The Rules

 [The Rules | How to Enter | Standings | Links | For the Record | Scott's Latest Update ]

Who's eligible to join the pool?

HWCI members, friends, and family.

What are the requirements?

The only requirements are that the $10 entry fee is paid before the 2nd day games have begun, and that the pertinent entry information is received before the start of the tournament. The pertinent entry information would include:

- Real name
- Preferred nickname (I am the Mighty Mobelfakta, so that name's taken already).
- Prediction for the total combined score of the championship game (for tie-breaking purposes).
- Predicted winners of all 63 tournament games.

Our Web Entry form is the most convenient way to get that info to us. See the section How to Enter.

How are the points scored?

2 points for each 1st round win
3 points for each 2nd round win
4 points for each 3rd round win
6 points for each 4th round win
8 points for each 5th round win
12 points for correctly picking the NCAA Champion

There is no weighting for "upsets".

How is the prize money distributed?

In 2002 with 80 entries, there was a first, second, third, and fourth place prize. The $800.00 pot was split as follows: 1st-$400.00, 2nd-$200.00, 3rd-$130.00, and 4th-$70.00. This year the money will be split with roughly the same proportions going to the winners.

If there are enough entries into the pool this year, there will be additional "wild card" prizes (such as correctly picking the lowest seeded team to reach the 2nd or 3rd round, best conference win total, etc.). This will be finalized once we get all the entries in.

What if there's a tie?

The participant whose prediction comes closest (higher or lower) for the final combined score of the championship game will win the tie-breaker. If there is STILL a tie, the money will be split. For instance, if there is a tie for first place, the winners will split the combined prize money for first and second place. FYI, in eight years of running this pool, there has only been one tie for prize money.

Can I enter more than once?

Each person can enter up to 3 times.

How To Enter

 [The Rules | How to Enter | Standings | Links | For the Record | Scott's Latest Update ]

1. The most convenient method of entry for those with internet access would be the web entry form which can be accessed here. Otherwise, get thee a copy of the NCAA Men's Tournament Bracket. The most convenient place to get one would be the sports section of your local newspaper. You can also get the brackets at various sports related web sites (ESPN, FinalFour.net, CBS Sportsline, etc.). If you are planning to enter online via this web site, skip to step 6 below.

2. Fill out the brackets completely using all the college basketball wisdom you can conjure up.

3. Make a prediction for the total combined score for the championship game. For instance, if you think the final score will be 82-76, your prediction would be 158.

4. Create a nickname for yourself. This is important, because if you don't give us one, we'll make one up for you. Historically, these assigned nicknames have not been flattering.

5. Send all that precious information this-away before the first game on Thursday, March 17. Obviously, the fastest way to get the info here is via the web entry form or by e-mail (ncaa\(at\)hwci.com). If sending your picks by e-mail, the most efficient way of completing this tedious task is to format your picks as follows:

Nickname:
Final game total score:
NCAA Champion:
Runner-up:
Final Four losers (round 5):
Round 4 losers (4 teams):
Round 3 losers (8 teams):
Round 2 losers (16 teams):

6. And finally, you must arrange to have your entry fee of $10 sent to us. There are three basic methods for payment:

1. Personally hand the $10 fee to an HWCI member by March 16
2. By check sent by snail mail (mailed and postmarked by March 15, the first day of the tournament). Please e-mail us at ncaa\(at\)hwci.comhwci.com) to get the address to which mail the checks.

Important exception: If you have an HWCI member who can vouch for you and front your money, this is not a hard deadline.

Remember, if you have any questions, address them to ncaa\(at\)hwci.comhwci.com).

2007 HWCI NCAA Pool Update

Monday, March 12, 2007

Issue # 1.0.1 "It Is What It Is"

Home ]  [Updates ]

WIN YOUR CONFERENCE, GET A # 1 SEED Our 13th year hopes to be a lucky one for some

MERCED/CERRITOS, CA (smt)- Ohio St. is the #1 team in the country and they're the 3rd #1 seed. UCLA loses two straight to non-tourney teams and gets to stay in California til the Final Four. Memphis, with a 22-game win steak, gets a #2 seed despite only beating up on teams from Conference USA, of which they are the only qualifier. Just about every "Texas" team made it (North Texas, Texas, Texas Tech, Texas A&M, Texas A&M Corpus Christi). The Pac-10 gets six teams while the Big-12 only gets four. For the first time, the NCAA tourney will take place in Daylight Savings time (for those who observe it). The NCAA reverts back to the traditional regional names (vs. Cities the past 3 years) for the four regions and then assigns Florida to the Midwest and Ohio St. to the South. And you wonder why our children don't do as well in school.

Not only did the mid-majors get overlooked, but there will be no Syracuse or Kansas St. (well, they have Bob Huggins as coach) as well. Defending Champ Florida is the overall #1 seed while North Carolina (E) is the second #1 seed leaving Kansas (W) as the last #1 seed. Interestingly, all the #1 seeds won their conference tournament (though it was admitted that Kansas still would've been the #1 seed if they lost in the final). Duke still gets respect despite losing three in a row by maintaining a #6 seed, but this is still one lower than Butler (#5), of all teams! And Gonzaga could've missed the tourney if they didn't win the WCC- what would a tourney without Gonzaga be like (especially to mess up our brackets by doing good when they should be losing and losing when they should be doing good)? Oh, and where's last year's darling George Mason?

Just three teams have made the tourney in all 13 years of the pool- Arizona, Kansas, and Kentucky. Kentucky has never lost in the first round during the pool years (12-0) while Penn is 0-7 in the first round. The Wildcats also have the most wins with 36 (average of 3 per year). North Carolina is hit-or-miss as they have either failed to make the Sweet 16 (5 times) or advanced to the Final Four (5 times) in their 10 appearances. Duke had averaged a #2 seed (1.9) in their 11 previous appearances.

You can mail your entry fee (email me for snail mail) or give your $10 (per entry) to someone who will give the money to David or Scott. Now, for those who need hope, Ken B. never finished higher than 50th place for the previous five years before winning the largest pot ever at $415 last year. John C. finished 60th or worse in 3 of the previous 4 years before winning 3rd ($140). So hang in there (enter twice if you like)...

Issue # 2.0.2 "Niagara says FAMU to NCAA Committee"

ANGRY NIAGARA PUTS AWAY FL A&M IN "DON'T CALL IT A PLAY-IN" GAME

Twenty-seven decide earlier is better; Deadline 9 AM PDT Thursday

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- #64A-Niagara won their 12th in a row beating #65B-Florida A&M in a game the Purple Eagles felt they shouldn't have had to play. Although it's the "Opening Game" which opens up the NCAA Tournament, most consider it a "Play-In" game which doesn't sound like it's part of the NCAA Tournament. Regardless, Niagara picks up its 2nd-ever tourney win and has momentum facing #1W-Kansas. Could it happen? 0-88 overall for #16 seeds. I'd put $5 on that.

Meanwhile, what the heck is CSTV? Is that like Channel 914 or something? They will be televising two games (one each on Thursday & Friday). At least there is March Madness on Demand. Of course, you can't watch the "local" game on TV which kinda defeats the purpose of getting it to watch during my IEEE meetings. But it's better than nothing.

I will be in BAHston this weekend (yes, over St. Patty's Day) which means I'll get to see little of games (though games will end past midnight which will be an interesting experience) and updates will likely be a day late. But David will be updating standings each day and posting everyone's picks by Friday. I'll have internet access so I'll try to update when I can. Again, in-day updates will be posted to the Discussion Board for the impatient ones.

So far, 26 people have entered 27 entries, which is a little off our pace in 2006 despite tying a record with 15 entries on Monday. Of course most people wait til the last minute (raises hand) as evidenced by an average of 53 entries in the last 33 hours over the past three years. You have til 9 AM PDT Thursday to submit your picks. You can change your picks (either by emailing the changes to ncaa\(at\)hwci.com or redoing the bracket (use something like "Nickname-update" or "Nickname-Revise" or "Nickname Rev A" so we know you aren't entering twice)) as many times as you want til 9 AM PDT Thursday. But the more you change, the more you psyche yourself out of a good pick (raises hand again).

You can mail your entry fee (email me for snail mail) or give your $10 (per entry) to someone who will give the money to David or Scott. Despite the PayPal threat, we are still accepting PayPal (check or PayPal funds only) to "hwci@hotmail.com" or credit card PayPal payments to "smt0222@yahoo.com" (but the entry fee is $10.61 (61 cents in PayPal fees... damn them!)).

Enter online now! You can also fax your entry to me at (720) 368-0816 or email us for a snail mail address (postmarked by Thurs AM). Issue # 3.1.1 "They Are Who We Thought They Were"

FAVORITES HAVE THEIR WAY WHILE DUKE FALLS TO VCU

Record 58 entries received on Wed.; Total just short of the century mark

LAX/DELTA FLIGHT # 1704 (smt)- The first eight games saw favorites advance to the second round but #11W-VCU put an end to that by putting #6W-Duke's season out of its misery. Unfortunately, VCU can't put an end to Coach K's commercials, but we'll take what we can get. Two #9's (E-Michigan St. & S-Xavier) were not shockers (according the pool picks) but pushed the number of "upsets" to a measly three for the day, in what some had considered a wide-open field. But some top seeds did struggle, led by #1E-UNC nearly blowing a 27-pt lead to #16E-Eastern Kentucky (who pulled with four) before turning up the heat at the end.

#4MW-Maryland (trailed by 8), #5MW-Butler, and #3S-Texas A&M struggled for most the game while #3E-Wash St., #7E-BC, and #3W-Pitt struggled early before crusing to wins. #6S-Louisville, #2E-Georgetown, #6W-Vandy, #1S-Ohio St., and #2W-UCLA (the local favorite) left no doubt while #7W-Indiana kept their distance from fan favorite #10W-Gonzaga for most of the game.

Butler scored just 29 pts in the first 28:44 of the match (trailing 32-29) before going on a 17-0 run in the next 6:09. Michigan St. (14-0) and Pitt (13-0) jumped to big leads but were eventually caught up. UNC was cruising 39-12 before allowing E. Kentucky to go on a 32-9 run. There is no excuse for allowing a #16 seed to outscore you at any point in the game by 23 points. And I picked this team to win it all? Sheesh. And someone online said to always pick against a Bobby Knight coached team because it's so fun to watch him when he's losing. That person was so right. Thanks for the tip.

Well, we set a new record for the third straight year with 98 entries. Of course this is unofficial pending collecting payments and such. The official tally should be available Monday when I get back from Boston. A record 58 entries were received on Wednesday and pushed us past last year's record of 85 entries with 87. A list of names to nicknames is posted on the Discussion Board so you can see who your competitors near the top are and who to make fun of for those near the bottom.

THE MISSING OSKY and THE RED DRAGON (both great nicknames BTW) were poised to join 2002's BLUEBERRY and BLOOMERS123 as the only entries to go a perfect 16-0 on a single day. Alas, Xavier stopped OSKY's streak at 12 and the Zags loss stopped THE RED DRAGON at 13. This left a seven-way tie for first with 30 points (15-1), which is impressive considering in the previous 601 entries, only 18 have gone 15-1 or better. Seventeen were actually 8-0 in the "boring" first part of the day. POSH SPICE'S GIGOLO must have bought into that "wide-open field" as he went just 8-8 (16 pts) and anchors our pool standings for the time being.

As for who everyone picked, Ohio St. (picked by 31 to win it all) was the overwhelming favorite with more than double the next pick, Florida (13). Twelve teams total were thought to win it all by our predictors with Kansas (12), UNC (11), and UCLA (10) in double-digits. Ten is surprisingly low for UCLA considering this HWCI NCAA Pool started 13 years ago in a UCLA apartment in Westwood when 10 of 12 entries correctly picked UCLA to win it all. Ah, where's the faith? Florida seems to have the easiest path to the Final Four as 68 think that will happen (65 for Ohio St.).

Curious picks? ARPS2 (41st-Tied, 24 pts) lost Duke and CHUMBALLS2 (68th-T, 22) lost Texas Tech in their Final Four. THE TOURNAMATOR (41st-T) inexplicably picked the Play-In winner (Niagara) to go to the Elite 8. Mistake, genius, or spite for Kansas? Well, spite should only take you to the second round. In a "wide-open field" should we be surprised someone picked Pittsburgh and Washington St. to win it all or that one person picked USC to make the Final Four?

