last entry we received, seemed like the least likely to win, picking a Utah over UCLA final. Well, Utah surprised the 27 other entrants (no one else even had them in the Final Four) and gave ANNA COME LATELY the record top prize of $150. James L became the 2nd person to win twice taking the $70 second place prize (CAVEMAN, 2nd, 113) while THE FABONE (Scott T, 3rd, 110) won money for the first time in four tries to take home $40. For the first time, a 4th place prize was created and that went to SCOTTMAN (Scott H, 4th, 108), which was also the first time the tiebreaker played a part in the top spots as SCOTTMAN won the 4-way tie for 4th place. With Kentucky's rally and win over Utah in the final, this was the 2nd straight year no one picked the champion. Sixteen pegged UNC while five hoped for an Arizona repeat. UTHOPE (Donald G, 24th, 92) became the 4th person to go 0-7 in the last three rounds. ANNA COME LATELY's 13-point win was the largest margin of victory ever (still stands today). Tuan H once again entered twice with the same results- no money (STRAIGHT BUTTER, 10th, 106 and EN FUEGO, 13th, 104) extending the drought for dual entries to 0-for-5.

In 1999, a record 36 entries (18 NCAA pool newcomers, 13 pool newcomers if you include those who participated in the World Cup Pool) were received with two dual entries (Scott T- THE FABONE V and FREE FABONE and Gareth M- CARSERONI and MAJERUS FOR SDSU). This was the first year the referral program was in effect (free entry for 5 referrals). Mark C (DARKSHARK) became the first person to go 0-for-7 in the Final Four twice (1996). SHARY BOBBINS (Lisa T, 1st, 146) and CARSERONI (Gareth M, 3rd, 120) became the 12th and 13th different people to win HWC I NCAA pool money. Scott T (FREE FABONE) and Gareth M (CARSERONI) broke a streak of winless dual entries with a 2nd and 3rd Place finish in one of their entries. James L (BIG GAME, 5th, 117) bid to go 3-for-3 in winning money came falling down with Duke's stunning loss. Three of four people who picked UConn (29 picked Duke) to win it all won money. Rob C (LUIS ENRIQUE'S ARMADA, 11th, 113) became the first person to pick the correct champion and lose out to someone who didn't (where the correct champion was picked). Fernando B (BIG SPIDER BECK, 4th, 118) had just a 4 in 132 chance to win money and took 4th, his second winning entry ever. Loretta A (TRUE BRUIN, 36th, 67) finished with all-time record low in points at the time.

In 2000, a record-tying 36 entries once again tried their luck as 14 newcomers entered. Sam N (MORALES' MOUNDS, 122 pts) became the sixth different champion after finishing 26th and 31st in the previous two years. He became the first person to either be tied or in the lead after each of the six rounds. After a record breaking first round that saw two people get 30 of 32 first round games correct, the brackets started to fall apart as no one got more than 3 of 8 Sweet Sixteen games correct and eight people went go 0-7 in the Final Four (just six have done so before (117 entries)). Just one #1 and one #2 seed advanced to the Elite Eight. Dave F (THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA) returns to the winner's circle with a 2nd Place finish. Scott T (THE FABONE VI) won money for a record third straight pool. Beth S (BETHEON, 36th, 62) shattered the all-time low in points at the time. Fourteen people pegged Michigan St. as the correct champion. Craig E (CRAIGS99) won 4th place in his first pool.

In 2001, a record shattering 59 entries were received by 53 people (21 new people). Robinson C (TEAM SAMURAI) won the biggest prize ever of $280 after finishing 3rd to last (34th) last year. He entered three times and it worked. Three others (Scott T, Mike K, Fernando B) went winless in both of their entries after the last three people to enter twice won money (3-8 overall for those with 2 entries; Robinson is the first 3-time entry-er). Sam N (B-S FC), last year's pool champion, and Dylan R (DYLAN) become just the 3rd and 4th people to not get at least half the games correct. Four people went 0-7 in the Final Four (just 18 people have done so out of 212 entries) with Donald G (UTHPOPE) doing it for the second time (Mark C is the only other person with this dubious distinction). On the flip side, two people (BINGO and PEEPS) became the first-ever entries to predict all four Final Four teams correctly. Eleven different teams were picked to be the champion with 18 picking Stanford, 15 Duke, and 8 Arizona. In addition to Robinson C, Lisa F (ARMIN TAMZARIAN) won for the 2nd time. Bing F (BINGO) took 3rd in his second try and Sam P (JAYHAWK FC) took home 4th. The top 13 finishers all had Duke winning it all.