2007 HWCI NCAA Pool Update

Issue # 4.1.2 "Déjà Vu"

Home ]  [Updates ]

FAVORITES CONTINUE TO ROLL WHILE LUCK OF THE IRISH RUNS OUT

Three are tied for first but 79 still have Elite 8 intact

BOSTON, MA (smt)- Well, I didn't get to watch a lot games but I did see some of my teams bite the dust. Oh, well. The favorites once gain dominated play although the top seeds had tougher games than yesterday. Easy wins? Just #4S-Virginia, #5MW-USC, #1MW-Florida, #5S-Tennessee, and #1W-Kansas. #7MW-UNLV, #2MW-Wisconsin (rallying from a 25-7 deficit), #2S-Memphis, #7S-Nevada, #3MW-Oregon, #4E-Texas, #4W-Southern Illinois, #8W-Kentucky (possibly saving the Tubby Smith's job), and #5W-Virginia Tech all held on to slim wins. The Midwest provided the two upsets as #11-Winthrop blew a 20-pt lead but beat #6-Notre Dame while #9-Purdue held off #8-Arizona.

Tenn (121), Florida (112), and Kansas (107) became the first teams to top the century mark while Nevada and #10S-Creighton played the first overtime game of 2007. Winthrop sounds like a team who has upset Kansas at one time (which small conference team hasn't?) but it was their first-ever NCAA tourney win. For the first time since 2000, no #12 seed won and of the five upsets, three were #9 seeds. Although many teams have struggled, just nine of the 32 games have been decided by single digits with just four decided by 3 pts or less including none by a single point. All in all, a lackluster first round. And pool reflects that (which is a good thing in a sense that everyone is still in it).

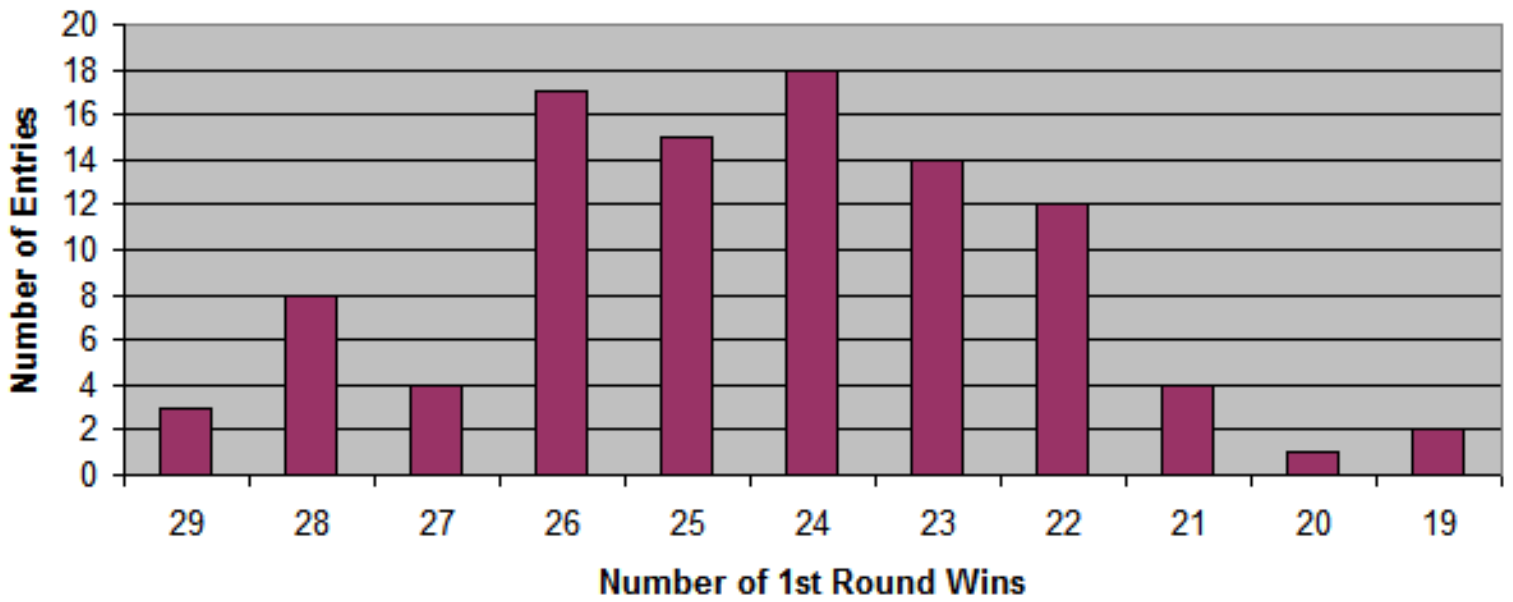

Of the 98 entries (unofficial), 97 have at least 7 of 8 Elite 8 teams left and just four have lost one Final Four team. So it's still wide open. HALEY'S COMETS (66th-Tied, 46 pts) is in the worst shape losing Georgia Tech in his Final Four and has just 11 of 16 Sweet 16 teams left.

DC944, VAN&SAM, and THAI SPICE lead with 58 pts (29-3 record) with 8 just two points behind. THAI SPICE and DINGUS (4th-T, 56) went 15-1 for the day, tying a record set by 11 others. SOURCE and DAVYESPY are tied for last with 38 pts. POSH SPICE'S GIGOLO (92nd-T, 42) and MIZER WIZARD (66th-T, 46) both scored five more wins than yesterday. Five entries did four wins worse than yesterday. It's all still fluid.

An amazing 38 picked Winthrop while just 33 picked Purdue. Other splitters went to UNLV (picked by just 38 despite the #7 seed) and Kentucky (43).

DC944 is alone at the top as one of two to go 8-0

LOGAN AIRPORT, MA/DELTA FLT # 1703 (smt)- So this was the day I was in meetings all day in Boston (on St. Patty's day, no less) and that's when the tournament decided to get exciting. Well, my friend Bill and I did manage to share one set of headphones (one ear bud each from my laptop) during the IEEE meeting when #1S-Ohio St. came back to tie the game and send it into OT. A quiet but hearty "yes" was expressed which certainly startled the other IEEE GOLD members on the committee. But not watching seemed to help as I (BAKER'S FABONE (14th-Tied, 71 pts) did go 7-1 for the day. So from what I know....

Top seeds Ohio St. (OT; outscored #9S-Xavier 19-9 without Greg Oden, who fouled out), #2E-Georgetown (OT), #3W-Pitt, and #2W-UCLA (no FGs in the last 5:25) all managed to survive scares keeping the favorites 6-2 for the day. Disaster all around was prevented by some poor free throw shooting and clutch baskets. However, #4MW-Maryland and #3E-Washington St. weren't so lucky as #5MW-Butler and #6E-Vandy (2 OT) managed to do enough to squeeze out the upset win. #3S-Texas A&M (despite a "home" game for #6S-Louisville) and #1E-North Carolina won with scores that didn't show how close the games were until late. 6 of the 8 games were decided by 9 pts or less (compared to 9 of 32 in the first round) but still no games have been decided by a single point yet.

One of the most frustrating things about college basketball is the poor free throw shooting. I usually try to weight my picks to teams who shoot from the charity stripe well (although this year I had no time to look at this), especially in the later rounds when I think the games will be closer. Xavier had the game won and could have sealed it with a single free throw by Jason Cage (I'm glad cause I have Ohio St. going to the Final Four but I digress...), both Louisville and Texas A&M missed both free throws on consecutive plays in the final minute, and Washington St. missed the go-ahead free throw in regulation.

DC944 and MARINOMAC both went 8-0 (obviously tying a record done just 4 times previously). DC944 leads with 82 pts while MARINOMAC went from a tie for 33rd to a tie for 6th. Eighteen went 7-1 including BABY SPENCER who went from a tie for 92nd to a tie for 66th. On the flip side, three went a disastrous 3-5 but YANKEEAGLE (57th-T 64) had a bad day losing two Final Four teams (joining CHUMBALLS2 (71st-T, 62) as the only other entry with just 2 of 4 FF teams left) despite going 6-2 for the day. Just 13 pegged Butler as a Sweet 16 team and 30 picked Vandy. Every entry so far has their champion intact and 86 have all their Final Four teams and 62 have all their Elite 8 teams still alive.

DURANT'S LAST GAME? TOP SEEDS KEEP THEIR DISTANCE

85 Entries Still Can Win Money With 57 With a Chance for 1st

LAX/CERRITOS, CA (smt)- So this was the day I was on a plane all day from Boston to LA and missed #5E-USC trouncing #4E-Texas and sending Kevin Durant to the NBA and getting revenge on the Texas win over USC in the 2006 Rose Bowl. Oh, well. There's always next weekend.

#1MW-Florida, #1W-Kansas, #2S-Memphis, #3MW-Oregon, and #4W-Southern Illinois couldn't rout their opponents but kept their distance for most of the game in comfortable victories. #5S-Tennessee outlasted #4S-Virginia while #7MW-UNLV upset #2MW-Wisconsin. This leaves the Big 10 with just one team out of six (Ohio St.) and ACC with just one (!) of 7 (North Carolina) in the Sweet 16. The Pac 10 and SEC lead the way with 3 teams each. This is the first time since our first HWCi NCAA Pool in 1995 that no double-digit team is dancing in the Sweet 16.

It's kinda sad the Kentucky-Kansas match is now just a "ho-hum" game. In most years, this is a battle of two powerhouses. Now it's one sided. And Memphis still hasn't been tested despite a 24-game winning streak.

SNOOP'S DOGS (5th, 90 pts) and MARISSA&MATTHEW (21st-Tied, 84) led the way with a 7-1 record but it's DC944 (who lost Texas in his Final 2) and THAI SPICE who are on top of the standings (DC944 for the fourth straight day but note that LILPOQ led for five straight days in 2001 but eventually finished 13th) with 97 points. The 97 points set a new HWCi NCAA record after two rounds. The previous record of 90 (last set by two entries in 2003) was also topped by VAN&SAM (94) and BIG HURT (92). SNOOP'S DOGS also got tied a record (originally set by LOSER WHO WOULDN'T PICK UCLA way back in 1995) with 14 of 16 Sweet 16 teams correct. MARINOMAC (26th-T, 83) got his first 10 Sweet 16 teams correct (first 2 today) before missing 5 of the last 6 starting with UNLV's win. Thirteen pegged USC's upset over trendy choice Texas and just six had UNLV going to the Sweet 16.

YOBLING (69th-T, 76) got just 2 of 8 correct while three got 7 of 16 Sweet 16 teams. SOURCE is last though with 59 points. Texas was picked by three to win it all while two had Wisconsin as their champ and KRISTY IMAHOOCHIE (60th-T, 77) had Washington St. This still leaves 59 with all Final Four teams alive and 19 with all Elite 8 teams in contention.

We now know who is officially eliminated from the top 4 money spots. Just 13 can't finish in the top 4 including our defending pool champion. Unfortunately, no one heeded his nickname, DON'T PICK MY GATORS (60th-T, 77), as enough people did (coupled with losing his finalist Texas) to prevent a back-to-back winner (hey, maybe that's good news for those rooting against Florida, who's been winning everything lately). Fifty-seven (57) can still win first, believe it or not. I guess the bracket was wide open.

EECHICK (86), despite being tied for 11th, can't finish higher than 2nd. CHUMBALLS (71), despite being tied for 86th, can still win it all. Even further down, DAVYESPY (65) is 32 points off the lead and in 96th place but still can finish 4th. Of the 85 entries still alive, THAI SPICE has almost a 50% chance for some money and a 20% to win it all. BUZZER BEATER (77th-T, 75) has just a 2 in 32,768 chance to win 4th place.

On Tuesday, we will have finalized the official entries which hopefully will still be 98. The prizes will be also announced on Tuesday as well as an explanation to the newbies what the Bonus Prize (for most conference wins) is all about. Curious? Check out last year's explanation (which will be the same as this year's). We may tweak the prize structure for the first time since we introduced the Bonus Prize in 2003 due to the fact no one has won the Bonus Prize since the past two years. Stay tuned.