In 2002, a record breaking 80 entries were received. A hefty 80 entries from 71 people including 29 new people and 42 returnees. Seven people entered twice and one person entered 3 times but only Scott T managed to take home something, his first pool title in 8 years (THE FABON8ER) and largest take ever, $400, giving him a lifetime total of $590 and his 4th win (1 1st, 2 2nd, and 3 3rd place finishes). Jeff H (RANDOM PICKS) had the largest 1st and 2nd round leads ever (4 and 7 pts) and most pts after 2 rounds (90) but had to settle for 2nd. Ann B. (LITTLE ANN) and Paul N. (KAIZEN) took 3rd and 4th, with the 4th Place prize of $70 matching our first ever 1st Place prize of $70 in 1995. In reference to quantity does not equal quality, Gabriel T (GOBAY) and Dan H (HENDO) shattered records for lowest point total (49) and worst 2nd round (3-13). Gabriel also set records for worst 2nd Round Saturday (1-7), worst record in 3rd round (0-8), worst record in last 4 rounds (0-15) at the time. HENDO set a record for least wins (22) and lowest pt total after 2 rounds (45) (both still standing). Eight people failed to get half the games right (just 4 in previous 7 pools) and eight went 0-7 in the last 3 rounds (just 18 in previous 7 pools). 22 entries chose Duke to win it all but all four winners (out of 17) correctly chose Maryland.

In 2003, with the War in Iraq looming that week, 63 valid entries (including a record 47 returnees) from 58 people were received, our second highest total. With some complaints that four prizes weren't enough, we instituted our first-ever Bonus Prize of $40 to the entry who picked the winningest conference and number of wins correctly. This allowed 21 extra entries with a chance for money heading into the Final Four. Scott T (THE FABO9ERS) won the prize (11th, 110), his fifth win, pushing his lifetime total to $630. Four people entered twice and none won anything. Cliff T became the first person to enter twice and have both of his entries eliminated after the 2nd Round. Darryn B (BIG LUTHER), in his second pool, took home the first place prize of $280, our 9th different pool champion. John S (MR. WIZARD) and Quang P (KRIMSONGUARD) took home 2nd and 3rd, respectively, their first-ever wins, and the 23rd and 24th different people to win money. Catrina B (BLUEBERRY) had a record-setting perfect first day (16-0) but eventually lost her last 14 games and 26 of the last 31 games to finish in 62nd place. John B (BLOOMERS123) also went 16-0 on the first day but finished 27th. Twelve teams were picked to win it all but the overwhelming choices were Kentucky (32 entries) and Arizona (13) but neither team made it to the Final Four. For the first time since the pool started, 3 #1 seeds lost in the Elite 8, and for the second time, no #1 seed was in the Final. With that disaster Elite 8 round, a record 26 entries went 0-for-the-Final Four, matching the previous eight-year combined total of 26 (in 292 entries). No one had more than 2 Final Four teams correctly picked. Robinson C (TEAM SAMURAI, 63rd, 72) became the 13th entry to not get more than half the games correct. Fern B (GALAXY, 5th, 117) missed money by one point and became just the 2nd entry to get the correct champion (Syracuse) and lose to someone who didn't pick the champion (in years where the correct champion was picked). To add insult to injury, Fern also picked the tiebreaker correctly (which means with one extra point he would have won 4th), just the third person to do so.

In 2004, our 10th anniversary, the pool bounced back and 79 entries were received from 70 people (7 dual entries, 1 3-entries), including a record 54 return entries. Once again, none of the 8 people who entered multiple entries won money. Six different people led after each of the first four days before Bing F (BINGO) took over after Rounds 3 and 4. However, after Round 5, Jeff H (RANDOM PICKS) took the lead pushing Bing F to no higher than 3rd and in the end, became just the second person to lead going into the Final Four and wind up moneyless. For the first-time ever, the pool champion was not crowned after Round 5 and we had to wait til after Monday's game to find out who our Pool champion would be. It was Rick F (FABIO) who took home the $370 top prize and became our 10th different champion. Rick F and Darius B (OMG), who took 2nd Place, were our 25th and 26th different persons to win money. Dave F (THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA) took 3rd, his 3rd win ever (total: $230). Jeff H took the 4th place prize of $80, his second win, pushing his win total to $280. Jeff H was also just the third person to ever snatch a money spot away from someone who picked the correct champion (he had Kentucky) beating David S (SHRINER, 5th) by one point. After eight winless years, Mike B. (BUCKEYE MIKE) finally won something, taking home the $40 Bonus Prize. Fourteen different teams were picked to win it all, but 2 of the top 3 didn't make it to the Sweet 16 (Stanford (21) and Kentucky (12)). Duke (16) lost in the Semis but eventual champion UConn was picked by 11. Despite only one #1 seed making the Final Four, 17 entries got 3 of the 4 teams correct. Three entries got less than 32 games correct (16 overall). Twelve went 0-for-the-Final-Four (64 overall). A record 5 people got the tiebreaker exact (just happened three times before).

In 2005, the start of our second decade, 82 entries from 73 people (both records) were submitted, including a record 65 returnees. Of the eight who entered at least twice, two won money. Robinson C became the first two-time HWCII NCAA Pool champion (2001) winning with his FLIP FIGHTERS (140 pts) entry (his 2nd of 3 entries) and taking home a record-tying $400, giving him a grand total of $680 (record) over six years (16 total entries). Roy W entered twice and won with his first entry, KRISPY KREMER, finishing 3rd in his 4th try. First-time online entry Paul T (HOOPGURU) took home 2nd and Patrick N (KING KLITSCHKO) took home 4th, winning a 3-way tiebreaker, in his third try. All four entries (Robinson's 1st entry won last time) were first time winners (the last time this happened was in 1996) and all four correctly picked UNC. The three big teams from the ACC (UNC (19), Duke (11), and Wake Forest (8)) were picked by a combined 38 entries compared to the 27 who picked Illinois to win it all. Wake Forest was the only team picked unanimously to go to the Sweet 16, and of course, they failed to do so. With Duke losing in the Sweet 16, that allowed the Big 10 to have the most conference wins and for the first time, no one won the Bonus Prize. That allowed the top 4 prizes to increase, satisfying the winners. A record nine entries were still alive going into the Final and for the second straight year, the pool champ was undecided. Also, for the first time, not one entry was guaranteed money (only Chuck H's ACE OF SPADES could win in either case but could lose on a tiebreaker, which he did (lost 3-way tie for 4th) going into the Final. Despite just eight top seeds making the Sweet 16 and three making the Elite 8, a record 20 still managed to pick the final two teams (just 25 in 434 previous entries). Four entries were below .500 (20 overall) and four went 0-for-the-Final-Four (68 overall).

In 2006, our website was down for almost 21 hours but that didn't stop us from receiving a record 85 entries from a record 77 people (and a record 71 entries were returnees). The Big East had a record 8 teams in the tourney but only UConn (39) and Villanova (4) were picked to win it all. Duke (19) and hometown UCLA (9) also were favorites. For the second straight year, none of the record-tying nine entries were guaranteed to win money and for the third straight year, the champion was not crowned after the semifinals. Either Sant C (FAT BASTARD) will win a record $405 in his second try or Ken B (GATORS NEVER CHOKE) will take home a record $415 check in his seventh try. Either David O (DAVYBOY) will take home the $40 Bonus (if UCLA wins) or no one will win the Bonus for the second straight year. For the first time, no #1 seed made the Final Four but five still managed to pick 2 of the 4 teams. However, a record 41 went 0-for-the-Final-Four (just 68 previously) and nine were below .500 (29 overall).

Thank you for your support...

GATORS MUSCLE AND BLOCK THEIR WAY TO FIRST CHAMPIONSHIP

After seven years, Gators Never Choke captures pool title

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- Joakim Noah had five (!) of his six blocks in the first half to lead the #3MW-Florida Gators (33-6) to a 73-57 win over the #2W-UCLA Bruins (32-7) to capture their first NCAA championship. The Gators had 10 blocks overall and built up a 20-point lead early in the second half. UCLA never got the game within single digits in the second half and lost for only the second time in a championship game (11-2). Florida ends on a 11-game winning after starting the season with a 17-game win streak. Florida capped what was one of the most lackluster Final Fours with no losing team getting closer than nine points after the first minute of the second half.

In a HWCi first, a self-proclaimed prophecy as a nickname wins the pool title. Ken B (GATORS NEVER CHOKE (120 pts)), with a Weighted Point Average of 0.194 (of 1.000), 33rd of 34 qualified entries, ran and survived with Florida to a $415 payday. He was the only one to pick Florida as nine who had UCLA went home empty-handed. Ken picks up the largest-ever prize. Jake P (LORENZO MATA (113)) won the $200 2nd place prize in his third year and probably wishes he put UCLA one round further to win 1st. John C (JINX (110)), who was 28th best of 34 (0.422), also waited 7 years to win money for the first time, picking up $140 for 3rd place. The Bruin alum also could've put UCLA into the final. Pat N (AGENT 86 OF CONTROL (108)) may be starting a tradition, as he won 4th place ($95) for the second straight year (in his 4th year), edging out Cliff T (BELUCKY1) in the tiebreaker.