BONUS PRIZE PUTS SOME BACK IN CONTENTION

Conference wins remain the same but new twist if no one wins it; Top prize is record $450

EL SEGUNDO, CA (smt)- After two straight years of no one winning the $40 Bonus Prize (redistributing the $40 to the top 4 spots), something had to be tweaked. The administrators collaborated and now the Bonus Prize is guaranteed to be awarded. As it has been the past four years, the Conference Wins is the Bonus Prize (as detailed below) (aka, Bonus1). However, now, if no one wins it, the Bonus2 takes effect and the person who is closest to the Total Points in Final tiebreaker gets the Bonus Prize. This is the fifth year we have used this Bonus to give hope to those who get eliminated early as only those who do not finish in the top 4 will be eligible to win. Rules follow below...

Bonus1

When you completed your online entry and saw your picks (to print out), some of you might have been wondering what the heck "Winningest Conference(s): ?? | Wins: #" meant. And thus, subliminally, you were also picking which conference would get the most wins in the tournament and how many wins that conference would get via your direct picks. Neat, eh? So that output, which in my case, says "Winningest Conference (s): BigEast | Wins: 13", means that by the way I picked my bracket, the Big East conference will get the most wins at 13.

The rules of how to win this Bonus Prize is as follows:

1. The top 4 finishers not eligible (so no double-dipping)
2. Ties broken by championship final score total
3. If there is still a tie, money is split
4. If 2 (or more) conferences tie for the most wins, both (or all) conferences must have been picked correctly
5. If entry has 2 or more conferences tied for most wins, only one must be correct to win (e.g. entry picks Pac 10 and Big 12 with 11 wins a piece. Big 12 ends up winning the most games with 11, then contestant wins)

And, the Bonus Prize is worth $40, which is four years worth of losing brackets. Last year, despite having a record 8 teams, the Big East was not the winningest conference. The SEC had the most wins with 13 but no one picked it via their picks. What happens? If no one correctly picks the winningest conference and wins, then the Bonus2 takes effect.

Bonus2

If no one wins the Bonus1, then a second Bonus opportunity takes effect. The entry closest to the "Total points in final" tiebreaker wins the $40. In order to reward better play, the tiebreaker is the higher placement in the final pool standings.

The rules of how to win this Bonus Prize is as follows:

1. The top 4 finishers not eligible (so no double-dipping)
2. "Closest" can be above or below actual total (if actual is 144, 143 & 145 are both 1 point away)
3. Ties broken by highest placement in final pool standings
4. If there is still a tie, money is split

Prize Breakdown

With everyone pretty much confirmed, we are officially at 98 entries ($980). So, here is the official prize breakdown:

1st Place	= $450.00
2nd Place	= $230.00
3rd Place	= $155.00
4th Place	= $105.00
Bonus Prize	= $ 40.00

What this means is that of the 13 entries that were eliminated from the top 4 prizes, four are back into play! This also means, 9 entries were just awful, lousy picks to be eliminated for both prizes.

If you don't have your bracket, then go to the "For the Record" page and pick your nickname from the drop down box. Right now, the current conferences with a chance to get the most number of wins are:

Conf.	Teams Left	Curr Wins	Max Poss Wins
Pac10	3	7	16
SEC	3	7	16
ACC	1	6	10
Big10	1	6	10
BigEast	2	5	12
Big12	2	5	12
x-Horizon	1	2	6
x-MVC	1	2	6
x-MWC	1	2	6
x-ConfUSA	1	2	6

Thirty-five entries had the ACC as their (or one of their) winningest conference, which is why most of those have been eliminated. All in all, an unusually high 45 entries were eliminated from the Bonus1 prize. Thirty have the Pac 10, which still has three teams left. So root for teams from the conference you picked.

Below are the teams in the conferences that matter for the Bonus1.

Conf.	Teams Left (1st Rnd W-L, 2nd Rnd W-L)
Pac10	OREGON, UCLA, USC (4-2, 3-1)
SEC	FLORIDA, TENNESSEE, VANDERBILT (4-1, 3-1)
ACC	NORTH CAROLINA (5-2, 1-4)
Big10	OHIO ST (5-1, 1-4)
BigEast	GEORGETOWN, PITTSBURGH (4-2, 2-2)
Big12	KANSAS, TEXAS A&M (4-0, 2-2)

It's much too much to go through with four rounds remaining. But, if you do have a chance, this will guide you to which team to root for based on the conference the team is in.

Here is the link to what everyone picked. If your nickname is in red, that means you're eliminated from the top 4 prizes; if your conference is in red, you're eliminated from the Bonus1. The eligibility for the Bonus2 won't be discussed unless needed.

Maybe the Pac 10 hype was deserved...

UNLV AND VANDY DANCE INTO THE SWEET 16

Television titles provoke this year's Sweet 16 thoughts

EL SEGUNDO/CERRITOS, CA (smt)- No double-digit seeds remain but #7MW-UNLV and #6E-Vanderbilt along with three #5 seeds will join 11 top seeded teams in the Sweet 16. Three teams from Tennessee and two from Los Angeles will try to advance to the Elite 8. A ho-hum tourney so far has kept 85 of the HWCi-record 98 entries still alive to win one of the top 4 money spots. Adding the Bonus Prize, that means only nine people will be able to watch normal TV shows while the rest of us stress over the next round of the tournament.

Only #5E-USC and #2S-Memphis have won both games by 15 or more points which means the #1 seeds have not had it easy. But there has never been a tourney with all four #1 seeds... but then again, there was never a tournament (with 64-65 teams) when no #1 seeds made the Final Four before last year. Back-to-back "never happened before"?

Will the Pac 10 get some respect now that they have more teams in the Sweet 16 than the ACC and Big 10 combined? #2W-UCLA is in a Regional where all four top seeds are still alive but play the weakest of the #3 seeds in Pitt. #3MW-Oregon still would not have played a team from a major conference (Miami (OH), Winthrop, and UNLV)) while #5E-USC has only faced teams from the Big Six conferences (Arkansas (SEC), Texas (Big 12), and North Carolina (ACC)).

Now, 16 TV shows to watch....

1. BOSTON LEGAL: I had done my research and found what station (and alternates) would be broadcasting the NCAA games in Boston. So, at Legal Sea Foods, I was listening to the end of the BC-Georgetown game and BC's last gasp failed and it was clear they were going to lose. So I was waiting for them to switch to the Vandy-Washington St. game which was going into overtime. Still the BC-Georgetown game. End of game. Interviews. What? It didn't dawn to me about Boston College and this was the local broadcast. Oh, no. Switched to the two other sports stations... static. Luckily, there was a bar clear across the other side of the restaurant, but I still had to be social, so, oh well. Vandy won which is all I needed to hear.
2. 24: Anyone afraid of Memphis' 24-game winning streak? Besides beating up teams (none of which made the tourney) in Conference USA, they have beaten the Sun Belt (not to be confused with the Atlantic Sun conference) champion (North Texas) and the WAC (not to be confused with the WCC) champion (Nevada) thus far. Now they'll face one of the big boys from the Big 12. Now is the time to prove their #2 seeding.
3. HOUSE: Home-field advantage could not help #6 Louisville (playing nearby in Lexington) overcome Texas A&M, which was put in an unfair position as the #3 seed. But turnabout is fair play, as Texas A&M will have home field advantage in San Antonio facing #2 Memphis (and then possibly #1 Ohio St.).
4. MYTHBUSTERS: It used be winning the conference tourney didn't buy you much, because the committee has pretty much placed the teams into their spots regardless of finish and they heavily weight your body of work over the whole season. But this year, six of the top 7 seeds won their conference tourney (which means unlike previous years where two of the four #1 seeds were from the same conference, all 7 top seeds were from different conferences).
5. THE AMAZING RACE: Vanderbilt (Nashville, TN) would have to travel from Atlanta (SEC tournament) all the way west to Sacramento (1st/2nd Round) then clear back across the country to East Rutherford (Regionals) and then back south to Atlanta in order to make the Final Four. That round-trip covers 6,164 miles by car. By air? 5 games, 3 cities, and 5,256 miles.
6. SHARK: Well, it's not the same as when Tark the Shark was there, but UNLV is back in the Sweet 16.
7. SABADO GIGANTE: Four days of basketball, only Saturday worth watching. Three OT games including Ohio St. nearly falling to Xavier plus UCLA, Butler, and Pitt squeaking out wins made it a big day for excitement and heart stoppers.
8. APPRENTICE LA: UCLA's coach Ben Howland left Pitt to his assistant, Jamie Dixon, three years ago and now face each other in a Sweet 16 matchup. Who cares? Well, I guess I am writing about it... well, it would be interesting since they reportedly avoid scheduling each other and now have to play this Thursday.
9. TWO AND A HALF MEN: Texas A&M's Acie Law IV & Dominique Kirk are averaging

- over 18.5 pts per game with Joseph Jones averaging 13. The three score 54.5 of the 70 pts per game the team has scored in the tourney. Is that good?
10. THE L WORD: ARPS and KOBERAJ have lost half their Elite 8 teams and are 2 of 7 entries to lose half their Final 2 teams. Six have lost their champion.
  11. COLD CASE: After starting the 2nd round 10-0, MARINOMAC lost 5 of the next 6 games falling into a tie for 26th place.
  12. WITHOUT A TRACE: Thirteen entries, including defending champ DON'T PICK MY GATORS, have been eliminated with nine of those also out of the Bonus1 prize money. Thanks for your donation and we'll see you next year.
  13. EXTREME MAKEOVER: With 3 SEC and 3 Pac-10 teams in the Sweet 16, how did SOURCE pick Kentucky, Stanford, Washington St. and Arizona? Well, to be fair, he did have all 6 Pac-10 teams in.
  14. THE COLBERT REPORT & EBERT & ROEPER: Andy F has stopped his tradition of having names after Simpson characters (MAX POWER, REMBRANDT Q EINSTEIN, FRANK GRIMES, REX BANNER, ARTHUR FORTUNE), this time attaching himself to The Colbert Report's FILLIAM H. MUFFMAN. But Vi N continues her tradition of tweaking movie titles, as this year she is LITTLE MISS SUNCHIPS (last year, VENDETTALESS).
  15. ARE YOU SMARTER THAN A 5TH GRADER?: Well, how about a 4-year old? HALEY'S COMETS, picked by Troy and Kim B's four-year old daughter (but the entry is attributed to Troy), is still alive in the pool. Is yours?
  16. 1 vs. 100: Well, we had just 98 entries, but still, only one will walk away with the record top prize of $450. See the prize breakdown below...

1st Place	= $450.00
2nd Place	= $230.00
3rd Place	= $155.00
4th Place	= $105.00
Bonus Prize	= $ 40.00

Issue # 9.3.1 "Who Wants It?"

SLOPPY PLAY LOWLIGHTS DAY FIVE AS TOP SEEDS ADVANCE

DC944 is atop the standings for a fifth straight day as top 3 remain the same

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- Four teams tried to give the ticket to the Elite 8 away and two took advantage of it. #1W-Kansas missed five of their last six free throws but #4W-Southern Illinois still came up short, 61-58. #3S-Texas A&M had their best player, Acie Law IV, miss a layup with less than half a minute left (to put them up by 3), forget to rebound (3 times) in the final sequence, and tried to throw the ball away with 3.1 seconds left, and yet, #2S-Memphis barely found a way to win, 65-64, in the first one-point contest of the tourney. #3W-Pitt missed about a half dozen layups in one span of the second half en route to a long scoring drought yet #1W-UCLA could not put them away until the final minute, 64-55. #1S-Ohio St. allowed #5S-Tennessee to build a 49-29 lead but the Vols came out flat in the second half allowing the Buckeyes to once again rally to victory, 85-84.

Memphis had everything I love about a team... playing well and ignoring the pro-Aggie crowd, a higher seed getting some respect, their best player injured yet playing (Chris Douglas-Roberts), and overcoming their Achilles heal, free throw shooting, by having Antonio Anderson (1-4 FT earlier) hit two clutch free throws with 3.1 seconds left. The problem? I didn't pick them and that really sucks. And I was all about to go on a tirade on the "1.1 second slap" the refs allowed, but on my MMOD and the clueless announcers, didn't see the ball bounce IN-BOUNDS before hitting out-of-bounds. But it still shouldn't have taken 7 minutes to decide that.