With Florida's win, the SEC picked up its 13th win. But no one picked the SEC with 13 so for the second straight year no one wins the Bonus Prize (with the $40 being distributed evenly to the top 4 prizes). The 120 pts for the winner was the lowest since MAX got 116 in winning the 1997 HWCI NCAA Pool. The 90.8 point average and 35.4 wins (of 63) were the lowest ever.

So an overall great tournament with a fizz of a finish.

So traveling is not a violation? Or does Florida have three feet?...

Florida makes mockery of Bruins, brings home NCAA title

Apr. 3, 2006

CBS SportsLine.com wire reports

INDIANAPOLIS -- There go the Florida Gators again, runnin' it up on their way to a national championship.

In basketball, believe it or not. Against UCLA, of all teams.

And with a tennis player's son as the star.

Joakim Noah dominated the Bruins on Monday night with 16 points, nine rebounds and a record six blocks to key a 73-57 blowout for Florida's first title in that other sport.

"It's like I'm in a cloud," Noah said. "Not only does this feel good, but it smells good and it tastes good. I can't even describe it."

The Gators and all their fans would certainly agree, especially after watching this runaway -- a pick-your-score kind of game that was decided early.

Many thought it couldn't be done 12 years ago when Billy Donovan took over a basketball program that lived well in the shadows of Steve Spurrier's brash, high-flying football juggernaut. Now, Spurrier is long gone and the Gators have as many national championships in hoops as they do in football.

"It's undescrivable," said Noah, who now will decide whether to turn pro, "better than I've ever felt in my life."

For 40 lopsided minutes, the Gators (33-6) were too big, too long and too quick for UCLA, which came up a win short of its 12th national title on a night when 95-year-old former coach John Wooden watched from a hospital bed in LA. He was admitted for an undisclosed illness that was said not to be serious, but the Bruins didn't try to use that distraction as an excuse.

"Our heart and everything we do on the floor is always a tribute to him, whether he's healthy or not," UCLA guard Arron Afflalo said.

Florida and Noah, voted most outstanding player in the Final Four, won by putting on a thorough display of versatility and unselfishness, a trademark of this team all season.

Lee Humphrey added 15 points, Al Horford 14 and Corey Brewer 11 for Florida.

UCLA (32-7) was on a defensive tear coming into the championship game, shutting down LSU's Glen "Big Baby" Davis in the semifinals and allowing a total of 90 points in the last two games. Florida, though, was just too much to handle.

The Gators ran to a double-digit lead early and staved off every UCLA run.

Noah capped it off with a monster dunk with 1:09 left. When the buzzer sounded, he lay flat on his back at halfcourt and let the confetti rain on him. His teammates were in a pile a few feet away and Donovan was sharing hugs with his longtime assistant Anthony Grant.

The Gators won this by taking it right to UCLA early, looking inside to Noah, Brewer, Horford and senior Adrian Moss. Unafraid to make the extra pass, even in traffic down low, they finished with 21 assists, eight by point guard Taurean Green. More impressively, 10 came from their frontcourt.

It couldn't have been what UCLA coach Ben Howland expected after Florida's 73-58 win over George Mason in the semis, a game the Gators won from outside and that Humphrey ended early in the second with three straight 3s.

The scrappy Humphrey, the lone junior in a starting lineup full of sophomores, did the honors again in this one, spotting up for open looks against a collapsing defense early in the second half.

His first 3, 80 seconds into the half, gave Florida a 39-25 lead and forced Howland to call timeout. A sloppy offensive possession ensued, then Humphrey came back with another 3.

After Ryan Hollins' dunk, one of the few easy baskets for the Bruins, Brewer hit a 3 to make it 45-27 and prompt yet another Bruins TO.

There was no strategy to stop Noah. The 6-foot-11 forward dunked, swatted shots and dominated the game, much like his dad did during his magical run to the French Open title in 1983.

Noah shot 7-for-9 and also had three assists and a steal. When it was over, the kid ran to the stands to try to find his family.

"I'm so happy," Yannick Noah said, wiping away tears from behind his sunglasses. "I'm so happy for him, but also for all of his friends. They deserve it. It's a beautiful story."

Noah had five blocks by halftime, already one better than the NCAA championship game record set by Arizona's Loren Woods in 2001, and he finished with 29 for the tournament, shattering Woods' record by five.

Noah altered plenty of shots, too -- enough that UCLA big men Hollins, Lorenzo Mata and Luc Richard Mbah a Moute looked covered underneath even when they weren't. That's what happens when you're facing an intimidating inside presence, and Noah was certainly that.

"Defensively, he's just long," Afflalo said. "You know, he has the ability to change shots if he's not blocking them. He plays with a lot of energy."

His final block came with about five minutes left after the Bruins had cut a 20-point deficit to 12. Hollins tried to take it strong as a last-gasp effort to get back in the game. Noah stuffed the shot, grabbed the rebound and stood there calmly waiting for things to clear.

About two minutes later, Florida was back up by 16 and those Gator chomps were starting in earnest all around the RCA Dome.

UCLA had all the history behind it, and a pretty good team, to boot. The Bruins just didn't have enough. Farmar, who chose UCLA over Florida, was their only scoring threat. He finished with 18 points. His backcourt mate, Afflalo, finished with 10, but was shut out in the first half, while this game was getting away.

Florida is still 10 titles behind UCLA, but this was one that should quiet the diehards who said it couldn't be done in Gainesville.

Donovan did it while his old coach at Providence, Rick Pitino, watched from the stands, wearing an orange tie. It was Pitino, now at Louisville, who 12 years ago urged Donovan not to take the Florida job, fearing the commitment simply wasn't there. He wasn't alone. Not even Florida's previous coach, Lon Kruger, said the Gators could sustain in basketball the way they did in football -- and Kruger had taken them to the Final Four a few years earlier.

Turns out, there's plenty of money, talent and support to make Florida's "other" program run.

"I said Billy, `They don't have any players. If the AD isn't patient, it'll be a death trap for you,'" Pitino said.

The patience paid off.

"He coached almost the perfect game tonight, offensively and defensively," Pitino said.

It wasn't hard with this group of players.

Humphrey ended up with 10 3-pointers during this Final Four and found himself open for most of them.

Horford had seven rebounds and two blocks, and Brewer had seven rebounds, four assists and three steals.

Moss, the only senior on the roster, had nine points and six rebounds off the bench, almost all in the first half.

Four years ago, he was considered a star of the future. Instead, he was really a very nice piece of a bigger puzzle -- a puzzle Donovan put together.

"Our faculty rep said to me before the game that when you start with something from scratch and you build it up to win a championship, that's something special," Donovan said.

Issue # 19.6.2 "Ken B gets Gator Champ and pool title"

Home] [Updates]

FLORIDA DIDN'T CHOKE AND EASILY CAPTURES FIRST CHAMPIONSHIP

Nine had to wait to last game (at least through halftime) to find who won money

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- UCLA had the history and its legends at the game but Florida had the desire and the perfect game giving the Gators its first NCAA title. For the third time in the past four finals, no #1 seed could be seen and for the first time ever (with 64/65 teams), no #1 seed made the Final Four. And if this pool was not based in the Los Angeles area and Ken B wasn't such a die-hard Gators fan, would anyone have picked UCLA or Florida to win it all?

Some final thoughts on this crazy tournament...

THE BATTLE: The mid-major seniors vs the major conference sophomores/juniors... the gap seems to closing a bit.

QUESTIONABLE SELECTIONS: George Mason. The Missouri Valley Conference. That's why they play the games.

BUZZER BEATER!!!: For the first time in three years, a shot at the buzzer goes in to win the game (Texas v West Virginia in S16).

NERVOUS: Teams regularly blew 10-point 2nd half leads. Such as Iowa v NW St (17), Gonzaga v UCLA (14), Washington v UConn (11), and Albany v UConn (10.. well, that's forgivable).

COLD: And teams regularly went without a field goal for long periods of time. These are top seeds, too, especially in the Sweet 16 & Elite 8. Villanova v Florida (lost, 10:08), BC v Villanova (lost, 9:16), UCLA v Gonzaga (won, 8:43), and LSU v Duke (won, 7:30 w/o FG).

NO MORE MONKEY: Gonzaga (5 yrs) & Florida (6 yrs) both finally made it to the Sweet 16 as a top seed.

GIVE THE MONKEY TO...: Duke, who for the 4th time in 5 yrs failed to make it to the Elite 8 (3 times as the #1 seed). Kansas, who for the 2nd straight year, failed to win their first game (vs #14 & 13 seeds).