What's with UCLA hitting their free throws all of a sudden? And what's with both UCLA and Pitt with no timeouts with a minute left in a close game? Did Ben Howland (UCLA) and Jamie Dixon (Pitt) have an agreement beforehand? Very odd.

Momentum? Ohio St.'s David Lighty's near uncontested layup plus foul with no time remaining cut the deficit going into halftime from 20 to 17. Once again, Ohio St.

outscored their opponents without Greg Oden. In foul trouble, Oden played just 18 minutes (most in the first half) and scored just nine points but did make four clutch free throws late and put an exclamation point on the last play with a monster block. It took the Buckeyes 10:26 to go from down 20 to a tie and the Vols did get some life by hitting four straight 3-pointers but they couldn't stop Ohio St.

Twenty-six tied a record set by just 29 others by going 4-0 for the day. This also left the top three the same as THAI SPICE & DC944 lead with 113 points with VAN&SAM at 110. DC944 now has now led (or tied for the lead) all five days, tying a record. He'll have a tough time setting the record as two of the four teams are already gone for tomorrow. BIG HURT (104 pts) got the big hurt by losing his champion, Texas A&M which is worse than falling from 3rd to 6th. Four had Texas A&M as their champ and BIG HURT is the only one with a chance to win money. KRISPY SECONDS (9th-Tied, 101) lost champ Pitt but still has a chance for 2nd place.

BUCKEYE23 (73rd-T, 86) and SCHADENFREUDE (92nd-T, 78) (go ahead and enjoy that) each went just 1-3 (Ohio St., Kansas, respectively) and both are now eliminated. SOURCE is still last with 67 points. Three just have one of their Final Four teams left. HENDO (86th-T, 81) is only entry to lose both finalists.

Kansas' win eliminated three, Memphis (picked by just 42) eliminated eight, UCLA eliminated another six, and Ohio St. (picked by 95 of 98) knocked off two more, leaving 66 in the running for money. More than half the entries lost their chance for first as only 28 (was 57) can claim the $450 top prize. CHUMBALLS (79) sits in 91st place but still has a chance for 4th place, believe it or not.

THAI SPICE has a 23.6% chance for first followed closely by VAN&SAM at 19.9%. BLUE AND GOLD (7th-T, 102) with his UCLA pick is the only other entry with greater than 10% for the top prize (11.0%). THAI SPICE also leads with a 53.6% chance for any money spot and five others have more than a quarter chance to finish in the top four.

JUMP TO A LEAD AND LOSE

Van&Sam jump to top of standings as one of 4 to go undefeated in Sweet 16

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- #5MW-Butler jumped to a 27-18 lead but then went 10:50 without a field goal as #1MW-Florida held on, 65-57. #6E-Vandy ran to a 27-14 lead but #2E-Georgetown's Jeff Green hit a tough bank with 2.5 seconds left to win it 66-65. #5E-USC blazed to a 18-7 lead and a 53-45 lead in the second half (leading by as much as 18), only to see #1E-UNC later go on a 18-0 run en route to a come from behind 74-64 win. Only #3MW-Oregon didn't jump out to a big lead, its biggest lead was just six in the first half, and withstood a crazy comeback by #7MW-UNLV to become the Pac-10's second team in the Elite 8 winning 76-72. All eight higher seeded teams won in the Sweet 16.

Wow. Lots of long stretches without a field goal today. UNC went 6:53 without a FG (0/11) and USC went 8:12 (0/8) in the same game. Butler went 10:50 without a basket (0/9), Georgetown went basketless for 6:29 (0/7), and Oregon went the last 5:25 without a FG (0/1) and missing 5 of their last 11 free throws in that stretch.

I must be watching way too many LeBron James moves because it didn't look like traveling (which was not called) by Green and he still had to make a tough shot. And I think Vandy not using a timeout was good, except that the inbound pass was too short with 2.5 seconds left. If you have a chance to come back quickly after a basket, that's good to do before the defense can set. USC's Taj Gibson meant more to that team than just about anyone else in the tourney and his fourth foul with 12:25 left was the catalyst for UNC's eventual 18-0 run. And his coach (Tim Floyd) losing it with a technical with less than a minute left was irresponsible. Oregon scores in bunches and was 13/23 from 3-pt range and Tajuan Porter was nearly unstoppable with 33 pts.

So can all # 1 seeds make it to the Final Four? Kansas can't make its free throws, Florida doesn't start playing til the second half, and UNC & Ohio St. fall to double-digit deficits in the second half. Sure thing.

Seventeen entries went 4-0 today give four entries a perfect Elite 8 (VAN&SAM (1st, 126 pts), GO 9ERS! (4th-Tied, 118), TROUBLE BRUIN (6th-T, 116), and MAD MAN (17th-T, 110; up from 34th-T yesterday and 57th-T before the Elite 8) joining JAYBIAN (1996) as the only 8-0 entries. While at least 60 picked the #1/#2 seeds, 41 picked #3 Oregon. For the first time, DC944 (121) is not at the top of the standings and sits in 3rd and can't finish higher than 2nd! THAI SPICE (125) slips to 2nd. VAN&SAM set a new record with 126 pts after 3 rounds (previously 118 by JAYBIAN in 1996) and the group's average of 5.66 wins also set a new record (previously 5.37 in 1996). VAN&SAM and THAI SPICE also set a record with 49 wins with seven games left (48 in 2006 by JAYBAIN). Thirty-nine entries still have their Final Four intact. With seven games left, the average of all 98 entries has topped 100 points (102.0) which is a nice bounce from last year's all-time low of 90.8 pts.

Seven entries went just 1-3 and three got just 3 of the 8 Elite 8 teams correct. After getting 12 of 16 Sweet 16 teams correct, BUCKEYE23 (72nd, 98 (was 32nd-T before the Elite 8)) got himself eliminated by getting just 4 of 8 Elite 8 teams. THE BUS DRIVER (108) has made his last stop despite being tied for 27th place. But 48 entries still have a chance to finish in the top 4 and twenty can still win first. THAI SPICE (22.7% 1st, 51.6% Money) and VAN&SAM (19.5%, 46.9%) are still in a comfortable position to win something but with 7 of the top 8 seeds remaining, they can't rely on "upsets" to secure their position at the top.

If anyone wants to know their exact possible outcomes that would win them money, please post it in the Discussion Board. Here are my (BAKER'S FABONE (9th-T, 114)) possible winning outcomes out of 128 total possibilities.

In the race for the Bonus1, there are just 32 left in the running. The Pac-10 is the only conference with more than one team in the Elite 8.

OHIO ST. & UCLA USE LATE RUNS TO ADVANCE Van&Sam up by seven and has picked 51 of 58 games

ROSEMEAD/CERRITOS, CA (smt)- #1S-Ohio St. broke out of 64-64 tie with a 10-2 run and then proceeded to hit their last 18 free throws (incredible) for a 92-76 win over #2S-Memphis to advance to their first Final Four since 1999. #2W-UCLA never trailed in the second half and hit 10 of their last 12 free throws to close out the game on a 13-5 run in beating #1W-Kansas, 68-55. The Bruins, with pool admin David F (THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA (65th-Tied, 105 pts)) reportedly in attendance in San Jose, make their second straight Final Four and have beaten Kansas all five times they have played in the tourney.

In the battle of win streaks (Ohio St. 20, Memphis 25), it was the Tigers who got into foul trouble allowing Ohio St. (and Greg Odem, thanks for finally showing up) to make their run. Whereas Ohio St. had 2nd half deficits of 11 (Xavier) and 17 (Tennessee) in their previous two games, they only had a 5-point one today. The Kansas-UCLA game was bizarre because there were an unusually high 32 steals and 45 turnovers and according to CBS, Kansas missed 14 layups/dunks, which seems to be a troublesome pattern in this year's tourney. And what is both UCLA and Kansas out of timeouts with 45 seconds left? Is there a deal between UCLA and their opponents to use all their time outs before the final minute? That's two straight games (at least).

Thirty got both games correct (65 had Ohio St. and 49 had UCLA) including all four who were perfect in the Sweet 16 (who now have winning streaks of 10 since all missed the last 2nd Round game, USC over Texas). VAN&SAM continue to set records with the most points at this stage of the pool with 138 and has a 7-point lead over THAI SPICE. She also extended her win record with 51 (of 58 games) with five games left. GO 9ERS!, long leaving Long Beach St. behind, is in third with 130 pts with TROUBLE BRUIN in 4th with 128 pts. The last 10-for-10 person is MAD MAN, making his first appearance since 2002, has crept up to 9th-T (122).

Fourteen missed both games today and KOBERAJ (98th, 81), WNB (74th-T, 103), and HENDO (96th, 85) joined the infamous list (now 112 strong) of going 0-for-the-Final-Four with more to possibly come tomorrow. KRISPY KREMER (76th-T, 102) was the only entry with a chance to win both (had both Memphis & Kansas in F4) but lost both and is now eliminated.

DC944 (5th, 127) who did lead for most of the pool, now can't finish higher than 3rd. BIG HURT has 122 pts but was eliminated with Ohio St.'s victory. AHAESY and MIZER WIZARD can still win money despite being tied for 40th place. CLAP OR CRAP F.C. and FILLIAM H. MUFFMAN (118) (the only entries to use a period in their nickname for those of you keeping score) can still win first despite being tied for 19th place.

VAN&SAM, who was a nervous wreck this morning, has almost a 50-50 chance (46.9%) of winning the 1st place prize of $450 and a 71.9% chance to win money. GO 9ERS! has a 18.8% chance for 1st and a 53.1% chance for money. THAI SPICE and BAKER'S FABONE (6th, 126) have a 9.4% chance for 1st while 8 others still have hope for 1st. UCLA's win eliminated 19 entries leaving just 25 with a chance to win something.

If anyone wants to know their exact possible outcomes that would win them money, please post it in the Discussion Board. Here are my (BAKER'S FABONE) possible winning outcomes out of 32 total possibilities.

In the race for the Bonus1, there are just 25 left in the running. The Pac-10 is the odds on favorite to have the most wins, but just how much?

DEFENDING CHAMP ROLLS; HOYAS STORM BACK Van&Sam not guaranteed money as 17 battle for the 4 spots

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- #1MW-Florida never trailed in the second half but kept letting #3MW-Oregon hang around in securing a 85-77 victory. The Gators missed 15 free throws but held the Ducks' Tajuan Porter field-goalless til the last minute. Florida was in control despite never leading by more than nine and become the first defending champ since Michigan St. in 2001 to make the Final Four.

#2E-Georgetown fed off the pro-Hoya crowd in erasing a 10-point deficit with 6:02 remaining with a 30-6 run (regulation + overtime) in knocking off #1E-North Carolina, 96-84. The Hoyas had gone 5:38 without a field goal but UNC only outscored Georgetown 4-0 in that span. UNC, partly in parallel, went 8:16 without a field goal as they Hoyas outscored them 13-6 with 1:40 remaining. UNC curiously took five 3-pt attempts in the last 9 1/2 minutes - all the while not trailing! UNC, like they did against USC, scored most of the points on the inside, abandoned it when they had the 10-pt lead. Although UNC tried to go for the kill with a 3-pt attempt leading 75-65, they kept at it. UNC did make their free throws and made a lot of them, but mistakes let Georgetown back in. I do give the Tar Heels credit by trying to win instead of trying to score in overtime when all was lost. UNC was scoreless and could've easily made a layup for token points but instead kept trying for the 3-pt shot, finally making one with 8 seconds left, snapping a 1-for-23 FG spell.

Which brings us to our good friend, Roy Williams. The UNC coach has proven the 2005 Championship run was a fluke; an exception to his pitiful past (with Kansas & UNC). With a second-round exit last year and now blowing a late 10-point lead today and getting blitzed in overtime, he continues to find unique and embarrassing ways to choke. UNC lost their first Regional Final in eight tries (thanks, Roy!) and had the second longest winning streak for a #1 seed snapped at nine. In the HWCI NCAA Pool era, UNC made the Final Four in 1995, 1997, 1998, 2000, and 2005. As you can see, 2007 should've been the year for another Final Four. Oh, well.

The Final Four seems interesting. While 7 of the top 8 seeds advanced to the Elite 8, just 2 of 4 #1 seeds remain. No team has displayed a killer instinct in putting away their opponents while they're down. Really, the only team in the tourney that had it was USC when they romped over Texas and then took it to UNC before completely collapsing.

Twenty-eight went 2-0 (68 picked Florida and 40 picked Georgetown) giving six a perfect Final Four. In 601 previous entries, only two had done it before (BINGO and PEEPS in 2001). Unfortunately, WEST COAST BI[L]AS's (24th-Tied, 123) picks were so bad he is the only one of the six with no chance to finish in the top four. The group once again excelled as the average wins for this round was 2.27, another record (2.08 in 1995). Eighteen went 0-2 and KRISPY KREMER (83rd-T, 102) became the fourth entry to go 0-for-the-Final-Four this year.

VAN&SAM (150) increased her lead to eight (which is one whole semifinal win) with GO 9ERS! now occupying 2nd place. VAN&SAM has set a new HWCI NCAA Pool record with her 150 pts (148 by JAYBIAN in 1996) and extends her win record to 53. Both VAN&SAM and GO 9ERS! are riding a 12-game winning streak. THAI SPICE (137) fell to a distant 3rd (and can't finish higher than 2nd), 13 pts behind VAN&SAM, with SNOOP'S DOGS in 4th with 136 pts. We will have a brand new HWCI NCAA Pool Champ as BAKER'S FABONE (moi) (2002 Champ, 10th-T, 132) was eliminated with Georgetown's win (Williams sucks!) and CLAP OR CRAP F.C. (2000 Champ, 22nd-T, 124) can't finish higher than 2nd.

Despite her eight point lead, VAN&SAM is not guaranteed money but has a 7 in 8 shot at it and a 5 in 8 chance for the first place prize of $450. The 17 entries still alive ties a record set in 2002 and is possible due to all the high seeds remaining. With eight possible outcomes remaining, it may seem weird that there are 10 chances to win 1st among the five entries. That's because two scenarios produce a tie in first place, something that has never happened. VAN&SAM gets at least a tie for first if Ohio St. beats Georgetown. The interesting one is if UCLA and Georgetown win on Saturday; this produces four different people in the money depending who wins the Final (where UCLA over Georgetown is the only final result where VAN&SAM does not win money).

In the race for the Bonus1, there are just 16 left in the running. If UCLA wins on Saturday or if Florida wins the championship, we will have a Bonus1 winner. If Florida loses in the Final, we will have to look at the Bonus2 scenario (total points in final). No one picked SEC&Pac10 (if Georgetown beats Florida) with 10 wins or SEC&Pac10&Big10 (if Ohio St. beats Florida) with 10 wins so the only winning scenarios are the Pac10 with 11 (Georgetown/Ohio St. beats UCLA) or 12 wins (UCLA beats Georgetown/Ohio St.) and the SEC with 11 (Florida beats Georgetown/Ohio St.).

WHO IS THE TOURNAMATER?
Odds 'n' Ends in the annual nickname issue

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- With work, a new baby on the way, IEEE, and being eliminated, it was nice to take a break. Veteran poolsters will know there usually is three updates between the Regional Finals and the Final Four, but this year just one, with the Final Four Possibilities and Bonus1 (Bonus2, if necessary) information in Sunday's issue and the Final Four preview --- right now.

Two teams return to the Final Four in a rematch of last year's championship, but only one, either Florida or UCLA, will make it back to the Final. The other semifinal features a battle of centers between Georgetown and Ohio St. I haven't decided which I will be tired of hearing over and over again first: 1) Oden, Oden, Oden, 2) The Thompson/Ewing family lovefest, or 3) Florida going for back-to-back-to-back (cause somehow football is a part of basketball?!) championships. Either way, unless UCLA wins it all, it'll be a bleh final for me. Okay, now for the fun part.

The HWC NCAA Pool is now a teenager, and our 13th year features an all-time high 98 entries from 83 people. Seventy-two (72) of those entries are return entries and forty (40) of those participating in at least five years! And for the first time, out of 199 different people, we have the same name and last initial (Linh T - related but with different last names) so references to my wife is just Linh T while her cousin in Austin is Linh C T - of course both are eliminated so it won't matter now. We had a close one before with one year having a Rob C, Robinson C, and Robert C. Of course, with more entries, you tend to get more boring nicknames such as FARBER82, MARINOMAC2, ARPS2, BRETT M, XK2XBOILX, DC944, DAVYESPY, CARSERONI, SHRINER, DINGUS and SOURCE (a 6-timer!). Now, time to decipher everyone's nickname, and if I get it completely wrong, be sure to explain yourself in the Discussion Board. No promises on using all 98 nicknames, but I'll try.

We have more team pride this year with supporters of Long Beach St. (GO 9ERS! and 49ER TIME, both not daring enough to pick them to reach the Sweet 16), UCLA (TROUBLE BRUIN, IN BRUINS WE TRUST, and BLUE AND GOLD), USC (THE RED DRAGON (according to the Discussion Board comments) and CARDINAL & GOLD, both picking USC over Texas), Maryland (GO TERPS), Ohio St. (BUCKEYE23 and BUCKEYE MIKE (though I doubt he has any allegiance to Ohio St but he did pick them to win it all), and our dedicated lone Florida fan (DON'T PICK MY GATORS). We had dedications to teams not good enough to make the tourney such as Cal (BEARALUM and THE MISSING OSKI), Kansas St. (KSU-SHAFTED), Illinois (ILLINIWEK POSSE), Alabama (BAMA-G) and ... Nebraska (HICKORYHUSKERS).

We had some YOUNG BLOOD and the return of MAD MAN. We had mythological references (JASON'S ARGONAUTS and MARTY THE GREEK), movie references (LITTLE MISS SUNCHIPS and LUCKY NUMBER SLEVIN), artist references (SNOOP'S DOGS), and astrological references (NOSTRADAMUS and HALEY'S COMETS). With Andy F turning away from a Simpsons-related name (instead referencing The Colbert Report's FILLIAM H. MUFFMAN), the lone Simpsons reference now belongs to Jon J's SLACKJAW.

We had sport references to soccer (CLAP OR CRAP F.C. and POSH SPICE'S GIGOLO), football & baseball (MARINO-MAC) and horse racing (TRIFECTA). There were tributes to people's kids (MARISSA&MATTHEW (our first entry this year!), KOBERAJ, and BABY SPENCER) and people's locations (MILE HIGH and TEXAS GIRL). Contradictions? Q-MAN is a female while EE-CHICK is a male (though the real story is "chick" refers to Hainan chicken) and [WEST COAST BI\[L\]AS](#) picked east coast teams in the final.

There were the Oh's (HENDO, BINGO, FABIO, YO-BLING), the Why's (INDY, ZIPPY, TRENDY, and AHAESY (which would have been cooler as "Ah-easy")), and the Bigs (BIG DAWG, BIG HURT, BIG LUTHER, and BIG NADS). We had military/patriotic sounding names (SARGE, WOODEN\_SOLDIER, FLIP FIGHTERS, YANKEEAGLE, WNB, and RECON) and NCAA-influenced nicknames (NEED CASH AID AMIGOS, THE TOURNAMATER, POOLRAIDER, and BUZZER BEATER). We have names we can do without (ARPS, C STONE, KRISPY KREMER, KRISPY SECONDS, CHUMBALLS, CHUMBALLS2, and SCRIMSHAWORGY) and names of names (SUZNANA and THE RAT PACK). Who is the MOUTH OF THE SOUTH or MIZER WIZARD and is there a picture of this KRISTY IMAHOOCHIE?

We have our colorful nicknames (BLUESTARS1996 and YELLOWMONKEY but no PINK reference from Van P, who instead went with VAN&SAM and is currently in first place- so pink is bad?) and one of the all-time great nicknames (SCHADENFREUDE). This year there is a strong Asian influence (THAI SPICE, SUSHI4U, TEAM SAMURAI, SENSEI, and SAMURAI JACK) and what would seem to be great names for villains/heroes (THE SITTER, THE BUS DRIVER, and THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA). And that's all she wrote! Hope you enjoyed the recap and here is the list of names to nicknames again if you've forgotten.

SOUND FAMILIAR? OSU VS. FLORIDA

Van&Sam demolishes competition for 1st and is a win away from a perfect Final 15

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- Ah, sleeping through the semifinals with a 101 degree fever, I had to rely on my wife (BABY SPENCER (53rd-Tied, 122 pts) for information on how the flow of the games went... so I checked ESPN as well. #1S-Ohio St. kept their nice lead for most of the second half in beating #2E-Georgetown, 67-60, for this first title game since 1962. Both big men played well but both were in foul trouble, limiting their time. In the second semifinal, #1MW-Florida kept a double-digit lead throughout the last 15 minutes of the second half in once again beating the #2W-UCLA Bruins, 76-66, and keeping alive their quest for back-to-back titles. The Gators seemed to put their game in cruise control in the last ten minutes and if not for offensive rebounds for easy put-backs and UCLA not finding their outside shooting touch, this game could have turned around (and the Bruins were one missed 3-pt shot away from cutting it to 7).

So once again Buckeye center Greg Oden gets into early foul trouble. Once again, the Gators beat UCLA. And once again, gosh darn it, we have another Ohio St.-Florida championship match-up (the other, of course, just four months ago when the Gators upset Ohio St. for the college football BCS title). But luckily we only have two days of radio banter instead of the excruciating six days between Regional Final and Final Four. That is way too much time and even on the radio they stopped talking about the tourney for the upcoming football draft, the baseball season, and the pitiful Lakers and whether or not we would like to have Shaq back (isn't this really, really old news?).

But in the important stuff, VAN&SAM leads by 16 points (the final is only worth 12 pts) and thus, is our new HWCi NCAA Pool Champion. Her 166 point total and 55 wins extends her existing records (she has only missed 7 games! Four people missed 7 games on the FIRST day!). She has been perfect since the Elite 8 and if Ohio St. wins, she'll become the first person to go a perfect Last 15; 8-0 in the Elite 8, 4-0 in the Final Four, 2-0 in the Finals, and 1-0 for the champion. In case you're wondering, only two people have gone a perfect Last 15 on the flip side - 0-15 (GOBAY in 2002, and REGGIEK945 in 2005).

As for the rest, there are six entries remaining and none have guaranteed themselves any money. GO 9ERS! saw her win streak stopped at 13 (notice both with the long win streaks are women?) with UCLA's loss and is tied for second with SLACKJAW with 150 pts. The Bernardo husband-wife team of THAI SPICE and BUCKEYE MIKE are tied for 4th with 145 pts and one of them will win money. SNOOP'S DOGS (6th, 144) and DC944 (7th-T, 141) are also still in the running for money, depending on the outcome of the Final.

42 picked Ohio St. and 34 picked Florida, making this the third time since the pool started (Duke & UConn in 1999 and Illinois & UNC in 2005) that the top two teams picked made the finals. In 1999 & 2005, the underdogs won (UConn & UNC) so this year Florida is the underdog being picked by just 13 to win it all (vs. 31 for Ohio St.).

In the race for the $40 Bonus Prize, the Pac 10 and SEC are tied with 10 wins each. If Florida wins the final, that would make the SEC the winningest conference with 11 wins and only one person chose that: BUCKEYE23 (26th-T, 132). So she will have to root against her Buckeyes to win the $40. But if she prefers the Buckeye win, then no one picked a tie between SEC/Pac 10/Big 10 with 10 wins, so the Bonus2 will be in effect (check to see if you're in the running), putting 49 entries back into the race (and I'm not one of them... grrr)!