MONKEY IN THE CLOSET: Cincinnati, who for the first time in our pool, failed to make the tournament, and thus, we'll have to wait until next year to see if Cincy will fail to make the Sweet 16 (8 of past 9 years).

NOT YOUR AVERAGE TOURNAMENT: Just 2 of the 16 Sweet 16 teams were there last year, four MVC and eight Big East teams made the tourney, no Big 10 teams made the Sweet 16, a #11 seed made the Final Four, and no #1 seeds made the Final Four.

BEST COMEBACK: NW St. rallied from 17 down to stun Iowa, outscoring the Hawkeyes 27-9 in the last 8 1/2 minutes, capped by Jermaine Wallace's falling out of bounds 3-pt shot with 0.5 seconds left.

IMPROBABLE COMEBACK: UCLA scored the last 11 pts in 3:26 to beat Gonzaga... and did it without the Zags attempting one free throw during that stretch.

BIZARRE PLAY I: Texas v LSU, 52 seconds - 32 seconds left... Uh, TEX shot blocked, TEX rebound, TEX 3-pt shot missed, TEX rebound, LSU steal, LSU turnover as two players go into the sidelines, recovered by TEX, TEX 3-pt attempt blocked from behind, recovered by TEX, 3-pt TEX shot... GOOD!!! Tie game at 52, and OT would follow.

BIZARRE PLAY II: UConn v George Mason, 57 seconds - 47 seconds left... Uh, GMU breakaway, GMU slam attempt blocked, GMU rebound, GMU slam attempt blocked again, GMU rebound, GMU pass turnover, UCONN layup and foul... GOOD!!!! 3-pt play. What should have been a GM 73-67 lead turns into a GM 71-70 lead, and OT would follow.

BEST INNOVATION: Surprisingly, NCAA Sports March Madness on Demand (MMOD). Watching any game was a breeze (except for the one on TV) and best of all, it was free. It also had "Buzzer Beater" which was just the last few minutes of any close game, another awesome feature.

CONGRATS: Gator fan Ken B ($415), Jake P ($200), fellow co-worker and sad Bruin fan John C ($140), and the two-time defending 4th place winner, Pat N ($95).

BONUS FLOP: What seemed like a sure bet that the Big East would get the most wins (with 8 teams, 2 more than any other conference) but they didn't, and for the second straight year no one won the $40 Bonus (making the top 4 winners $10 richer).

PEAKING AT THE RIGHT TIME: After finishing 51st, 78th, 52nd, 60th, and 67th the past five years, Ken B won the pool title with his GATORS NEVER CHOKE entry... John C has finished 60th, 23rd, 61st, and 61st again the past four years before taking home 3rd place.

GOING BACKWARD: Robinson C's FLIP FIGHTERS went from 1st last year to 76th this year... Darryn B's BIG LUTHER has gone from 1st to 23rd to 63rd to 78th this year.

NO LUCK: Cliff T's LUCKORBUST last year lost 1st in the second to last day and this year his BELUCKY1 lost 4th place on the tiebreaker on the final day. Maybe not putting "LUCKY" in the nickname might help next year.

DOUBLE ZERO: Seven submitted two or more entries... and seven went home empty-handed.

Eleven months to find 1,000 pennies on the street...

■ Avantgo Notes

- Download to your Palm Pilot (or similar such as iPaq, Visor) the HWCI NCAA Scott's Update page. The default is 50K of space (enough for about the last two weeks of updates) and one link deep. Increase the size (to 75-100K) or turn off the images to get the complete text files for this year.
- If you don't have Avantgo, download and install the software here.
- If you have Avantgo installed, then click here to add the HWCI NCAA Scott's Update page.

#On May 8, 1997, the NCAA Executive Committee voted to negate the Minutemen's 1996 NCAA Tournament record, for Marcus Camby's acceptance of agents' improper gifts. The 35-2 record was reduced to 31-1, and the UMass slot in the Final Four is officially marked as "vacated." The Final Four trophy, banner and 45% of tournament revenue were returned to the NCAA. Camby reimbursed the school for the $151,617 in lost revenue.

As we head into our 12th Annual HWCI NCAA Pool, here's a look at all the stats that are fit to print (Updates forever progress.... still showing most from the end of 2002). Sometimes we learn best from history, but I doubt if there's anything useful here (if there is, let me know!) besides harmless fun. Find out how well you are doing against the other entries. Cheers!