THIRTEEN A LUCKY NUMBER FOR VAN&SAM

A look back at our pre-teen years

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- Tomorrow we get a familiar sight as Florida is back in the Final and the question is, can the 21st century Fab Five go back-to-back? I admire the Gator starters for all returning, spurning millions in the NBA for a chance at another title. Wish more college students felt that way (Oden? Durant?). Ohio St., who had a nice run recently during the Penn/Redd days, is making their first final appearance in 45 years, so who's going to win? Well, for the HWCII Pool participants, there are three (Ann B (THAI SPICE), Troy B (SNOOP'S DOGS), and Don C (DC944)) rooting for Ohio St. and three (Yumi S (GO 9ERS!), Jon J (SLACKJAW), and Mike B (BUCKEYE MIKE)) rooting for Florida, with VAN&SAM (Van P) not giving a care in winning the Pool title yesterday. Van become's our 12th different pool champion (and 3rd female titlist). In fact she called within thirty seconds of the final whistle to ask when she can collect. Ah, unfortunately for her, in the Chinese culture, family comes first, so she will be unwillingly sharing her winnings with her family for Dim Sum at some future date.

We have fallen short of 700 entries (699) and 200 people (199) in our 13 years of existence. In thirteen years, the pool has steadily (and controllably) grown in size as friends of friends refer friends. In fact, our longest Six Degrees of Scott is: John S (C STONE) who knows David S (SHRINER) who knows Roy W (KRISPY KREMER) who knows Leonard K who knows Jeff L who knows me (BAKER'S FABONE). Also, we have ten online entries who for some reason, trust us. At the end of Monday, we will have doled out our largest prize ever ($450 to VAN&SAM) and closed out another three weeks of excitement, frustration, and elation. All of the previous 12 years of this excitement, frustration, and elation has been captured in the delayed 126-page 2007 HWCII NCAA Tournament Record Book (now available for download (2.5 MB, PDF).

A little history....

In 1995, the first year of the pool, just 12 people entered in a modest effort put forth by HW-UCLA and their close friends. Names like BAD ASS and LIVER BOY graced the pool. Of course, their interest was heightened because UCLA was favored to win it all. Indeed, 10 of 12 picked UCLA while 2 picked Kentucky. This pool featured the infamous LOSER WHO DIDN'T PICK UCLA (Dennis K) who set an all-time record (still stands today) with a 14-2 2nd Round to go from tied for 9th to tied for 1st before going 0-7 in the final 3 rounds to finish dead last (12th) with 98 points. TINA'S BOY (Mark C) became the first person to be eliminated when the 2nd round ended. He was, however, one of only 3 people (all in 1995) to correctly pick the two teams in the final and the champion prior to 1999. BIX PIX (Fernando B, 1st, 148) and MR. NELSON (Nelson, 2nd, 146) were the other two and claimed the top two spots, winning $70 and $30, respectively. THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA (Dave F, 3rd, 141) claimed third prize worth $20. All but one finished with 110 points or more, the highest scoring pool ever (130.6 avg).

In 1996, 19 people participated in the pool. Without the HW-UCLA guys picking nicknames, we had some boring stuff like JAMES, JOSEPH, and HEATHER. That year, the total points tiebreaker was first used to settle ties. A newcomer, JAYBIAN (Jason S, 1st, 144) rode Kentucky to a first place prize of $110. He also set a record going 8-0 for the 3rd round (still the only person today) and never looked back. BIX PIX TWEY (Fernando B, 5th, 129), hoping to duplicate last year's effort, fell short of winning money thanks to his loyalty to UCLA. JOSEPH (Joseph K, 2nd, 140) and JAMES (James L, 3rd, 139) won $50 and $30, respectively. Six picked Kentucky that year with just as many picking UCLA (who lost to Princeton in the first round- ouch!). This was the first year someone entered twice (Dave F) and ended up 11th (REALISTIC MOBELFAKTA, 113) and 16th (THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA, 106). MM and HATE THE DUCKS (Mark C, 12th, 112) became the 2nd and 3rd people to go 0-for-the- Final-Four. HATE THE DUCKS had a 64% chance of winning money heading into the 4th round, and 0% chance after. THE CHEF (Douglas H, 19th, 80) set an all-time low in points for a pool at the time.

In 1997, the first real debate on whether to raise the pool fee to $20 from $10 was raised. Fortunately, it was defeated in a vote. But, three people did plunk down $20 to enter twice as 22 entries were received in the third annual pool. Like Dave F before them, the three people went moneyless (Tuan H- RODERICK (15th, 97) and RHODES (14th, 97); Alvin K- BAD ASS I (4th, 111) and BAD ASS II (18th, 93); and Dennis K- LENNY (6th, 107) and DUKE (12th, 99)). This was also the first year no one picked the correct NCAA champion. Arizona, who usually bowed out in the first or second round, surprised everyone, including Kentucky, in winning the championship in overtime. The #4-SE seed beat three # 1 seeds, the first time that's happened. Twelve had picked Kansas and four North Carolina, neither which made the championship game. MAX (Sean D, 1st, 116) bounced back from a 15th place finish the year before to win the $125 top prize. The Selander brothers took 2nd (Brian S, THE FLYING ELVI, 115) and 3rd (Jason S, JAYBIAN II, 113) for $60 and $35, respectively. Jason S became the first person to win money twice (1st in 1996). Todd S. (FRODO, 5th, 109) became the first person to lead going into the Final Four and end up with nothing. Just half (11 of 22) finished 100 points or higher.

In 1998, a record 28 entries tried their luck. ANNA COME LATELY (Anna, 1st, 126), the last entry we received, seemed like the least likely to win, picking a Utah over UCLA final. Well, Utah surprised the 27 other entrants (no one else even had them in the Final Four) and gave ANNA COME LATELY the record top prize of $150. James L became the 2nd person to win twice taking the $70 second place prize (CAVEMAN, 2nd, 113) while THE FABONE (Scott T, 3rd, 110) won money for the first time in four tries to take home $40. For the first time, a 4th place prize was created and that went to SCOTTMAN (Scott H, 4th, 108), which was also the first time the tiebreaker played a part in the top spots as SCOTTMAN won the 4-way tie for 4th place. With Kentucky's rally and win over Utah in the final, this was the 2nd straight year no one picked the champion. Sixteen pegged UNC while five hoped for an Arizona repeat. UTHOPE (Donald G, 24th, 92) became the 4th person to go 0-7 in the last three rounds. ANNA COME LATELY's 13-point win was the largest margin of victory ever (still stands today). Tuan H once again entered twice with the same results- no money (STRAIGHT BUTTER, 10th, 106 and EN FUEGO, 13th, 104) extending the drought for dual entries to 0-for-5.

In 1999, a record 36 entries (18 NCAA pool newcomers, 13 pool newcomers if you include those who participated in the World Cup Pool) were received with two dual entries (Scott T- THE FABONE V and FREE FABONE and Gareth M- CARSERONI and MAJERUS FOR SDSU). This was the first year the referral program was in effect (free entry for 5 referrals). Mark C (DARKSHARK) became the first person to go 0-for-7 in the Final Four twice (1996). SHARY BOBBINS (Lisa T, 1st, 146) and CARSERONI (Gareth M, 3rd, 120) became the 12th and 13th different people to win HWCI NCAA pool money. Scott T (FREE FABONE) and Gareth M (CARSERONI) broke a streak of winless dual entries with a 2nd and 3rd Place finish in one of their entries. James L (BIG GAME, 5th, 117) bid to go 3-for-3 in winning money came falling down with Duke's stunning loss. Three of four people who picked UConn (29 picked Duke) to win it all won money. Rob C (LUIS ENRIQUE'S ARMADA, 11th, 113) became the first person to pick the correct champion and lose out to someone who didn't (where the correct champion was picked). Fernando B (BIG SPIDER BECK, 4th, 118) had just a 4 in 132 chance to win money and took 4th, his second winning entry ever. Loretta A (TRUE BRUIN, 36th, 67) finished with all-time record low in points at the time.

In 2000, a record-tying 36 entries once again tried their luck as 14 newcomers entered. Sam N (MORALES' MOUNDS, 122 pts) became the sixth different champion after finishing 26th and 31st in the previous two years. He became the first person to either be tied or in the lead after each of the six rounds. After a record breaking first round that saw two people get 30 of 32 first round games correct, the brackets started to fall apart as no one got more than 3 of 8 Sweet Sixteen games correct and eight people went go 0-7 in the Final Four (just six have done so before (117 entries)). Just one #1 and one #2 seed advanced to the Elite Eight. Dave F (THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA) returns to the winner's circle with a 2nd Place finish. Scott T (THE FABONE VI) won money for a record third straight pool. Beth S (BETHEON, 36th, 62) shattered the all-time low in points at the time. Fourteen people pegged Michigan St. as the correct champion. Craig E (CRAIGS99) won 4th place in his first pool.

In 2001, a record shattering 59 entries were received by 53 people (21 new people). Robinson C (TEAM SAMURAI) won the biggest prize ever of $280 after finishing 3rd to last (34th) last year. He entered three times and it worked. Three others (Scott T, Mike K, Fernando B) went winless in both of their entries after the last three people to enter twice won money (3-8 overall for those with 2 entries; Robinson is the first 3-time entry-er). Sam N (B-S FC), last year's pool champion, and Dylan R (DYLAN) become just the 3rd and 4th people to not get at least half the games correct. Four people went 0-7 in the Final Four (just 18 people have done so out of 212 entries) with Donald G (UTHPOPE) doing it for the second time (Mark C is the only other person with this dubious distinction). On the flip side, two people (BINGO and PEEPS) became the first-ever entries to predict all four Final Four teams correctly. Eleven different teams were picked to be the champion with 18 picking Stanford, 15 Duke, and 8 Arizona. In addition to Robinson C, Lisa F (ARMIN TAMZARIAN) won for the 2nd time. Bing F (BINGO) took 3rd in his second try and Sam P (JAYHAWK FC) took home 4th. The top 13 finishers all had Duke winning it all.

In 2002, a record breaking 80 entries were received. A hefty 80 entries from 71 people including 29 new people and 42 returnees. Seven people entered twice and one person entered 3 times but only Scott T managed to take home something, his first pool title in 8 years (THE FABON8ER) and largest take ever, $400, giving him a lifetime total of $590 and his 4th win (1 1st, 2 2nd, and 3 3rd place finishes). Jeff H (RANDOM PICKS) had the largest 1st and 2nd round leads ever (4 and 7 pts) and most pts after 2 rounds (90) but had to settle for 2nd. Ann B. (LITTLE ANN) and Paul N. (KAIZEN) took 3rd and 4th, with the 4th Place prize of $70 matching our first ever 1st Place prize of $70 in 1995. In reference to quantity does not equal quality, Gabriel T (GOBAY) and Dan H (HENDO) shattered records for lowest point total (49) and worst 2nd round (3-13). Gabriel also set records for worst 2nd Round Saturday (1-7), worst record in 3rd round (0-8), worst record in last 4 rounds (0-15) at the time. HENDO set a record for least wins (22) and lowest pt total after 2 rounds (45) (both still standing). Eight people failed to get half the games right (just 4 in previous 7 pools) and eight went 0-7 in the last 3 rounds (just 18 in previous 7 pools). 22 entries chose Duke to win it all but all four winners (out of 17) correctly chose Maryland.

In 2003, with the War in Iraq looming that week, 63 valid entries (including a record 47 returnees) from 58 people were received, our second highest total. With some complaints that four prizes weren't enough, we instituted our first-ever Bonus Prize of $40 to the entry who picked the winningest conference and number of wins correctly. This allowed 21 extra entries with a chance for money heading into the Final Four. Scott T (THE FABO9ERS) won the prize (11th, 110), his fifth win, pushing his lifetime total to $630. Four people entered twice and none won anything. Cliff T became the first person to enter twice and have both of his entries eliminated after the 2nd Round. Darryn B (BIG LUTHER), in his second pool, took home the first place prize of $280, our 9th different pool champion. John S (MR. WIZARD) and Quang P (KRIMSONGUARD) took home 2nd and 3rd, respectively, their first-ever wins, and the 23rd and 24th different people to win money. Catrina B (BLUEBERRY) had a record-setting perfect first day (16-0) but eventually lost her last 14 games and 26 of the last 31 games to finish in 62nd place. John B (BLOOMERS123) also went 16-0 on the first day but finished 27th. Twelve teams were picked to win it all but the overwhelming choices were Kentucky (32 entries) and Arizona (13) but neither team made it to the Final Four. For the first time since the pool started, 3 #1 seeds lost in the Elite 8, and for the second time, no #1 seed was in the Final. With that disaster Elite 8 round, a record 26 entries went 0-for-the-Final Four, matching the previous eight-year combined total of 26 (in 292 entries). No one had more than 2 Final Four teams correctly picked. Robinson C (TEAM SAMURAI, 63rd, 72) became the 13th entry to not get more than half the games correct. Fern B (GALAXY, 5th, 117) missed money by one point and became just the 2nd entry to get the correct champion (Syracuse) and lose to someone who didn't pick the champion (in years where the correct champion was picked). To add insult to injury, Fern also picked the tiebreaker correctly (which means with one extra point he would have won 4th), just the third person to do so.

In 2004, our 10th anniversary, the pool bounced back and 79 entries were received from 70 people (7 dual entries, 1 3-entries), including a record 54 return entries. Once again, none of the 8 people who entered multiple entries won money. Six different people led after each of the first four days before Bing F (BINGO) took over after Rounds 3 and 4. However, after Round 5, Jeff H (RANDOM PICKS) took the lead pushing Bing F to no higher than 3rd and in the end, became just the second person to lead going into the Final Four and wind up moneyless. For the first-time ever, the pool champion was not crowned after Round 5 and we had to wait til after Monday's game to find out who our Pool champion would be. It was Rick F (FABIO) who took home the $370 top prize and became our 10th different champion. Rick F and Darius B (OMG), who took 2nd Place, were our 25th and 26th different persons to win money. Dave F (THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA) took 3rd, his 3rd win ever (total: $230). Jeff H took the 4th place prize of $80, his second win, pushing his win total to $280. Jeff H was also just the third person to ever snatch a money spot away from someone who picked the correct champion (he had Kentucky) beating David S (SHRINER, 5th) by one point. After eight winless years, Mike B. (BUCKEYE MIKE) finally won something, taking home the $40 Bonus Prize. Fourteen different teams were picked to win it all, but 2 of the top 3 didn't make it to the Sweet 16 (Stanford (21) and Kentucky (12)). Duke (16) lost in the Semis but eventual champion UConn was picked by 11. Despite only one #1 seed making the Final Four, 17 entries got 3 of the 4 teams correct. Three entries got less than 32 games correct (16 overall). Twelve went 0-for-the-Final-Four (64 overall). A record 5 people got the tiebreaker exact (just happened three times before).

In 2005, the start of our second decade, 82 entries from 73 people (both records) were submitted, including a record 65 returnees. Of the eight who entered at least twice, two won money. Robinson C became the first two-time HWCI NCAA Pool champion (2001) winning with his FLIP FIGHTERS (140 pts) entry (his 2nd of 3 entries) and taking home a record-tying $400, giving him a grand total of $680 (record) over six years (16 total entries). Roy W entered twice and won with his first entry, KRISPY KREMER, finishing 3rd in his 4th try. First-time online entry Paul T (HOOPGURU) took home 2nd and Patrick N (KING KLITSCHKO) took home 4th, winning a 3-way tiebreaker, in his third try. All four entries (Robinson's 1st entry won last time) were first time winners (the last time this happened was in 1996) and all four correctly picked UNC. The three big teams from the ACC (UNC (19), Duke (11), and Wake Forest (8)) were picked by a combined 38 entries compared to the 27 who picked Illinois to win it all. Wake Forest was the only team picked unanimously to go to the Sweet 16, and of course, they failed to do so. With Duke losing in the Sweet 16, that allowed the Big 10 to have the most conference wins and for the first time, no one won the Bonus Prize. That allowed the top 4 prizes to increase, satisfying the winners. A record nine entries were still alive going into the Final and for the second straight year, the pool champ was undecided. Also, for the first time, not one entry was guaranteed money (only Chuck H's ACE OF SPADES could win in either case but could lose on a tiebreaker, which he did (lost 3-way tie for 4th) going into the Final). Despite just eight top seeds making the Sweet 16 and three making the Elite 8, a record 20 still managed to pick the final two teams (just 25 in 434 previous entries). Four entries were below .500 (20 overall) and four went 0-for-the-Final-Four (68 overall).

In 2006, our website was down for almost 21 hours but that didn't stop us from receiving a record 85 entries from a record 77 people (and a record 71 entries were returnees). The Big East had a record 8 teams in the tourney but only UConn (39) and Villanova (4) were picked to win it all. Duke (19) and hometown UCLA (9) also were favorites. For the second straight year, none of the record-tying nine entries were guaranteed to win money and for the third straight year, the champion was not crowned after the semifinals. Taking home a record $415 was Ken B (GATORS NEVER CHOKE) in his seventh try. Other first-time winners included Jake P (LORENZO MATA) and John C (JINX) who took home $200 and $140, respectively. Pat N (AGENT 86 OF CONTROL) won 4th place for the second straight year ($95) becoming just the 10th multiple winner in our pool (total: $185). No one won the Bonus for the second straight year as the SEC (13), not the Big East, won the most games. For the first time, no #1 seed made the Final Four but five still managed to pick 2 of the 4 teams. However, a record 41 went 0-for-the-Final-Four (just 68 previously) (all-time low average of 0.58 of 4 teams) and nine were below .500 (29 overall). An all-time low average of just 90.8 points were won by our players.

In 2007, travel interrupted Scott & Dave in not getting the site ready til early Monday, but a record 98 entries from a record 83 people (and a record 72 return entries) came pouring in, including 58 on Wednesday alone. This was the year of records as seven of the top 8 teams made the Elite 8. Van P (VAN&SAM), with one game left, has set records for most points (166) and wins (55) and is one win away from a perfect Last 15 (perfect Elite 8 onward). She has clinched the first place prize of $450, snapping a streak of three years where the winner wasn't known before the Final. Six others are vying for the 3 remaining spots after a record-tying 17 entries were still alive going into the Final Four. Four entries had a perfect Elite 8 (just one before) and six had a perfect Final Four (just two before), and 17 had a perfect Final Two, but only VAN&SAM was perfect in all three. The top two picks were Ohio St. (31 picks) and Florida (13) and both made the Final. The pool entrants set records for the best 3rd (70.8%) and 4th rounds (56.6%) ever. For the first time since 1996, the average points went above 110 (121.9). On the other side, four went 0-for-the-Final-Four. The Bonus was tweaked to add a Bonus2, so that someone will win the Bonus Prize of $40. If Florida wins, Wendy B (was Wendy W!) (BUCKEYE23) win the Bonus with the SEC being the winningest conference with 11 wins; if not, 49 will have a chance to win Bonus2 (closest to total points in final).

GATORS CHOMP BUCKEYES FOR THEIR BACK-TO-BACK

Thai Spice, Snoop's Dogs, DC944 and Buckeye23 join money parade

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- For the first time since Duke did it in 1991-1992, we have back-to-back NCAA champions. Like a replay of their semifinal game, #1MW-Florida turned up the heat in the second half by making three-pointers and making their opponents miss theirs in outplaying #1S-Ohio St., 84-75 in Atlanta. While the Gators made 10 of 18 three-pointers, Ohio St. had a terrible stretch of missing 13 straight three-point attempts and never could sustain any momentum in cutting the Gators' lead less than eight. Remember when the Buckeyes hit 18 free throws in a row down the stretch (20 overall) vs Memphis? They missed several key free throws down the stretch tonight and in one key sequence, one great monster block by Buckeye freshman Greg Oden went right back to the Gators who took a 3-pointer (made of course), a dagger that made the score 64-52 instead of possibly Ohio St. coming down the court to try to cut the lead to six or seven. The Buckeye 22-game win streak was snapped and now Florida has won 12 consecutive tourney games (18 including the two SEC tourneys).

Congrats to the Florida Five starters who came back and accomplish their back-to-back titles, a hard feat when freshman and sophomores are leaving at an alarming pace for the NBA. As much as it irks me that for the next eight months we'll hear about the back-to-back-to-back Gator champs (was a Gator Slam when the football team won, what are they going to call it now?), the basketball team deserves respect for sticking together. Now, here is what I am tired of. CBS announcer Billy Packard once had (and maybe still does, but Duke doesn't get very far in the tourney these days) his head in Duke's ass ("Duke University! Duke University!"), so now why is his head in Oden's ass? My goodness, since about 10 minutes left in the first half, "oh, look how hard-working Oden is", "look how tired Oden is". As the Buckeyes were getting outplayed and down by more than a dozen points: "I think Oden will be MOP (Most Outstanding Player)", which left partner Jim Nantz almost speechless, which was priceless to hear. Why would the Celtics or Grizzlies want a player than can't play more than 30 minutes without wearing out (according to Packard)? Geez, this is the FINALS! All players should be willing to play the full 40 minutes if need be. Oden is not some endangered species that needs to be coddled. Packard was earnestly pleading to get his boy Oden some rest. Sheesh.

As for the pool, history was averted as VAN&SAM's 14-game win streak was snapped, preventing a perfect Last 15 (No one was perfect for the Final Four, either, as both she and Joe D (WEST COAST BI[L]AS (20th-Tied, 139)) picked Ohio St.). She still won ($450), however, with 166 points (out of a possible 192), the most ever (along with 55 wins out of 63). Florida's win, picked by 13, gave Ann B (THAI SPICE (157 pts)) 2nd place ($230), Troy B (SNOOP'S DOGS (156)) 3rd place ($155), and Don C (DC944 (153)) 4th place ($105). Ann B took away her husband's (Mike B (BUCKEYE MIKE (8th, 145)) quest for 4th place but it's still kept all in the family, as Ann wins for the second time (total: $360) in six years and becomes our 10th multi-winner. Van P, who I had to pay for her first entry in 2002 to get her enticed, won for the first time in five tries. Troy B, who was tied for 48th after the 1st round, also won for the first time in seven tries while Don C won for the first time in just two tries after a 2-year absence.

Interestingly, Troy B entered three times, but it was his first entry that won. There have been 62 people who have entered 2 or 3 times and Troy B is just the eighth person to win (13%). In fact, only two people have won on their 2nd entry meaning that if they had just entered once, 6 of the 8 would have won anyway. Interestingly, of the 54 people who have entered twice, just five have won (9.3%), while those who have entered 3 times have won three times (3 of 8, 37.5%). So if you're gonna enter more than once, the odds favor entering three times instead of two. Proof? Troy B entered twice the first five years (ten entries winning $0) and this year was the year time he entered three times.

Florida's win also made the SEC the winningest conference with 11 wins giving Wendy B (BUCKEYE23 (35th, 132)) the $40 Bonus Prize and deflating the hearts of 49 entries who thought they had a chance for the Bonus2. Had Ohio St. won by the same score, Deven K (KOBERAJ), in dead last with 81 pts, would've won the Bonus2 (having picked the correct total points correctly: 159)! Jon J (SLACKJAW (150)) gets the dubious distinction of finishing 5th, 3 pts off the money. Just two more first round wins or one second round win could have made the difference.

The 123.5 point average by the group is the highest since our first year in 1995 when the average was 130.6, which may never be broken. But our group did break the record set in 1995 for average wins by a slim margin (43.45 vs. 43.42). All in all, a very predictable tourney which falls on the boring side with very few exciting upsets.

Florida ousts OSU, accomplishes back-to-back championships

Apr. 2, 2007

CBS SportsLine.com wire reports (AP)

ATLANTA -- The Florida Gators took a chomp out of NCAA history with the repeat they simply had to have.

Now they want more. They want to be called one of the best teams of all time.

The Gators made their case Monday night with an 84-75 victory over Ohio State to capture the second straight national championship that was their only reasonable goal this season.

They became the first team to go back-to-back since Duke in 1992 and the first ever to repeat with the same starting five.

"I think this team should go down as one of the best teams in college basketball history," coach Billy Donovan said. "Not as the most talented, and not on style points -- but because they encompassed what the word 'team' means."

Al Horford had 18 points and 12 rebounds, Taurean Green had 16 points and Greg Oden's 25 points and 12 rebounds weren't enough for Ohio State (35-4) to stop the Gators (35-5) from completing the quest they set upon when all the starters delayed their NBA plans for a try at another title.

"We all love each other and we all love playing with each other," Green said. "People made huge sacrifices. They all came back for this and wouldn't have been satisfied without it."

While the debate about the best teams of all time can truly begin, there is no denying that Florida's overall athletic program is the best in the nation.

This win completes a 2007 championship-game sweep of the Buckeyes in the two biggest college sports -- men's hoops and football. Florida, a 41-14 winner in the football title game in January, remains the only program in history to hold both championships at the same time.

"I've said it a thousand times -- once you think you've got it all figured out, you get in trouble," Florida athletic director Jeremy Foley said. "We're just enjoying tonight."

The celebration looked much the same as last year. Lots of jersey tugging, jumping onto press row and Joakim Noah running into the stands to hug it out with loved ones.

Donovan added another gold star to his resume, which figures to command more than his current $1.7 million next season, whether he returns to Florida or bolts for a possible job offer at Kentucky.

"Right here at the University of Florida, I'm going to enjoy this moment right now," Donovan said. "All that stuff will be addressed, but now isn't the time to address it."

His job this season was hardly just a matter of rolling the ball out there. He had to keep everyone motivated and focused -- at first when things seemed too easy, then later when the Gators lost three of four toward the end of the regular season.

They finished with a 10-game winning streak and haven't lost a postseason game in 18 tries, counting sweeps at the Southeastern Conference tournaments the last two years.

But all teams, no matter how good, need something to fire them up. On Sunday, the Gators found it when Ohio State's Ron Lewis labeled Florida only "good," not "great" or

"excellent."

Lewis probably shouldn't have gone there.

"Great teams never lose to good teams," forward Chris Richard said. "It's special and it speaks for itself. We're now part of history."

All season -- including in the 86-60 victory over Ohio State in December -- the Gators have morphed into whatever kind of team they needed to be to win, and this one was no different.

Stopping Oden figured to be the key, but really it was more complex than that. The 7-foot freshman, who may be one-year-and-done with the NBA beckoning, stayed out of foul trouble and played 38 minutes -- just what the Buckeyes figured they needed to have a chance.

Florida's focus, however, was more on stopping the rest of the team. Oden drew mostly single coverage when the ball went into the post. Donovan played a lot of zone and mixed his big men in and out. Horford, Richard and Noah all took turns, and 6-10 freshman Marreese Speights was added to the mix to give Florida five more fouls to play with.

"They had four bodies running in at me," Oden said. "Chris Richard, I swear he plays on the football team."

Oden had to work for his points and Ohio State couldn't take advantage of any other matchups, especially on the perimeter. Ivan Harris was the only Buckeye to make a 3-pointer over the first 39-plus minutes of the game, and he finished 2-for-8. Mike Conley Jr. finished with 20 points for Ohio State, but lots of them came late after the Buckeyes were playing big-time catch-up.

Meanwhile, one thing Florida has always been able to do is shoot the ball -- a nation-leading 53 percent this year -- and Monday night was no exception. The Gators went 10-for-18 from 3-point range.

And Florida also had quicker hands.

How frustrating it must have been for Ohio State to watch Oden block shot after shot, only to see the Gators grab the rebound and feed back out to Lee Humphrey for a 3.

That happened twice in the second half, both times when an Oden block looked like it might spark Ohio State, which kept the game in reach but couldn't get the deficit below six.

"The difference was they made some incredible plays, and we took away what we wanted to take away," OSU coach Thad Matta said. "They were shooting runners in. When you're playing a great team like Florida and those guys step up and make the plays, there's not a lot you can do. They made some incredible plays on us."

Green finished 3-for-3 from 3-point range and Humphrey was his usual killer self, going 4-for-7 and scoring 14 points. Florida's versatility showed most in the first half when those two and Brewer (13 points) hit back-to-back-to-back 3s to push Florida's lead to double digits.

Horford had a monster game, bodying up with the 7-foot Oden on defense and more than holding his own on the other end. Those runners Matta was talking about -- a bunch came from Horford, who spotted up and made three 15-plus-foot jumpers and twisted and turned for a few more hoops.

Clearly, another year in college has helped this 6-10 junior, who now looks every bit like a lottery pick.

Noah, on the other hand, probably sacrificed the most. He might have been the top pick had he left last season, but the presence of Oden and Kevin Durant, to say nothing of Noah's dwindling stats, have pushed him down.

He finished with eight points and three rebounds in this one, but big individual numbers were never the point with the Gators this year.

They came back for the championship and anything less would have felt hollow.

But there will be no regrets. Instead, how about a nice little debate about the best programs of all time?

"It's in the book," Noah said. "It's not going anywhere."

Repeats will almost certainly go down as a rarity in this age of one-year-and-done college players, and nobody in the last 15 years -- even before the NBA money started skyrocketing -- could do it anyway.

"Kids don't stay long when they have a high level of success," Donovan said. "To keep a program together these days, it's very, very hard. Twenty years ago, all the kids would be coming back and the whole thing would start, 'now can you three-peat?'"

There were, indeed, a few fans yelling: "One more year. One more year. One more year," as the trophy presentation began.

Nothing wrong with dreaming, right?

In a way, though, the Gators have already lived out their dream.

WILL THERE BE A THREE-PEAT? AND I TAKE THE FIFTH...

Final thoughts on this year's predictable tourney

CERRITOS, CA (smt)- Well, it's amazing what commitment can do for a team. The Florida five all stayed one more year just so Duke will not longer be mentioned as the last team to win back-to-back championships, a noble cause, I admit. Of course, Billy Packard will just now say that did you know the second to last team to win back-to-back was Duke? So it's a partial win, but a win nonetheless. With Florida coach Billy Donovan returning but with none of his starters (rumored), how will the Gators do next year?

Congrats to sister-in-law Van P ($450), Ann B ($230), Troy B ($155), Don C ($105), and Wendy B ($40) for winning the top 4 spots and the Bonus. That's 3 "B"s, a "C", and a passing grade (P).

Would we ever go to a 5th place prize now that our pool has grown? Here is how ethics screwed 5th place finisher Jon J (SLACKJAW). After getting almost 100 entries, David and I discussed how to divide up the money. We have always had four prizes. The Bonus Prize is kind of a token for hope for those who get eliminated. No one won the Bonus Prize the last two years (no one picked the winningest conference with exact number of wins) so we had to revise it. One option was if no one won the Bonus, we would add a 5th place prize. Well, in addition to causing some headaches in determining who is actually eliminated or not (with 4 or 5 prizes), I (BAKER'S FABONE) was currently sitting pretty in 14th place (and moving up quite nicely, I might add, eventually hitting 6th before falling). David was 84th (THE MIGHTY MOBELFAKTA). For the past nine years we have had a top 4 prize distribution so I didn't want to add a 5th, so as to make it look like I would have more opportunities to finish in the money. It didn't feel right to do. And had UNC and Texas A&M not choked? Fifth... let the conspiracy theories begin (okay, 4th, and the Bonus was won so there would be no 5th place prize anyway).

So David and I will announce next year, probably if we hit 100 or more entries, that there will be a 5th place spot (not dependent on the Bonus) in advance. Of course, the more prizes we give, the less the top people get, so think about that.

WHAT IF'S: Xavier... Tennessee... USC... North Carolina. Sigh.

OVERRATED?: Freshman Greg Oden probably has a minus point differential (like in hockey, where they track goals scored for/against while you're on the ice) when he's on the floor as Ohio St. seemed to shine when he fouled out vs. Xavier and sat out most of the comeback vs. Tennessee. He played 38 of 40 minutes vs. Florida and the Buckeyes got whipped by 10.... Freshman Kevin Durant can't do it by himself as a determined USC team whipped his Longhorns in the only game of eight that day that was out of reach for all the second half.

LAYUP DRILLS: This tourney has been characterized by all the missed layups, most notably Texas A&M's Acie Law IV's missed layup that changed the game in the last minute vs Memphis to Pittsburgh continuously blowing open put-backs and layups vs UCLA to Kansas missing 14 layups also against UCLA. I thought players who can't shoot free throws was a problem...

MADE FREEBIES: Who would have thought I'd be praising good free throw shooting from Memphis' Chris Douglas-Roberts, 1-for-4 earlier, making two clutch free throws in the win vs. Texas A&M to Ohio St. hitting 18 straight free throws in the final minutes vs Memphis (ah, the symmetry). Yes, there was Xavier's Justin Cage missing one of two free throws that would have sealed a win vs. Ohio St. with nine seconds left but not as many chokes as in prior tourneys.

THAT WAS FUN WHILE IT LASTED: Where were the mid-majors this year? None in the Elite 8 and only UNLV and Southern Illinois (a stretch, at that) made the Sweet 16. Last year, the mid-majors shook up the tourney, but things have returned to normal.

THE TRUE PREDICTORS: The NCAA committee somehow got their top 7 seeds to make the Elite 8 (Oregon was the loner at # 9) and with the heavy emphasis on winning your conference tournament, 7 of 8 were conference champs (UCLA won the regular season title but lost in the Pac 10 tourney). They also got their controversial #1 ranked #1 seed to win it all.

WHERE'S THE BUZZER: After getting one last year, once again we've gone a tourney without that exciting shot at the buzzer to win the game. In fact, the first 32 games featured just nine games within 10 points.

THE 34TH BEST TEAM: Shut up, Syracuse, about your complaining about not getting one of the 34 at-large bids. Sounds like West "Virginia", who won the NIT title, deserves to complain about that 34th bid as well as getting respect in someone spelling their name correctly.

THE RISE AND FALL: Florida, after missing the Sweet 16 for five straight years, has now won back-to-back championships.... Texas A&M (the last time they were ranked was in 1980 and never finished the year in the top 25 before this year), just making their second tourney in our pool (2006), made the Sweet 16... Gonzaga - those poor Zags have lost their luster as for the sixth time in 7 seasons, no Sweet 16... Ah, Duke, for the fifth time in the last six years, upset in the tourney by a lower seed.... Where's our lapdog Cincy? Here boy, where are you? BTW, Bob Huggins, who had led the Bearcats to choke 8 of the 9 years (1997-2005) and failed to get Kansas St. (2007) into the tourney and, you guessed it, choked and lost to the lower seeded team in 2nd Round of the NIT this year, will now take down, I mean, on, fan favorite and defending NIT champ West Virginia (<-spelled correctly) as their head coach for next season. Bye, bye Mountaineers!

TIME SLOWS DOWN: It took about 7 minutes to determine that 1.1 seconds should run off the clock in the Texas A&M-Memphis game... It took 10 minutes to fix a broken string in the net in the Florida-Oregon game. What they needed was Fernando B (POSH SPICE'S GIGOLO) to go on Robinson C's (TEAM SAMURAI) shoulders just like we did in the old days when we replaced the torn up nets at our regular Saturday basketball games at the local middle school (before they got metal nets). Would've been done in 5 minutes flat.

RECORDS GALORE: Of the twenty records kept for "best" after each day and round, 17 were either tied or broken, including 11 by VAN&SAM... the only "best" records not tied or broken? Most wins Day 1 (Round 1, Thu), most wins Round 1, and most wins Day 4 (Round 2, Sun), each falling one win shy of tying the record.

HARD LESSONS AT A YOUNG AGE: Well, one of Troy B's entries was picked by his 4-year old daughter (HALEY'S COMETS) and although she survived the initial elimination (after the 2nd round), she was quickly brought down to earth and ended in 96th place. Consolation? Her daddy (SNOOP'S DOGS) won 3rd Place.

TOP SEEDS: If you want to do well, always pick the top seeds. But except for 1996 (2nd place), picking by seedings has never landed in the top 4. In fact, this year, even with virtually all the top seeds winning, you would have only finished 7th and this is just the third time the top team has won the tournament (13 years).

Until next year, my friends...

Scott

#On May 8, 1997, the NCAA Executive Committee voted to negate the Minutemen's 1996 NCAA Tournament record, for Marcus Camby's acceptance of agents' improper gifts. The 35-2 record was reduced to 31-1, and the UMass slot in the Final Four is officially marked as "vacated." The Final Four trophy, banner and 45% of tournament revenue were returned to the NCAA. Camby reimbursed the school for the $151,617 in lost revenue.
